Ebb-Tide 1955

1955

Foreword

In a few years this, the 1955 Edd-Tide, will seem commonplace—if not old-fashioned. Right now, however, it means something special to all of us. We would like to put something special into it—something that says, "This is our book; this is the story of our days in school—days that really mean something to each of us."

We would like to have pictures of all our activities—the football games, the basketball, volleyball, and tennis that we have watched with such avid enthusiasm, the long band trips, the F.H.A. camps and F.F.A. exhibits, the pep squad's drill team in action, and thousands of things we feel we should never forget.

There are specific pictures we would like to remember, too—the faces of the football boys after winning a game with an old rival, the band, marching briskly in Austin's "Band Day" parade, the F.H.A. slumber party after a football game on a cold rainy night, the pride mirrored on the faces of the F.F.A. boys bringing their prizes home from the County fair, and the relief on the faces of the teachers on the last day of school.

Since we could not get pictures of all our activities, we shall have to be content with the pictures of people who participated in them—here it is—the Ebb-Tide for 1955.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Ralph P. Newsom

Superintendent of Schools

To the Members of the Graduating Class:

My Dear Friends:

When the Roman Emperors sent out special proclamations, their emissaries 'rode forth equipped with sword and diploma,' the sword being carried as an emblem of power and the diploma as an emblem of authority. These diplomas written on parchment and bearing the seal of the government gave the bearer, as a representative of the Emperor, the right to free lodging, fresh horses, and the use of public servants.

Hence, the diploma has come to signify a written document, conferring some power, privilege, authority or honor upon the person to whom it is conferred.

The diploma which you received was given you as a mark of distinction. It confers upon you certain honors and privileges which the average citizen does not have. Those with whom you are associated and with whose life you come in contact have a right to expect more of you than they expect of the average. If you accept these honors and privileges without also accepting the responsibilities and obligations, you will have proven yourself unworthy of the diploma that has been conferred upon you. For that reason, I urge you to be ever mindful of your responsibility as a high school graduate and do your best to see that those who rejoice the most in your success will not be disappointed.

With best wishes,

Ralph Newsom
Superintendent of Schools

J. G. Smith
High School Principal

To The Students of Palacios Senior High School:

I have been trying all year to fill the position left vacant by your last year's principal, Mr. W. E. Sullivan. This has been a very difficult task, since the example set was very high. To do a job successfully, you must have the complete co-operation of all people concerned. I can truthfully say that I have had the best from you. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for your fine co-operation all year. As you graduate and leave this high school, always carry with you this same spirit of co-operation with your fellow man and you will be a success.

J. C. Smith, Principal

George D. Holot
Junior High School Principal

To the Senior Class of 1955:

You have each spent the greater part of your life thus far in preparation for the future years. From your graduation forward your success will be determined by how well you have prepared for this future.

Some of you will enter the business world; some will continue your preparation for the future by attending institutions of higher learning. Regardless of the road you take in the future your early preparation will always be the foundation on which you must rely for success.

It is my hope that this all-important period of preparation has prepared you well for the future. I know that all of your teachers, administrators, and parents have confidence your preparation period has been one of acquiring a great deal in academic skills, good habits, and proper attitudes. May these very important items bring you success in your future.

I personally wish each of you a great deal of success, and sincerely hope you will let God be an important part of that success.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF
ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-FIVE, A. D.

- To Lannie Gillette, Berneice Patricia Wesselman leaves Mr. Clark.
To Rubymae Schneider, Evelyn Jeanette Carter leaves her water pistol and her ten gallon water tank; also her shooting arm.
To Coach Shelton, Verdell Jean Cosby leaves the key to the Bank to buy a new Pontiac.
To Mr. Wagoner, Carla Diane Ehlers wills her old worn-out leather purse to use as a fishing creel.
To Rudy Jean Hamlin, Jean Ann Falks (Cairnes) leaves her ability to get married on the night of the Junior-Senior Banquet.
To Sadie Cortez, Lila Kay Green leaves her baton and strutting ability.
To Constance Law, Anne Johnson Herman wills all of her 7 can-can slips.
To Fannie Stallard, Geraldine Helen Janes wills her ability to love and keep a man.
To Karen Jo Shelton, Thelma Nell Jenkins leaves her long blond tresses.
To Barbara Jim Keefe, Lea Annette Johnson leaves her letter writing ability. Get her trained, Wallis.
To Jerry Thompson, Kathleen Kay King leaves her ability to make "A's" in chemistry.
To Dorothy Jewell, Ethel Elaine Klennert leaves her sports Queen jars.
To Betty Jo Robinson, Edith Sue Penland leaves her basketball uniform.
To Nancy Johnson, Betty Sue Phillips leaves her job in Mr. Smith's office. Have fun, Nancy!
To Darlene Keszler, Donna Rose Purswell leaves her ability to be on time for school in the morning.
To Edward Blackburn, Ruth La Nell Smith Wills her dancing ability.
To Willene Dollar, Jane Carolyn Spruiel wills Elwin Carrell; also her ability to PAINT, not mentioning anything in particular.
To Mary Louise Ripke, Frankie Faye Stallard leaves her ability to graduate and get married the same year.
To Gladys Bowers, Laura Josephine Swenson leaves her job in Mr. Newsom's office.
To Eddie Perez, Helen Louise Warn leaves her ability to speak rapidly. It was left to her by Carroll Harvey.
Louise Lou Cabiness says she doesn't want to will anything to anyone, because where she is going she needs everything.
To Bobbie Ruth Carter, Annie Lois Harkness wills her ability to be married and go to school at the same time.
To Patsy Williams, Kathrine Delia Bauman wills her "Kellogg Class Sweater." We know it will be a perfect fit.
To Philip Shearer, Larry Eugene Ashley leaves his ability to have late dates (about 4:30 a.m.)
To Donnie Beard, Eddie Dean Blackwell wills Mrs. Smith and his favorite typewriter (the one he gets 60 words a minute on).
To Clyde Ware, Howard Neil Blackwell wills his coaching ability, huh, Coach?
To Gaylon Harvey, George Joseph Cornett wills his slightly used crab net.
To Alton Labright, Clarence's faithful flying partner, Clarence Cunningham wills his pilot license.
To Beckwith Steiner, Jack Wayne Falks leaves his size 13 football shoes, left to him by Don Johnson; also his ability to make sarcastic remarks.
To Jimmy Jackson, William Wallis Green leaves Barbara Keefe. Merely act as a bodyguard, Jimmy.
To Bobby Walton, Frederick R. Law wills a bottle of beer every day after football practice.
To Laverne Brune, Mason Standish Holsworth II leaves his Bay City girlfriends.
To Rosie Lee Ramos and Matilda Salinas, Pete Martinez leaves dear ole' P. H. S. in good condition.
To Lonnie Beard, Raymond Earl Mozley leaves his ability to be a "KAT". This title was given Raymond by Tom Navarro.
To George Cepak, Frank Navarro, leaves his catty hair cuts.
To Karen Thompson, Thomas Elmo Reneau wills all his free time from now on.
To George Frangullie, Charlie Salinas leaves his muscle-building kit.
To Charles Mize, William Traylor Simons leaves all his energy.
To Virginia Barton, Buel Leroy Smith wills the right to go with Kenneth Countryman—unless he changes his mind.
To Johnnie Heinaman, Ralph Trevino wills his guitar with a book "10 Easy Lessons on Pro Guitar Playing."
To Robert Solis and Grace Placencio, Genaro Salinas leaves his ability to be absent.
To Jake Foltyn, Walter Ewell Weakley wills his technique of getting Bible tests.
To Fred Garcia, Marvin Frankie Machart leaves the ability to take only one subject in his senior year; and his driving ability.
To Karen Thompson, Patsy Williams, Edward Blackburn, and Elwin Carrell, Thomas Alfred Manning leaves his ability to throw books in the hall and let the sophomores get the blame. To those four also, Thomas Alfred leaves the J. D. Club, also known as the Junk Dealers.
To Elwin Carrel, Phil Richman leaves his ability to have 3 dates in one night.

Student Council 1954-1955

The Student Council has sponsored various activities this year. It has sponsored several dances, the most important of which was the Homecoming dance. By sponsoring the coke machine and the Sports Queen race the Student Council has been able to purchase student awards and many useful things for the school.

At Christmas the Council planned the program and bought apples for the students. Two of the most successful and enjoyable events sponsored by the Student Council were the Student-Faculty basketball game and Western Day

On Western Day each student not wearing at least three items of western apparel was fined or put in jail (the south office). During the day the students and faculty participated in such activities as a tug of war over a mud pit, a spitting contest, and a greased pig contest. A semi-formal dance climaxed the day.

CHARLEY'S AUNT

Jack Chesney, violently in love with Kitty verdun, and Charles Wykeham, equally enamoured of Miss Spettigue, invite the young ladies to their rooms for luncheon—in order to meet Charley's wealthy aunt from Brazil ("where the nuts come from"). But, alas, the millionaire aunt sends word that she will have to defer her visit for a few days. What is to be done? The dear young things would never visit the young men's rooms without a chaperone, but neither will the young men give up the opportunity of declaring their love. The problem is solved by forcing another Oxford undergraduate (Lord Fancourt Babberly) into a black satin skirt, a lace fichu, a pair of mitts, and old-fashioned cap and wig. As Charley's Aunt then, this old frump is introduced to the sweethearts, to Jack's father (who is advised to marry her for her millions), and to Stephen Spettigue. The sweethearts hug and kiss Charley's dear old aunt; the two men make love to her. Then the real aunt (Donna Lucia) turns up and assumes another name. In the confusion which follows, Lord Babberly gets Donna Lucia's permission to marry her niece (Miss Delahay), Donna Lucia falls in love with an old flame, Sir Francis Chesney, Jack and Kitty, Charles and Amy become engaged, Stephen Spettigue is foiled, and Brassett (the butler) is reduced almost to idiocy by the strange goings-on.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AND PROM

The Junior-Senior banquet and prom, held on May 14, was one of the highlights of the school year. The guests had a delicious meal of rose nectar (orange juice), moonlight and rose special (roast beef), little moons (English peas), crescent moon and stardust (rolls and butter), fleecy clouds (potatoes), rose petal salad, rose bud radishes, lovers' delight (strawberry short-cake), and rose water (iced tea). The "Moonlight and Roses" theme was carried out beautifully throughout the banquet.

The prom, held afterwards in the gymnasium, was a huge success.
