Are You Confused Yet? Ebb Tide 2000

5...4...3...2...1...

BOOM!

Well, another year has started at PHS. Some say the last year, but I seriously doubt that! Many thought that life as we know it would cease to be, but as countdown began New Year's Eve, the only thing that was exploding was the sound of firecrackers! From storing up can foods to collecting pez dispensers as a type of currency, this year has definitely been confusing. Not knowing what would happen when the clock struck 12:00 AM of the year 2000, some hid waiting in anticipation for the world to end while others partied hoping that they would leave this world with a big bang. So, when considering all of these things, the yearbook staff decided what better theme for the yearbook than, "Are You Confused Yet?"

When arriving at school August 11, 1999 everyone assumed things would be the same, but we would soon find out differently. As we entered the doors everything was changed from lockers being painted to red and grey, to the floors being retiled to parade our school colors. And something new that blew many of us away was the fact that we now had locks on our lockers and surveillance cameras installed throughout our parking lots and hallways. With everything changed, everyone knew that this year would definitely be a confusing one.

Finally, as organizations met and the year pushed on things seemed back to normal, but not exactly the same. Many events that had become traditions to our school were not done this year, such as the cancelation of our Powder Puff game and the annual Spanish Club trip. Some say it was the weather, while others say that it was just planned wrong, but there are some who believe that it might be connected to the infamous Y2K Bug! No one will truly ever know why this year is so crazy, but all agree that this year is definitely one to be remembered.

And finally, I leave you by saying this: the yearbook that our yearbook staff has created represents our crazy year! From crazy fonts to crazy designs, our yearbook truly fits our theme. I would like to say thank you to the yearbook staff because they have really worked hard this year to provide a quality yearbook. We hope that you enjoy it!

Two Seniors, Monika Gallardo and Amy Ottino, seem to be happy instead of sad at their last pep-rally. Maybe it's because their senior year is half-way over.

Seniors Patrick Neese and Monke Walker joke around while trying to decide on what pose to take for their who's who picture! These two seniors were voted class clowns; I guess you can see why!

While putting in their time for their Home Economics class, seniors Brandi Garcia and Martha Constanancio seem like they are enjoying the open house that the Home Economics department put on for the school!

Say cheese! Senior Marcy Duran and Coach Huffman sit watching a girls softball game trying to give some support for their fellow Sharkettes.

Junior Lisa Kubecka along with the other Varsity Cheerleaders have fun decorating the football team's locker room with banners and cookies for the traditional "Midnight Madness."

It's game time! The students at PHS love to participate in all the excitement at the Pep Rallies. This game was very fun for some but painful for the others as they fell down.

Alisha Herrington and Minh Nguyen spend their time creatively in Mrs. Gorgey's English class. Minh is definitely showing off his talent by drawing a rose on Alisha's arm.

Not like any one else, Michelle Johnson, Pam Constancio, Elizabeth Garcia, and Jose Gonzalez look very excited as they wait in line to give blood at the annual Spring Blood Drive.

It's here again, Crazy Spirit time! Football season is always the best time for everyone to show their school spirit. These seniors don't have a problem with that as they try to huddle up for a picture.

First Class of the New Millennium

Graduation 2000

Parents, teachers, friends and relatives sat patiently on the PHS bleachers, while the seniors of 2000 struggled with caps, gowns and hair pins, anticipating the ceremony. The graduation ceremony began at 8:00 p.m. on May 26, 2000. The girls met in the home economics room, while the boys met in the library, assisting each other with the stubborn, unsticky sticky tabs that supposedly hold on the graduation collar, taking tearful pictures with best friends, and smiling so that no one could think too long about tripping while walking across the field. Graduation turned out to be quite a success, no one tripped, no one ran off the field in tears, and graduation will forever be a memorable night for Palacios High School's class of 2000.

David White and Patrick Neese discuss how they have been instructed to walk onto the football field, while Mike Hurley day dreams about the moment he will flip his tassel.

These girls were not as carefree as they appear! Angela Farmer, Cindy Nguyen, Kim Nguyen, Luyen Tran, Lien Nguyen, and Lynda Nguyen pretended not to be scared as the cameras flashed before the ceremony.

The bleachers were as full and crowded for graduation night as they are every year for the big homecoming football game.

Seniors (left) gather in the hallway one last time, finally prepared to line up and walk out on the field.

Class Song--"Graduation" by Vitamin C

Class Flower--Fire & Ice Rose

Class Colors--Red, Silver & Black

Class Motto--We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere.

Junior attendants chosen for graduation, Christina Hernandez and Fred Buckley, patiently wait for the rowdy senior class to line up in the hallway.

Brandi Garcia, vice-president of the senior class, led in prayer at the opening of graduation.

Cathy Garza takes a deep breath in line, as she must follow soon after Martha Garcia in her walk onto the football field.

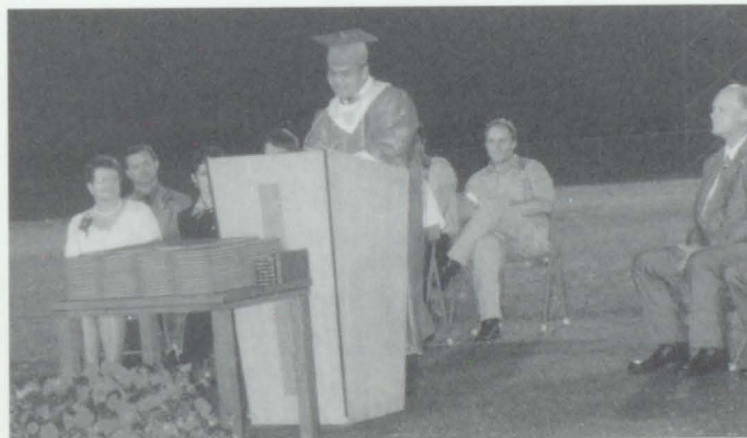

The senior class stands ready, anxiously waiting for their names to be called to receive their diplomas.

2000

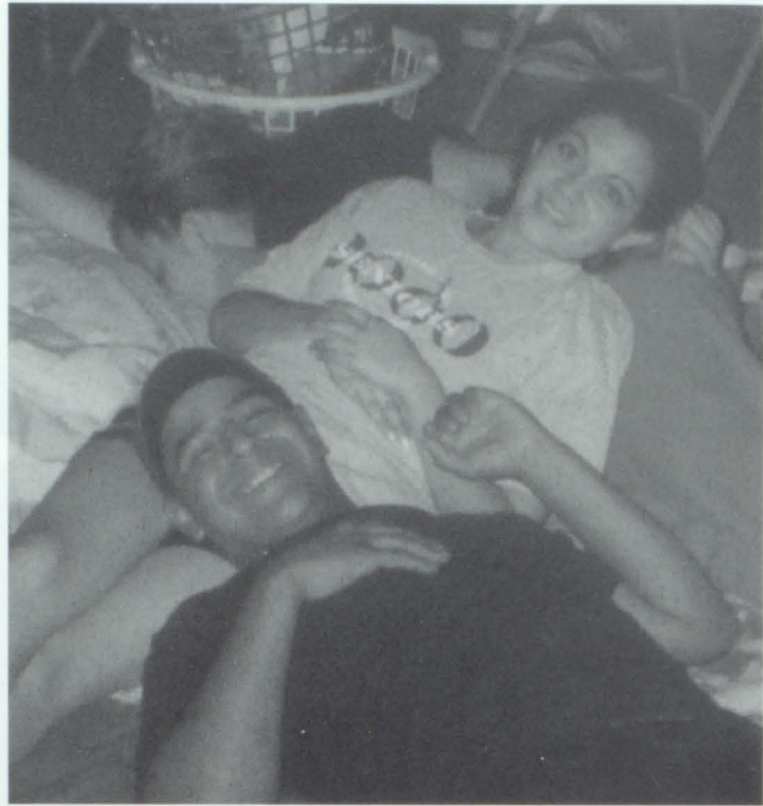

Along with Riddick Bowe and hula-hoops, John Herlin, salutatorian, spoke of being unique. Herlin encouraged his peers to be daring, different, and individual in a world of rules and dress codes.

Toan Yu, valedictorian, inspired his peers to make decisions based on their own interest and individuality.

Running with a huge box over you is not as easy as one might think. Just ask Nelle Claybourn and Elisha Flores, who ended up taking it off to finish the race.

When Project Celebration was winding down for the night, the kids were pretty exhausted. Here, the tired Amy Ottino and boyfriend Isabel Topia decide to take a break from all the action.

Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? Well Jackie Rivera, Katy Taylor, and Michelle Beard wanted to so bad, they tried to get help from their friends.

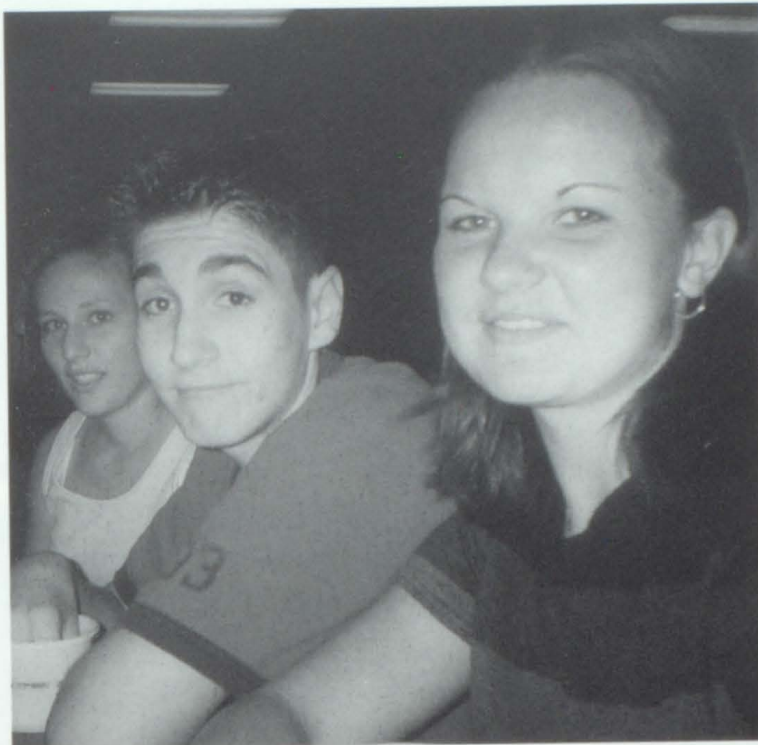

Martha Garcia and her sister Carolina Martinez look over all the prizes to be bought before deciding on the limit of three to be purchased.

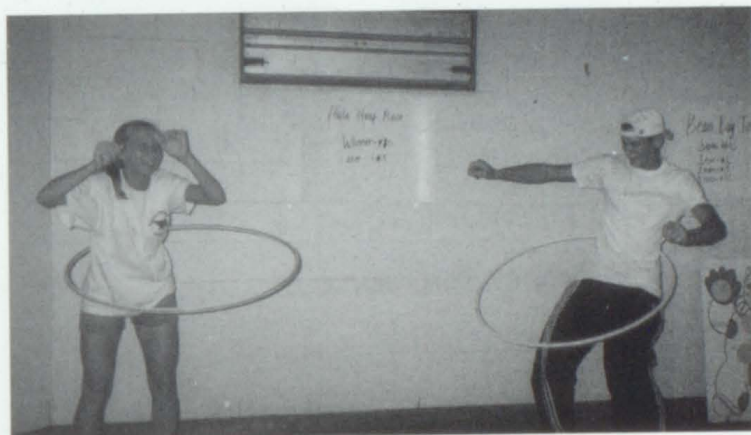

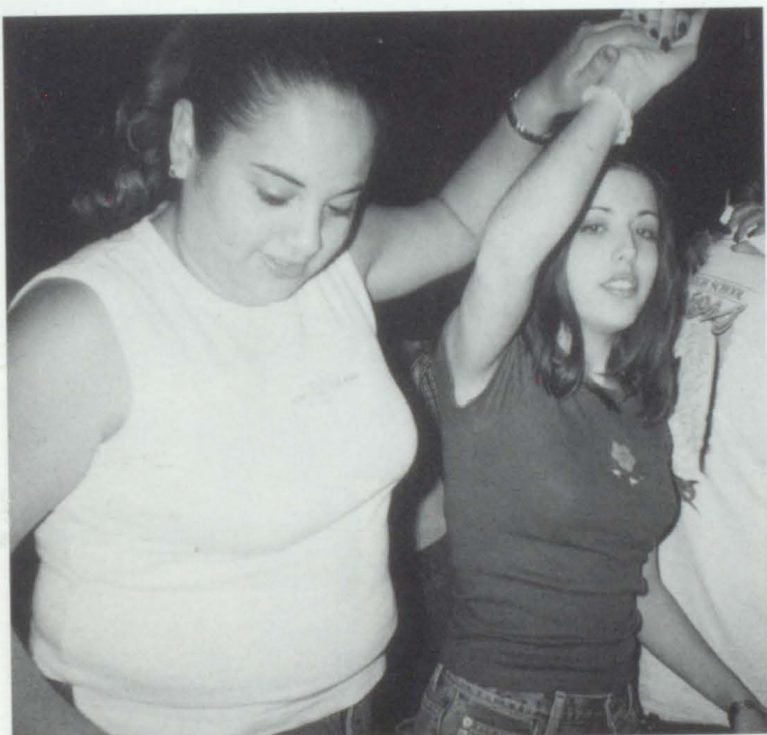

Susan Blackmon is all smiles as she displays a kitchen kaddy set she bought from the store, to use in her college apartment.

Project Celebration 2000

Project Celebration will be a night for Jack Young to never forget. Here he tries to get all cleaned up after a few of his "friends" threw him into a pit of shaving cream.

Cathy Delafield, Jack Young, and Meghan Wetteland all try their luck at Blackjack. They, along with many others, wanted to win money for the bigger prizes.

Marisol Hernandez and Lori Aparicio dance a "cumbia" to the music played by Rudy Constancio's DJ Service.

Daphni Seaman and Gary Marek remember the old days, as they play the hoola hoop race. Daphni won and received $10, while Gary took the $5 loser's prize.

Senior Parties

When the end of the school year rolls around, the senior parties begin. The first party was the Methodist kid party. The 2000 "Kids" get into the spirit of the occasion with their pig-tails and kids clothes.

The last party of the year is the First Baptist western party. The only thing on Tyronica Christian's mind was the barbecue.

Although Gary Marek has his own plate of food, he can't seem to take his eyes off of Carlos Ottino's plate.

These seniors are ready to go on the road as they are decked out in their best hobo clothes. However, they were only gathering for the annual hobo party sponsored by the Presbyterian Church. The highlight of the evening was the scavenger hunt. The "hobos" then returned to the church for a meal of good old hotdogs and cokes and additional games.

This is what is all about. Martha Garcia and Dulce Nunez have a good time at the hobo party and share past memories

No one will ever know how it was done but these four seniors won the scavenger hunt. Jamie Weed, Daphni Seaman, John Herlin, and Sarah Glenn made up the winning team.

Jackie Rivera does not look too pleased to be caught on camera as she is eating.

Can she get any redder? Daphni Seaman is quite embarrassed to be caught her with a mouthful.

After finishing the meal of hotdogs and cokes, Emily Harper, Jordan Savage, Moneke Walker, Maria Perez, Ben Huynh, Pamela Constancio, and Lisa Gonzalez all sit around and talk about the past.

Even though they were quite busy eating their barbecue, Jackie Rivera, Courtney Sherrod, Jennifer Wood, Minh Nguyen, Linda Le, and Brandon Bowers all show their happy faces to the camera.

"An Evening in Paris"

Prom 2000

An evening in Paris was a spectacular event. As images of the romantic city of Paris filled the air, all of the students enjoyed dancing, reminiscing, and making memories that they will cherish for a lifetime. Prom 2000 was beautifully decorated by the Class of 2001, and appreciated immensely by the Senior Class of 2000. Daphni Seaman and Brandon Bowers were crowned Prom Queen and King, and this for them was definitely a memorable event. As the couple danced, Jack Young and Jennifer Chau sang "When I Fall in Love". For the majority of the juniors and seniors, prom night will definitely be remembered forever.

Angela Farmer, Stephani Aoughsten, and Cathy Garza cherish their night at the Prom. This group of girls have been friends for years and now they prepare to part.

Come on! Come on! Don't we look good? Gary Marek, Jordan Savage, and Jonathon Gibson are stylin' and profilin' at prom.

The highlight of the evening was when the Prom King and Queen were announced. This year's honor went to Brandon Bowers and Daphni Seaman.

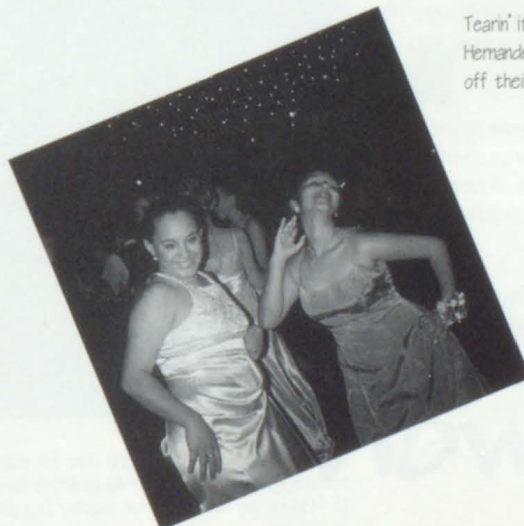

Look at these pretty ladies! Magaly Vazquez, Brandi Garcia, Haley Eggemeyer, and Erica Zepeda show the rest of us just how much fun Prom can be. These four girls have been best friends for years and they know that nothing will be the same after they graduate.

Knowing that their friendship will last a lifetime, Jack Young gives Nelli Claybourn a bear hug before prom ends. These two have been friends for a very long time and share some final memories.

Tearin' it up on the dance floor, Cynthia Hernandez and Veronica Gonzales show off their moves.

Lorianne Janszen is up bright and early and is already walking her steer.

2000 Matagorda County

Pake Stephens and her lamb take a breather after a long day of exercising and preparing for the show.

Stephanie Franszen, better known as the 2000 Fair Queen for Matagorda County, shows off her crown at the annual Fair & Livestock show. That night she received a scholarship along with many other prizes.

It's breakfast time! Like he has done for many previous months, Jack Young had to get up early to feed his pig to prepare for another long day at the fair.

Raising an animal for the fair is not always just fun and games. It takes a lot of time and hard work to get these animals ready for the show. Even during the fair days, they must be fed, groomed, and exercised. Michelle Beard and Kelly Frankson always make sure they do what is necessary to be ready for the show.

After a long night of "Fun Night," Kala Tanner and Pake Stephens do not look too happy... They got left with cleaning up the mess that was made during all of the games.

Not only is "Fun Night" fun, it is exhausting also, at least it is for Jordan Gimdt. It looks like there are too many games and not enough rest time for him.

Lindsey and Lisa Kubecka anxiously wait in line for their steers to be weighed in on the last day of the fair. This is a stressful time for everyone because it determines the amount of money each will receive for their animal.

Grand Prize winner, Stephanie Franszen is all SMILES as she leads her steer back to its stall. This year Stephanie found out that working hard all year to raise and prepare her steer definitely does pay off.

Keeping things running smoothly in the FFA booth, Luyen Tran and Lynda Nguyen experience the heavy crowds that pass by each day at the fair.

Fair & Livestock Show

Valentines Dance

"Sweetheart of the Millenium"

The new Valentine Sweetheart of the Millenium is Lindsey Nicole Kubecka.

She proudly takes her place on the royal throne.

The 1999 Valentine Sweetheart, Nellie Claybourn, waits for the announcement of the new Sweetheart so she can pass on her crown, scepter, and robe to the lucky winner!

Aren't these ladies pretty? The winners of the Valentine Sweetheart contest are: Second runner up, Lorianne Janszen; First runner up, Lisa Kubecka; and the winner, Lindsey Kubecka.

Jack Young escorts Jennifer Tran around the dance floor before the casting of votes.

The twenty-two Valentine Sweetheart contestants patiently wait for the tallying of the penny votes. Each young lady made cans and placed them in various stores around Palacios. The money made by the Harmonie club was put back into the community.

Miss Palacios

Saturday, January 13, 1999, was a very busy day for all the girls competing for the title of Miss Palacios. Many afternoons of hard work had finally brought them to the nerve-racking moment of getting on the stage and looking their best. They had already gotten past the important interview earlier that day, but smiling for two hours under those hot, bright lights was going to be a challenge. All of the beautiful young ladies got through it and all did a wonderful job.

All of the Miss Palacios contestants form a line the judging to see who will be the lucky winners.

Jennifer Tran smiles proudly as she prepares to take her walk as the new 1999 Miss Palacios. Jennifer was also awarded Most Talented.

A hush falls over the crowd attending the 1999 Miss Palacios Contest, and the winner is...Miss Jennifer Tran. Fellow contestants rush to congratulate Jennifer.

Magaly Vazquez, First Runner-Up and Miss Congeniality; Sarah Glenn, Second Runner-Up; Lisa Kubecka, Third Runner-Up; Ty Christian, Miss Congeniality; and Katie Kurtz, Outstanding Debutante pose for a group picture after the contest. The young ladies were honored to receive their trophies.

Finalists Sarah Glenn and Lisa Kubecka wait nervously for the final tallying of scores to see who will be the lucky winner. Jack Young provided the entertainment for the young ladies as they waited.

Homecoming '99

Homecoming '99 was a memorable night for the students at Palacios High School. The Seniors reminisced about old times while everyone else was busy talking or watching the game. Everyone had a good time, especially the Homecoming Court who waited anxiously for half-time.

Homecoming at PHS is not just a one night thing; it lasts all week because of the many activities that go on. Everyone always enjoys participating in the Run-through Contest and especially in Spirit Week. This year the themes were Hawaiian Day and Red Out Day. Even though the students spend all week preparing for the big night, the game is always the most important thing. The Sharks put up a good fight but, unfortunately, did not come out on top. Homecoming will always be a night to remember for Andrea Galvan. She was proudly named the Queen during the halftime ceremonies as Liza Longoria handed over her crown. Congratulations Andrea!

Andrea Galvan, just named the 1999 Homecoming Queen, is filled with excitement as Liza Longoria proudly hands over the crown.

It's almost time!!! These girls wait anxiously for the cue to begin their walk on to the football field. This is especially exciting for the seniors, because one of them will be named the new 1999 Homecoming Queen.

Junior Lindsey Kubecka is showing off her Hawaiian shirt as she helps support one of the themes from SPIRIT WEEK! This is just one of the many traditions that goes on during the week of Homecoming.

Seniors Martha Constancio and Veroni Gonzales look excited after the half time show as they enjoy their last Homecoming game.

Homecoming is always an exciting night especially for these varsity cheerleaders. They are all SMILES as they cheer on the Sharks.

Is that a mural or what!? Pamela Constanco and Lisa Gonzales can't wait to finish the art II mural.

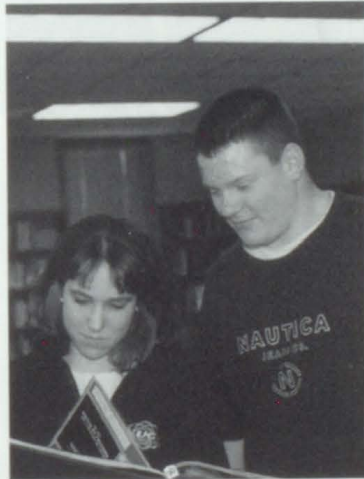

While searching for an interesting poem for English IV AP, seniors Patrick Neese, Martha G., Amanda Trystad, Cathy Delafield, and Mike H begin a deep discussion concerning Shakespeare.

Who are these mad scientists? Don't worry, Katy T., Kim N., and Searcy Barnett are just having fun with chemicals during chemistry.

How many people does it take to put together a yearbook? Mrs. Cunningham's yearbook staff works to meet deadlines.

Justin Hayden sure looks busy during—what class is this anyway? Mr. Webb's Technology class wired Mrs. Cunningham's computer lab for networking and internet connections. Good job!

Mandy Berner and Garrett Claybourn debate whether or not Teen Magazine is a good source for research information.

You will find students around Palacios High busy doing a variety of things. Whether its doing research for an English paper, completing a chemistry project, wiring a computer lab, or expressing their artistic talents, Palacios students find plenty of opportunities to learn skills that they will take with them when they leave high school.

For a school of its size, PHS offers many interesting classes to pique the interest of its students.

Is That Central Elementary?

This fun, flower-shaped slab will be the best place to enjoy a sunny picnic with classmates.

The beginning of the school year of 2000 will be much more exciting for the students at Central Elementary. With new classrooms, new places to play, and a restored cafeteria, everything about school will seem even more new as the school year begins. Construction at Central Elementary began in the fall of 1998. With plans to include pre-kindergarten through the third grade, the construction continues through the summer of 2000. While external work on the campus is expected to be done in August of 2000, the internal work of the buildings should be done by the end of June 2000.

A curved sidewalk leads to a flower shaped slab, which will soon be equipped with new picnic tables. What other fun, new things are in store for Central Elementary? We'll just have to wait and see...

Each day, students watch the progress of the construction as they attend class and as they walk to the cafeteria for lunch.

A view of the new building can easily be seen from the playground. In contrast to the older building standing before it, the new building is much larger and up to date.

A larger cafeteria will allow the students a more comfortable atmosphere at lunchtime next year. The interior of the cafeteria will be complete by the time students go to lunch on the first day of school, in the fall of 2000.

GIRL'S TRACK

TOGETHER

After a long day at the District Track meet, Coach Arrendondo sits down for a much needed rest before the finals start.

Camilla Davis, Amanda Immenhauser, Stacy Batchelder, Lauren Hunter, and Lucy Perez.

At the Palacios High School Track meet, Amanda Trygstad holds the blocks for Daphni Seaman and both girls patiently await the start of the 1600 meter relay.

Don't drop that baton! Ty Christian and Stacy Batchelder practice their handoff for the upcoming 800 meter relay.

And the Regional Qualifiers are... 1st row: Camilla Davis, Kyona Deadrick, and manager Daniella Alanis. 2nd row: Daphni Seaman, Lorianne Janszen, Amanda Trygstad, and Stacy Batchelder.

Track meets definitely are very demanding on one's body. Linda Le takes a quick cat nap after she completes the 3200 meter run.

BOY'S TRACK

J.V. & Varsity- 1st row: Dustin Hafemick, Tino Ho, and Tyrese Lee. 2nd row: Coach White, Michael Alvarado, Quinton Foster, Jonathan Polk, Khoa McKissick, Fred Buckley, Sam Williams, Mike Hurley, Chris Duke, John Herlin, Zach Lopez, Germain Puente, Coach Woods, and Coach Fort.

Coach Woods and Coach Fort work hard training their tracksters to be and do the best that they can. They remind them that as always, "practice makes perfect."

Track meets are good places to see friends from other schools and catch up on old times. Jordan Savage and Chris Duke talk with a friend from Ganada while stretching before running the 300 meter hurdles.

Sometimes running can be very frustrating and this proves true for Dustin Hafemick. While running the 1600 meter run, Dustin lost one of his shoes. There was only one thing to do, lose the other one and finish running. Shoe-less, Dustin finished 3rd place.

To successfully run the 110 meter hurdles, one must be quick and have good form. Lots of practice is required to have these qualities and place in the event. Chris Duke definitely proved that he has it takes to win at the Palacios track meet.

Quinton Foster has really practiced hard to be able to throw the discus far enough to win.

SHARK

Waiting to bat, Jordan Savage takes advantage of his practice time, while Tyrese Lee takes his aim at the ball.

Varsity team members let their sense of humor show through in the dugout while waiting their turn to bat.

Coach Morrow watches and studies the game, looking for a way to claim victory during one of the most challenging varsity games.

As Andrea Galvan tags the girl at second, Lindsey Struble on third, Shern Richardson in center field, Susan Blackmon backing up Andrea, Gina Green in right field, and Stacy Svatek at the pitcher's mound, all watch as the umpire calls the runner safe.

After the Yoakum girl hits the ball to Stacy Svatek, she fields the ball and makes the throw to Tiffany Seaman, the first baseman. Stacy and Tiffany get the runner out.

After a tough third inning, the Sharkettes run in from the field to find out what the plan is to bring up the score...4-13.

After having a tough time at the mound, Stacy Svatek takes a well deserved break and is replaced by Sonya Lytle.

Awaiting the perfect pitch for a bunt, Gina Green patiently watches as a bad throw rolls past her.

What was that umpire thinking? Camilla Davis, Coach Donohoe, and Stacy Rojas appear to agree that the umpire's last call was extremely unjust.

Between games at the Calhoun Tournament, Shari Richardson displays her perfect sense of balance, explaining how balance is a useful skill for a ball player to have.

After their last high school athletic event, Susan Blackman, Andrea Galvan, and Gina Green (seniors) felt the need to celebrate despite who won the game. Coach Huffman took part in the celebration, as the seniors soaked her with a bucket of ice-cold water.

Catcher, Sonya Lytle, rushes to get the ball. She tosses the ball to Stacy Svatek; the opponent is called out.

TENNIS

Boys Team. Although Timothy White, Sang Nguyen, and Gary White, were the only boy tennis players this year, they accomplished all the goals they set for themselves. They enjoyed tennis practice and tried to make every minute count. Their hard work and dedication paid off on the court.

Seniors Cathy Garza and Stephanie Aoughsten's hard work paid off even though this pair of double partners didn't have too many wins.

Jessica Laws and Pake Stephens were another set of double partners. Both sophomores agreed at the beginning of the season to make sure they had fun, no matter what the outcome may be.

Varsity Golf Girls: Mandy Benner, Charity Mayfield, Michelle Beard, and Angela Galvan.

Varsity Golf Boys: B. J. Deleon, Dustin Hafemick, Wesley Landry, Chad Vanhoy, Andy Beard, and Hudson Bates.

POWERLIFTING

Every year, there comes one student that surpasses the rest by achieving a high goal set early on in the year. Jason Brinkley, Elisha Flores, Darryl Hunter, Justin Labay, Isaac Lopez, Zach Lopez, and Jonathan Polk all were participants in powerlifting competitions throughout the 1999-2000 school year.

When the district competition was over only a select few had qualified for state. Jason Brinkley and Jonathan Polk were extremely successful at this competition. Jonathan received alternate for state, and Jason Brinkley qualified for the state meet.

Jason, being in the 114 lbs weight class, was not a surprise to make it to state. He had worked diligently for the entire year to participate at this high level and received 5th place in the entire state. Through his accomplishment, Jason has proven to be both a superior powerlifter and a suburb athlete.

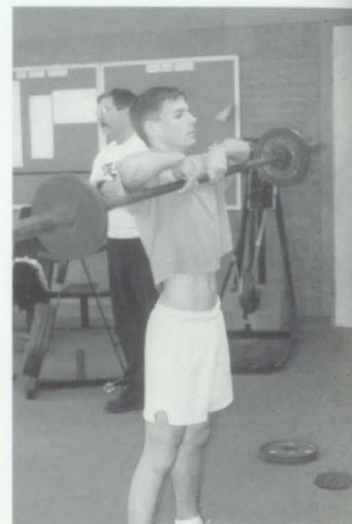

Jason Brinkley, a first place ranking powerlifter in some powerlifting competitions, works every day during the season to improve his lifts. What might seem strenuous to normal athletes is easily mastered by those on the powerlifting team. Although Jason was injured through a good portion of the season, he still managed to make it to the state competition.

Jonathan Polk lifts a small amount of weight during fourth period athletics. Jonathan made it to the Regional Competition powerlifting and alternate to State.

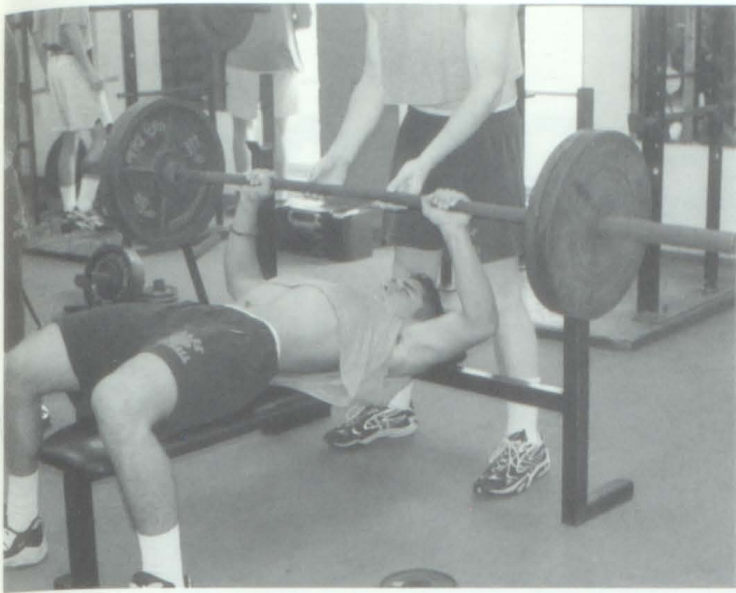

Daryl Hunter, the only senior on the Powerlifting team, works out beside his teammates every day. Isaac Lopez looks on to make sure he does not need any help during his work out.

Coach Woods spends the athletics period watching over and assisting his students. New at Palacios High School, the students under his direction say that he has largely impacted the athletic department.

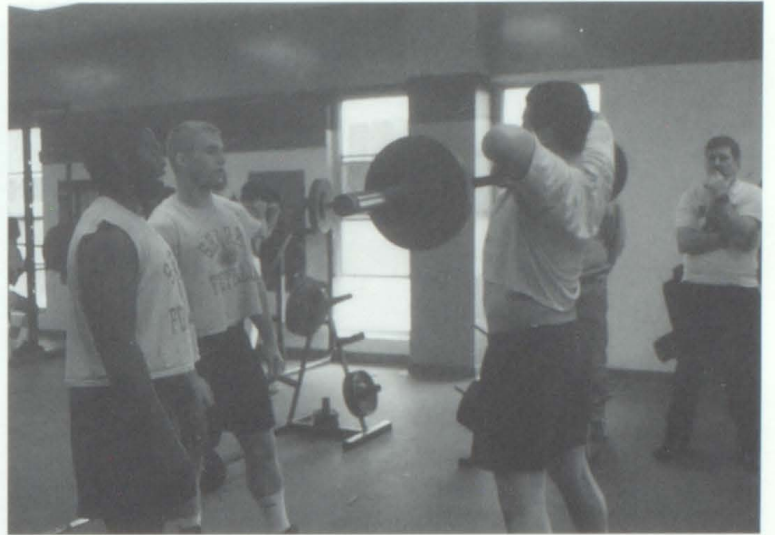

Junior Jason Brinkley, lifts a small amount of weight, compared to his usual larger number. Despite being in a lower weight class, he lifts more than some do that are twice his weight. It was for this reason that he placed fifth at the State Competition.

Junior, Issac Lopez, bench presses almost 200 pounds. Issac is on the team with his brother, Zach, who both practice with the same weights.

Zach Lopez, bench pressing almost 200 pounds is aided by what they call a "spotter." A spotter's job is to make sure that the person lifting does not hurt themselves. If they can not get the weight up, the spotter takes it off for them to ensure that they are not injured.

Jonathan Polk, Justin Labay, and Coach Morrow watch Elisha Flores practice lifting. With not enough weights to go around, the team has to take turns during the athletics period. The coaches must watch their students during their lifts because at the competitions, it is not what they lift, its how they lift it.

Daryl Hunter lifts, while Issac and Zach Lopez talk to Anthony Rojas. Even though Anthony, a senior, is not on the team, they still are in close quarters throughout the year.

While Justin Labay practices, Elisha Flores and Jonathan Polk give him support and cheer him on. The entire team is made up of friends and all are supportive in victory and loss.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Every other Wednesday the Fellowship of Christian Athletes join together for food, fun, and fellowship. This club is for everyone who is interested in having fun while praising and learning about the Lord. Everyone is welcomed to join and are not required to be involved in athletics. Each meeting is started with a game where members can get together and work as a team. Refreshments are then served and a bible study is lead by one of the officers. Lessons are learned through music, skits, videos, games, and lots of laughter. Membership was low this year but our fun and fellowship was as strong as ever.

About?

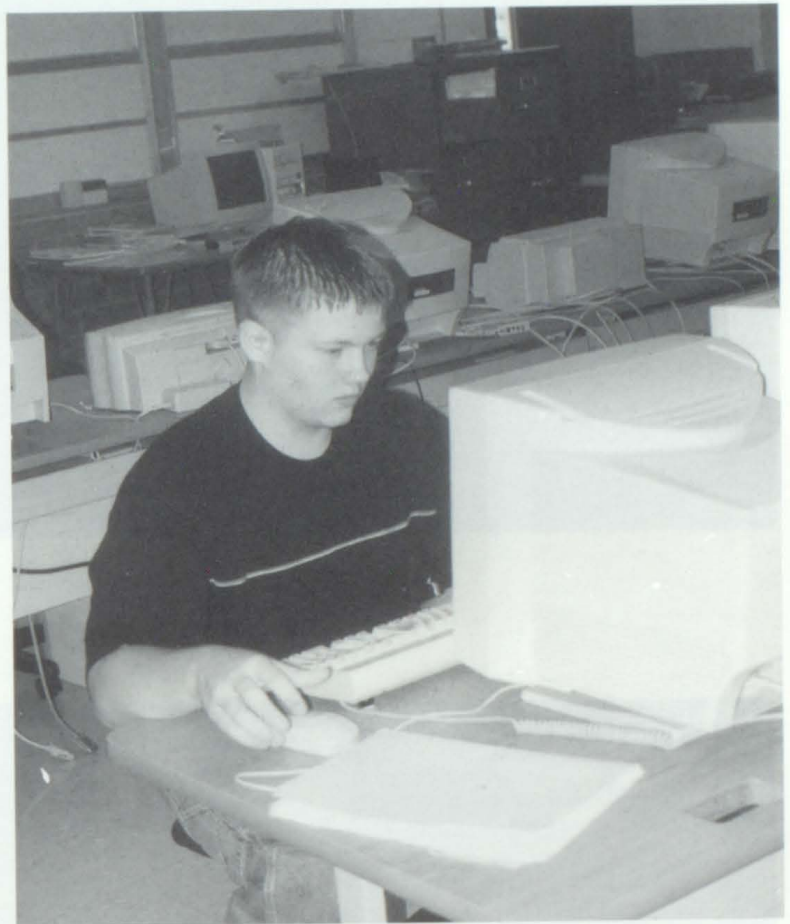

Bruce Junek is always hard at work in his Industrial Arts class. This cabinet, which took many long days to complete, was just one of the many projects that Bruce worked on throughout the year.

What Century is this? Oh, it's just Ms. McGee's 4th period English class pretending to be in the Medieval Period.

These students from Mrs. Holochwost's biology class finish up sailing at the Marine Center. They were involved in many other activities during their field trip.

Jonathan Hunt stays busy working on the computer in Ms. Cunningham's BCIS-I class. She keeps her students busy all year long with various projects.

Sercy Barnett and Hong Nguyen look like they are concentrating very hard as they finish up a lab in Mrs. Johnson's chemistry class.

What's Down

Mrs. Gorgey's AP English classes put together a presentation over Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart. The class worked to make African masks and maps to display in the hall.

Yearbook Staff member, Jennifer Wood, works diligently on her layout in an effort to meet the upcoming deadlines.

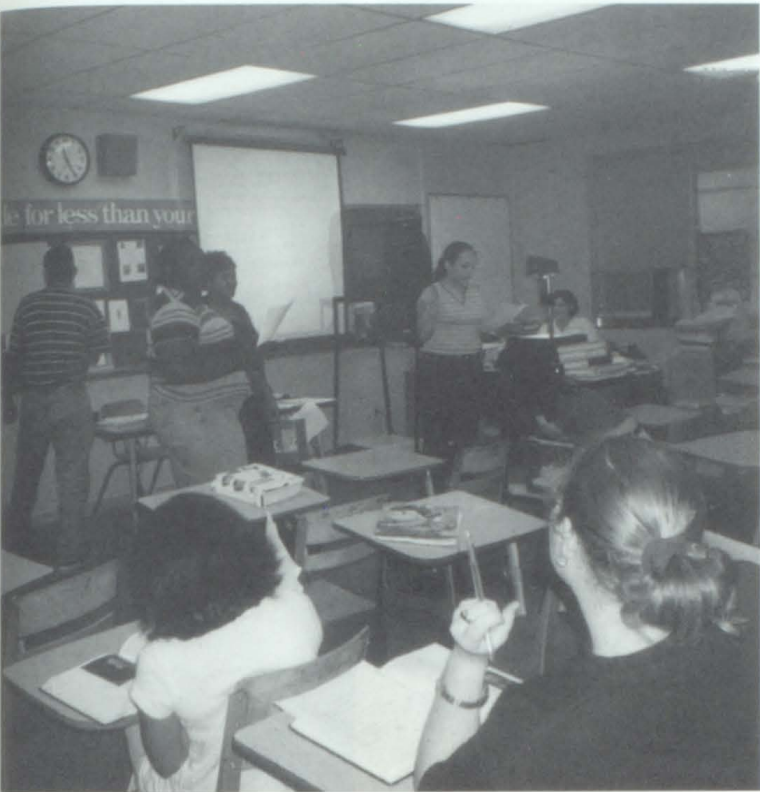

Mrs. Holchost's Biology classes made a trip to the Palacios Marine Center to study the various types of plant and marine life. The marine center often serves as second class room to many of the students at PHS.

Lindsey Kubecka dives to get the ball during 7th period athletics, while fellow teammates, Amanda Trygstad and Linda Le, watch and prepare for their turn.

This Hall?

Senior English students, Kyona Deadrick, Moneke Walker, and Cynthia Hernandez, compiled information over William Shakespeare to present to the class as a way of honoring this author's birthday.

Michelle Beard, Mandy Berner, Jessica Evans, and Kelli Frankson enjoy the beauty of the waterfalls while visiting Glenrose Park after participating in FFH Land Judging contest.

PHS extended their class offerings and learning opportunities this year by introducing a Web Building and Design Class. This class consists of: 1st row: Hoang Nguyen, Khoa Ho, Linda Le, Cathy Garza, Haley Eggemeyer, and Mrs. Crow

The Road from District to State

John Herlin shows off the Palacios sign after competing the Super Quiz relay in the Gymnasium. John got three out of five questions right in his Honors team round.

Jack Young, a student coach, goofed off after a hard day of interviews and speeches in the Palacios holding room in Lufkin. Although he did not participate in any of the events, he still played a vital role on the team.

Find something interesting? John Herlin studies the Environment section of his AD book before going to the Super Quiz relay in the Gym. Being a top ranker on the team, John always takes the time to put in extra study hours.

Why aren't these girls studying? Michelle Divers and Jennifer Tran are both taking a break from the hard day of testing with some fun. The school supplied the entire team with matching shirts for the competition.

Mike Hurley is being congratulated by Richard Hilderbrand for receiving a Varsity Medal for a top score in the Music Section. Mike also won a medal at State for his musical knowledge. This year the area of music was Jazz, which proved to be Mike's expertise.

Palacios AD team begins the Super Quiz relay at the State Competition at Angelina College. Each member answers five questions in this event.

Each participant answered at least one question correctly.

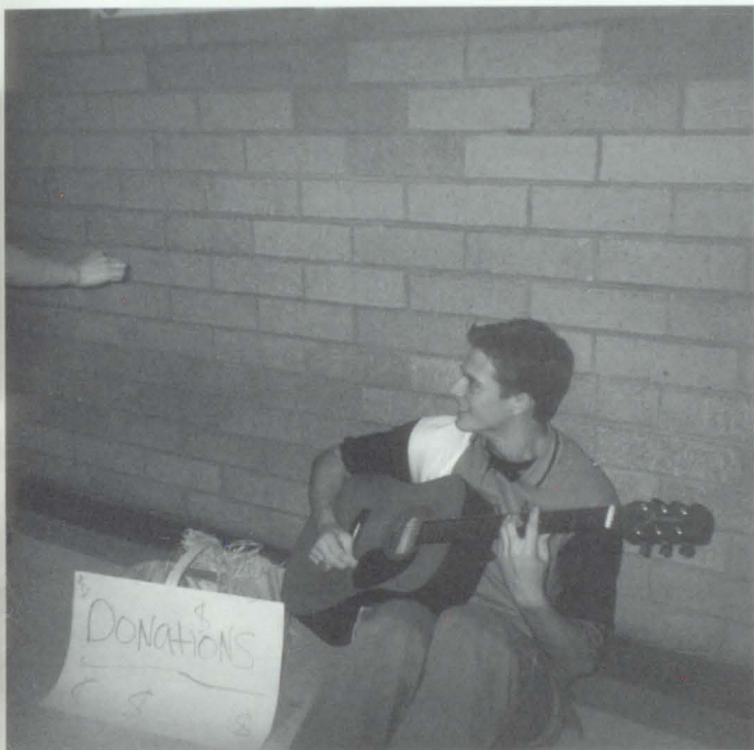

Scholastic Team manager, Jack Young, and Honors Team manager, Nhu Ho, lounge around before the interview and speech contest at the Days Inn hotel in Lufkin. Jack and Nhu's job as managers are to study with the team and help them to find the rooms where they are to compete. If anyone is unable to participate on the team, it is the manager's job to step in and take their place.

Is this an event in the Academic Decathlon? No, actually its not, but Mike Hurley and John Herlin decided to making the "Herlin-Hurley School of Dance" before the awards ceremony in the Fine Arts Building at the district meet at Palacios. The guys provided some entertainment to the other schools in the hall by singing, dancing, and accepting donations to help their "school" grow. Jennifer Tran felt sorry for the guys and decided to help them out in their quest for riches in the hallway outside their holding rooms, by donating some spare change.

After the Super Quiz relay at the state meet, John Herlin and Mike Hurley eagerly await returning to their hotel in hopes of having dinner. The Academic Decathlon team does not get meal breaks throughout the day and must rely on the snacks provided for them outside their holding rooms. John made it a tradition to wearing the Palacios sign after each Super Quiz relay, where he answered four out of five questions right.

After a day of testing, Zane Bumgardener and Nhu Ho fall asleep in a domino effect onto Senior, Mike Hurley's shoulder. The team had to drive five hours to Lufkin in extremely close quarters, having eight team members crammed into one van. Although the sponsors treated the team to ice cream after the awards ceremony, the three competitors do not look as though the sugar aided them in staying awake.

Jennifer Tran, Michelle Divers, and Nhu Ho talk about the days events before heading back to their rooms for the night. Jennifer and Michelle spent the day in essay, speech, and interviews and now look forward to a peaceful night of relaxation before continuing testing the following day. Team manager Nhu tries to keep the team motivated throughout the competition.

PALACIOS JUNIOR HIGH

Located at 200 Shark Drive, Palacios Junior High School has a total of 408 students. In the 6th grade there are 139 students. In the 7th grade there are 129 students, and in the 8th grade there are 140 students.

What's wrong with their faces? During Red Ribbon Week at P.JHS a bit of drama was added into the regular flow of things as the school learned some statistics on drunk driving. The students learned that every 22 minutes a person is killed by a drunk driver. So throughout the day the "Grim Reaper," played out by Mrs.

Hinds, walked around the school and pulled either a student or a teacher from class every 22 minutes. The person chosen by the Grim Reaper was now considered dead and was not allowed to be addressed by teachers or fellow students.

Getting ready for the fair, Cody Wilson and Will Mosley show off the chickens that they have proudly raise for about ten weeks. Maybe one of these will be the Grand Champion.

Brittany Fletcher and Samantha Svatek help Tavia Young up in the cheerleader pyramid at the Junior High pep rally before a football game. The theme for the rally that week was "Crazy Hair Day" and the cheerleaders donned their craziest do for the occasion.

Are these cheerleader wannabes? No, think again, this is the homecoming pep rally before the big game. Chris Serna, Michael Polk, and Lee Williams put on their favorite dresses to try to win over the crowd and snag the Junior High Homecoming crown. Although none of the guys won, they all put on a dazzling show.

Sandshark Pep Squad

Mrs. Hinds (sponsor), Marina Perez, Tuyen Lam, D'Lynn Davis, Julie Farmer, Kristen Greenawalt, Maleri Ortiz. (not pictured : Brandii Bickham, Bonnie Hawkins, Lindsay Mayfield)

The pep squad helps out the Junior High Cheerleader Squad at a pep rally. They're dancing the "Freaky Deaky," a dance they spent weeks working on for this very occasion.

Isn't this against the school dress code? Well, not on spirit days when the Pep Squad members take part in this activity. Maleri Ortiz and Stephanie Hunt took part in the Junior High's "Crazy Hair Day" before a football game. They both received a prize from the cheerleaders for their weird new style.

Get the Facts.

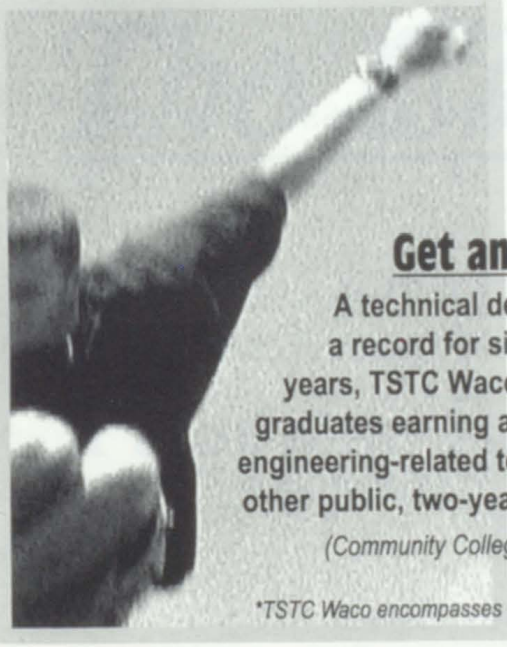

Technicians are in demand!
One in 4 new jobs are technical. Only 20% of new jobs require a four-year degree. And, 90% of jobs require technical education beyond high school. TSTC offers more than 40 technical programs to help you prepare for tomorrow's technical careers.

Get a Job.

A high-paying technical job! TSTC Waco* consistently has a placement rate above 85%. Some programs have 200% placement rates—each graduate receives multiple job offers often before they graduate. And, our graduates command excellent starting salaries—averaging more than $25,000 per year.

We Double Dog Dare You!

Get an Edge.

A technical degree! Setting a record for six consecutive years, TSTC Waco* produced more graduates earning associate degrees in engineering-related technologies than any other public, two-year college in America.

(Community College Times, July '98).

TSTC Waco encompasses Waco and Palacios offerings.*
