Sharks Come in All

Making the mood

Aren't you a little late?

Race you to your seat.

Who drew the black bean?

I want to start all over.

At least nobody's angry.

Another look at narrator Heard.

Ages, Shapes and Forms

I want your undivided attention.

What am I doing in a place like this?

Coach Meismer's not afraid of it.

I don't get it.

My daddy said, "Don't move from this post."

Every fella for himself.

You're in for a treat, Kiddies

Come back here, Viv Witte. You can't back out now.

Missed us all and hit the ceiling again.

Was your TB test positive?

You'll get your bkkpg balanced!

Sr. Play

Make it a good one. Not that good!

"Meet Me in

What was on the English test?

Let's go to the prom early this year.

St. Louis"

We don't want to hear about government class.

What do you mean, I don't look like Farrah Fawcett?

I just can't take it anymore!

Loads of Fun!

In Memoriam

Giving 100%

Waiting his turn.

On May 18, 1978 Manuel Garza, Jr. passed away, leaving a void in the hearts of many high school and junior high students, teachers, and townspeople. Although his official position was instrumental music director and system-wide music program leader, he was our band leader, and this is the way we'll remember him. When he came to Palacios in 1974, some of us thought he was a hard taskmaster, but we soon learned from him the rewards of giving your best. May we always remember this philosophy he left with us.

In Memoriam

Tending Jr. High office.

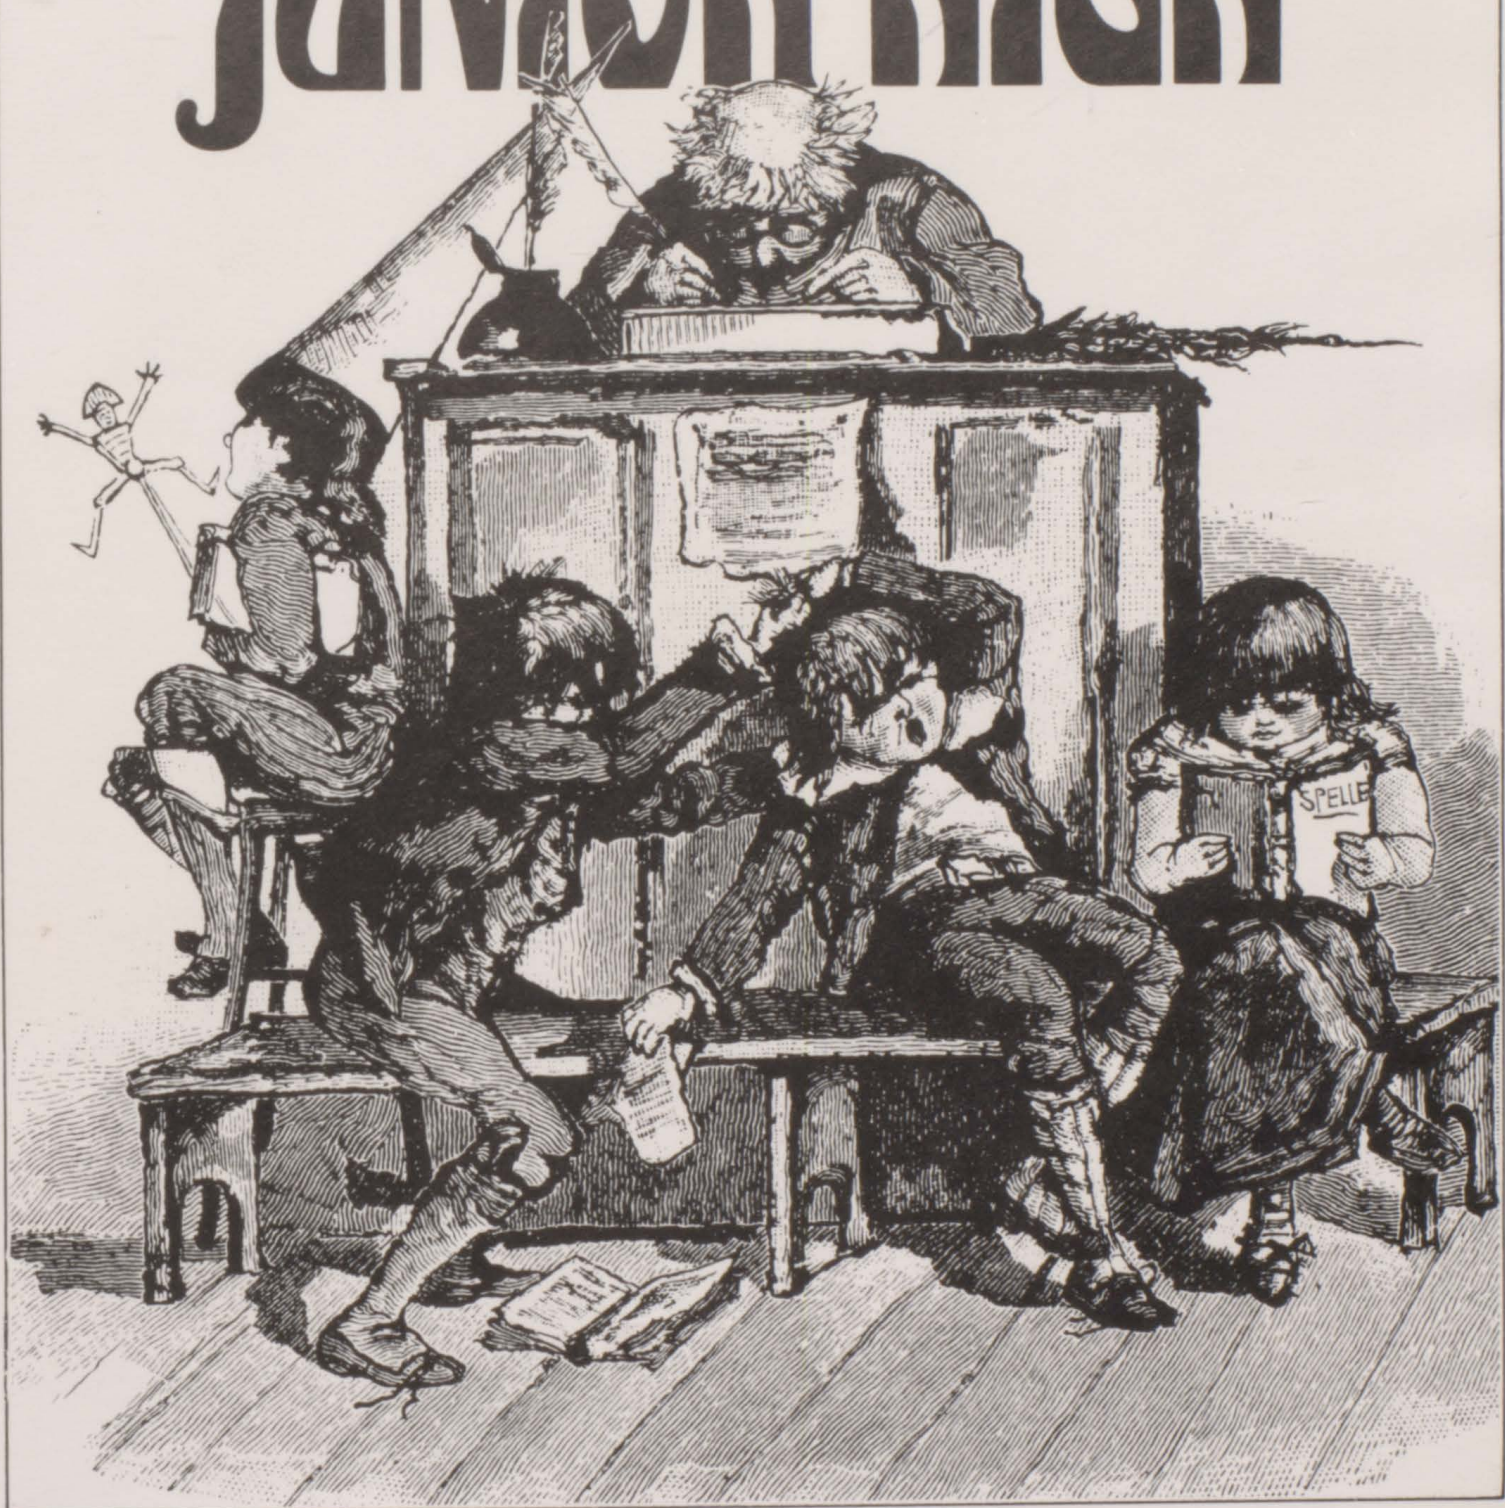

Helping out in concessions.

Cyril Carvin first came to Palacios High School as an English and Spanish teacher. The students in school now will best remember him in the years he taught in the Junior High School prior to 1975, when he was appointed principal at Eastside Elementary. He died May 23, 1978, having given 27 years of his life and influence to the students of Palacios Independent School District.
