THE PRINCIPAL OF IT ALL

For many years Palacios High School knew a man named J. G. Smith.
He served this school
In many ways,
As teacher, as Principal, as friend.

He was a small, short man,
With a great, big heart,
With a smile so wide,
It beamed throughout our land.

For those of us who knew him well,
His memory lingers on;
To those of you who never knew him,
His history we shall tell.

He helped us find the laughter,
That sometimes school rules hide,
But when these rules were broken,
He showed us what came after.

Let us praise our Principal,
For the many years he served.
He taught us many priceless
things,
To take into the outside world.

He encouraged us to stand up for our rights.
To BE something in life,
And to make life mean something
to us,
To live life with all our might.

It is this strength, this vigor,
this vim,
That lives on in our hearts
to help us remember;
There will always be,
That special place for him.

Our love for Mr. Smith lives on.
Let's make this year the best;
In memory of him,
Palacios High School, ever raise your song.

In Memoriam

Marjorie Jeannette Glassford 1937 — 1975

Miss Jeannette Glassford passed away on March 30, 1975, leaving memories of happy times with the faculty and students of Palacios Junior High School. She was admired and liked by all who came in contact with her.

Miss Glassford showed her willingness to serve by being sponsor of the Student Council and a member of the Faculty Council of PJHS. Her teaching ability could be seen by the progress of her students. She will long be remembered for her kind understanding and interest in her pupils and everybody whose life she touched.

The Junior High section of the Ebb Tide is dedicated to Miss Glassford as a lasting tribute to her memory.

The years spent at PJHS can be a happy time as well as informative. This depends on each individual. It can best be achieved by efforts on your part to get the most out of all school activities.
