Coming

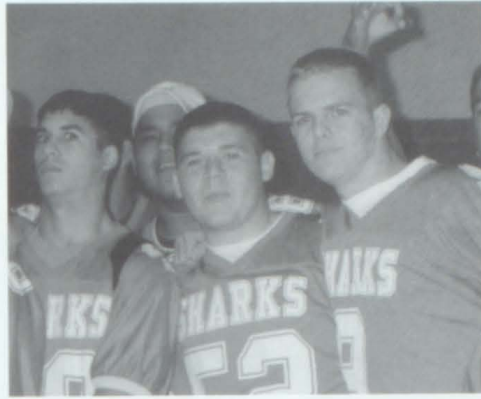

As the seniors of 2003 entered the halls from their last summer as high school students, it was evident that there was a common bond between all of them- unity. Because of this connection, they were able to lead and show the underclassman that division wasn't the answer. Seeing the friendship among this class inspired the theme, "Coming Together."

Due to the cooperation among the student body, Palacios High School experienced success in a magnitude that it never had before. Academically, U.J.L. sent the first debator, D'Lynn Davis, to state; One Act Play advanced to Area, a place that it hadn't seen in 6 years, with Meet Me In St. Louis; and Academic Decathlon continued to be successful, as did the Band and Choirs. Athletically, Camilla Davis displayed how one person's determination can be successful as she advanced to state in an unprecedented 4 events.

Together

As our graduation approaches and the year is concluding, we find it hard to let go of our childhood friends and teachers, but we realize that we must build on the times that we have all "come together" to fully embrace the future and the friendships to come. As we leave you with this yearbook, we hope it teaches future classes that you must accept others for who they are in order to be successful. Please "come together", and enjoy this year's annual.

Student Life

"A day is a miniature eternity"

Seniors Sonya Lytle and Tiffany Garcia show off their crazy hair do's on "crazy hair day" for the pep-rally during Mrs. Phillip's 2nd period class.

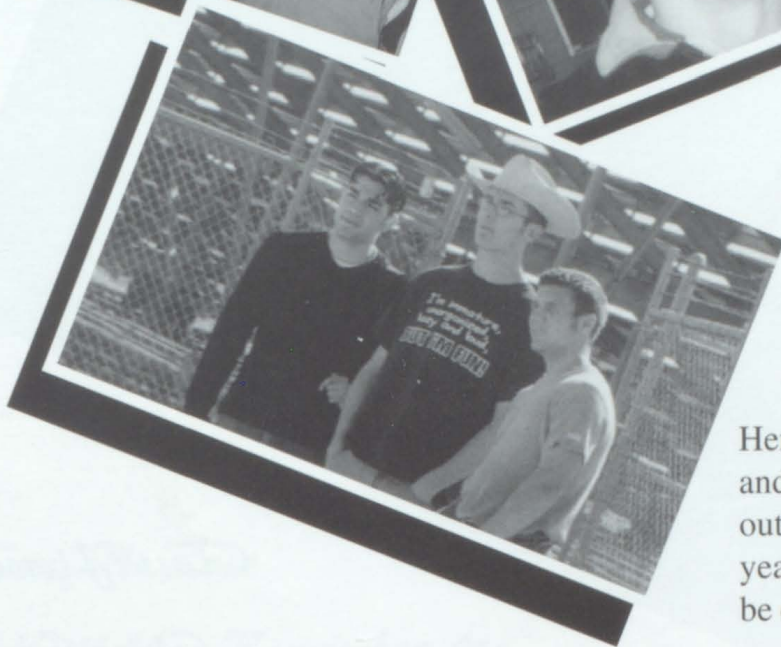

Spiderman Sam Constancio sprays a web of victory to inspire the Sharks.

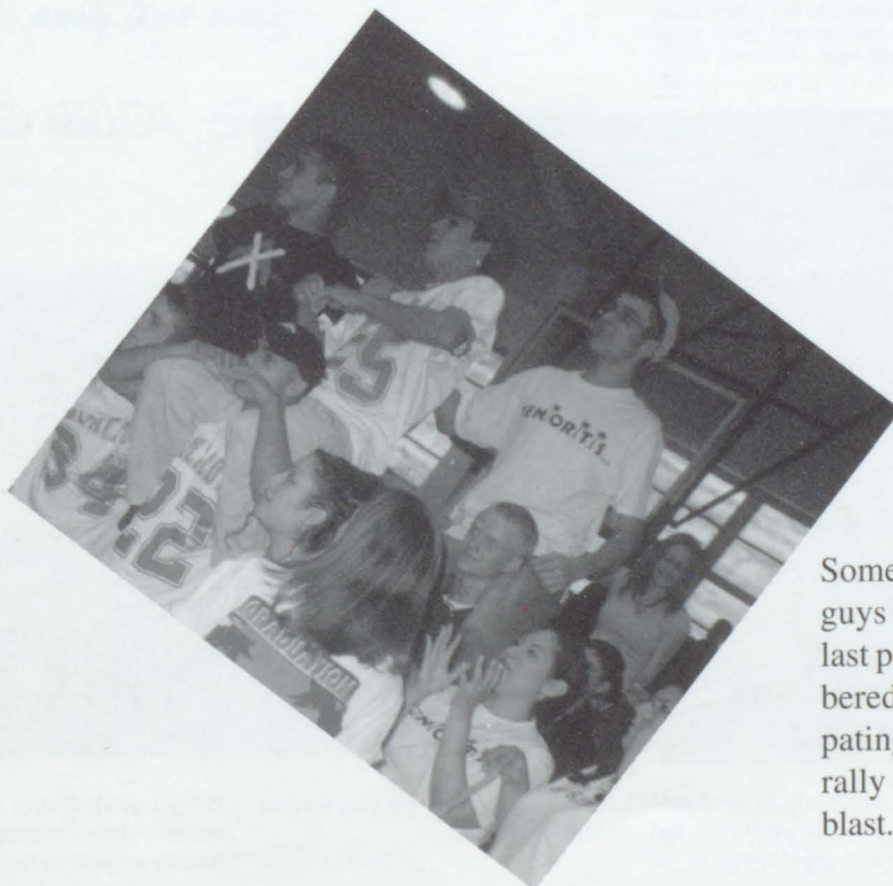

Stephen Smylie learns about girl power the hard way! Get 'em Angela!!

Hasn't anyone told Kyle he isn't in Kansas anymore?

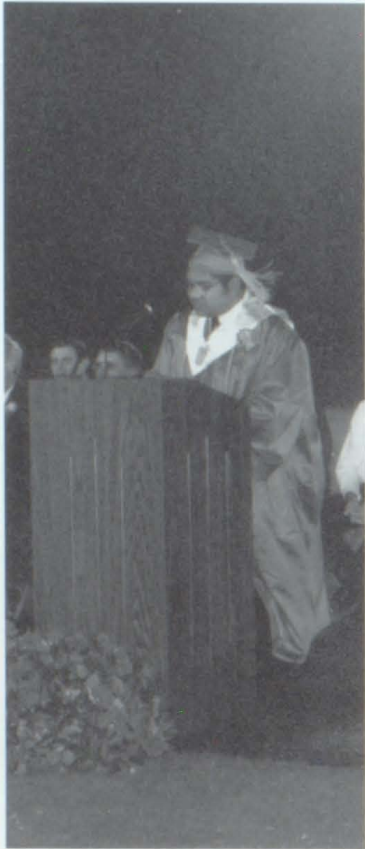

Henry Ottino, Michael Wetteland and Matthew McKissick stand outside the gym during 7th period yearbook waiting for the day to be over.

Some of the senior guys try and make the last pep-rally a remembered day by participating during the pep-rally and making it a blast.

Graduation

Valedictorian Jonathan Cruz addresses his speech to his fellow classmates. He encouraged them to always do their best.

Class President, Kim Nguyen, gives the welcomes to her classmates and the audience.

Some of the girls wait in the hallway before it's time to get into their places for the march to the football stadium.

After Sonya Lytle and Tiffany Garcia's names have been called they each receive their rose.

Attendants for the seniors were Annette Galvan, Terrell Lee, Darren Hall, Rachel Hecht.

Project

Big John looks like he is having a blast at project celebration; this will be a memberable night for him.

These guys are enjoying the night participating in the fun on the football field.

Some of the seniors take a break and look at the gifts they might receive.

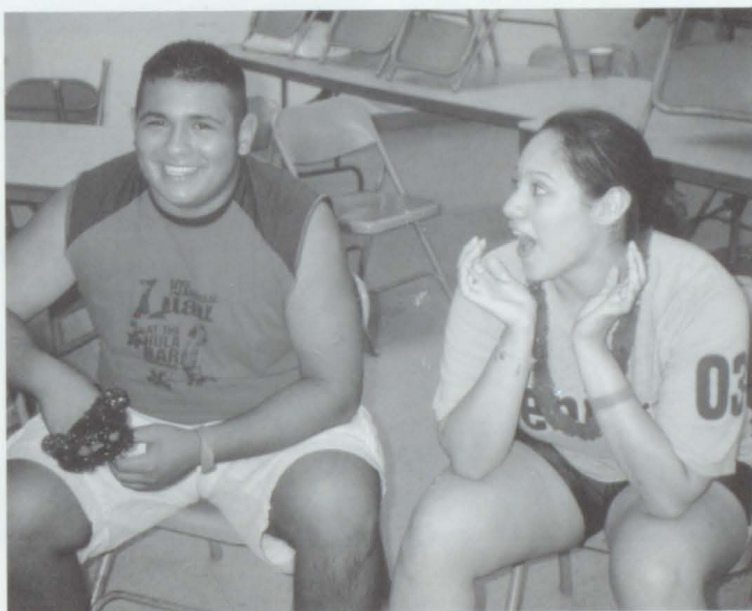

Celebration

Sammie Richards is still energetic; she seems to be having a great time at project celebration.

Quan Nguyen looks like he's having all the luck at winning tonight.

Marcos Aparicio and Tiffany Garcia are still enjoying the night making it a memory they will never forget.

Everyone looks worn out after all the games have been played and the night is about to be over.

Kelly Le struggles to hit the pinata at the Mexican party. Kelly has no idea Joe Rodriguez is standing on the other side moving it around and away from her. He accidentally hits Kelly with it instead.

“Before Night Falls”

The Juniors chose "Before Night Falls" for the 2003 Junior-Senior Prom. This year the prom was held April 26, and for some "lucky" seniors, they had to take the T.A.S.P test earlier that day before they could get ready.

The Juniors did an awesome job on the decorations. Junior Prom Committee members put a gazebo up, a waterfall and bridge scene, and they also put up tons of Christmas lights to give the building a well lit "dusk" setting. When guests arrived at the Rec. Center they were greeted by a breeze of fresh potpourri and a candle lit area where faculty members were assisting students on the guest book and how to vote for Prom King and Queen.

This couple selected as the Prom King and Queen was a huge shocker. As the traditional vote usually goes hand and hand with a senior couple, Mr. Glascock announced Miss Stacey Rojas as the Prom Queen of 2003. But the real surprise came when Mr. Glascock announced JR Navarro as the Prom King instead of Stacey's date, Louis Bodie. Thanks to all the Juniors and Prom Sponsors who did a great job to make Prom 2003 a great opportunity to "Come Together."

Don't we 'look good'! Sam Constancio and his date Amber Dale stop and pose for a picture during the night of dancing and fun.

Prom King & Prom Queen of 2003

JR Navarro & Stacey Rojas

This crowd, Michael Mckissick, his date, and Paige Leadford are paying close attention to the dance floor.

Bo Jackson and Lacie Richards anxiously sign up for pictures at their prom.

Looks like Sammie Richards and Meagan Evans are sharing a joke at one of the scenes set up for random pictures.

Wow what a look! Amy Brinkley and Jesus Guevara are displaying some wild looks as they watch the dance floor.

Kelly Le and Kim Nguyen share one more memory and smile. This year was their Senior prom.

Matagorda County Fair,

The Hamlin brothers, Jay and Kyle, arrive early at the rodeo barn to get their goats ready to show.

Stephanie Hansen is all smiles while auctioning off her steer at the rodeo arena in February.

After showing his chickens on Wednesday the day of judging, John Glenn volunteers to help a younger 4-H member, Caleb Rush, show his.

While walking in for her steer to be judged, Lori Batchelder concentrates on showing her steer the best that she can.

Livestock Show, and Rodeo

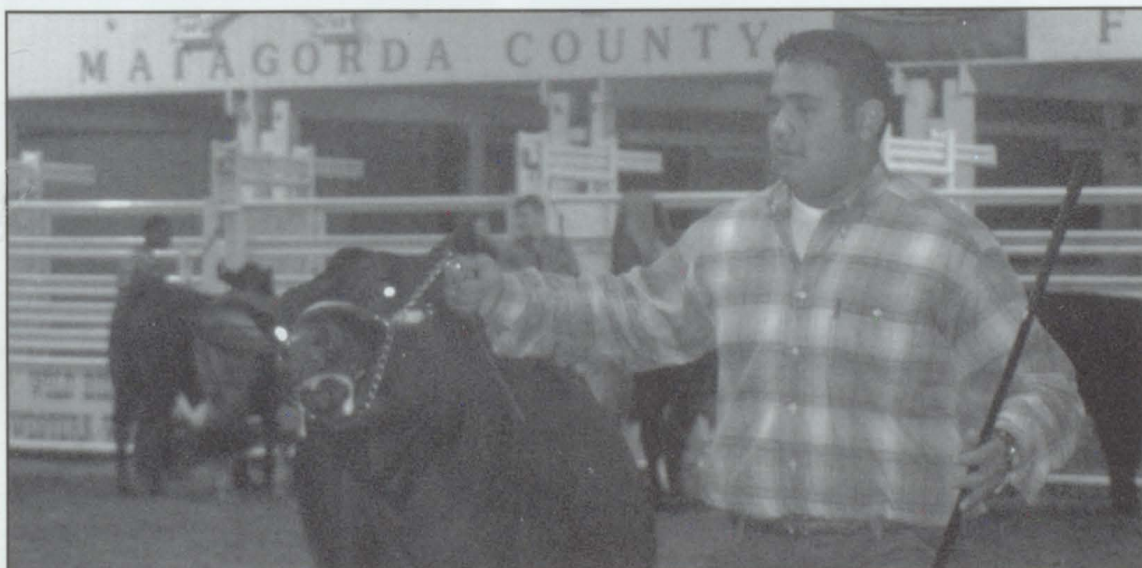

Kyle Tanner and Alston Wallis wait in line with Lindsay Mayfield while waiting for her chickens to be judged.

Kyle Tanner works patiently with his pig making sure he does a great job in front of the judge. Kyle received a blue ribbon for his pig and later sold it.

Before the judging starts, Amber Dale grooms her steer making sure no dirt is on him so he will be ready to show in front of the judge.

Senior, Marcos Aparicio anxiously gets ready to show his steer on Thursday. Marcos did a great job this day, making the show and selling his steer.

Cinco de Mayo

Rosaura Hurtado, Lyly vu, Huyen Tran, and Elena Contreras enjoy their ride on the float it the Cinco de Mayo Parade.

Huyen Tran, Rosaura Hurtado, Lyly Vu, and Elena Contreras stand on their float before the Cinco de Mayo parade starts.

Cinco de Mayo Provides Scholarships

The Cinco de Mayo celebration is a project of the Palacios Boys and Girls Club of America. Proceeds from the festival are used to provide scholarships for deserving youth in our community. Thank you Boys and Girls Club leadership for this outstanding program.

Lyly Vu congratulates her friend Huyen Tran for being selected Miss Cinco de Mayo.

The new Miss Cinco de Mayo is being escorted by her older brother Eric Tran at the Cinco de Mayo Ceremony.

Miss Palacios 2003

Britany Kubecka is crowned Miss Palacios. She will represent Palacios through out the year in several events.

Contestants participate in the various competitions in the selection process hoping to be chosen Miss Palacios.

Miss Palacios contestants are shown with trophies for categories other than Miss Palacios.

Brittany shares the spotlight with Miss Debutante, Kristina Hanson.

The former Homecoming Queen, Jessica Evans, crowns the new Homecoming Queen, Katy Schulze, during halftime at the Homecoming game at Shark Stadium. As you can tell, Katy looked thrilled to be crowned the new Homecoming Queen.

The mothers of the Varsity football players do a dance to motivate the players to win against the Wharton Tigers. Although they played a hard game, the Sharks lost the game with the final score of 28-65.

Sharky watches the PHS choir members sing "I Hope You Dance" at the Homecoming pep rally. The choir sang at the pep rally for Anti-Drug week and later sang the "National Anthem" at the football game that night.

*All for one,

Caught in the act before Friday's pep-rally, Matthew McKissick gets his picture taken during seventh period yearbook class. This senior showed his spirit on Western Day.

Hard at work in Mr. Whites computer class, Annette Galvan and Michael Wetteland show off their crazy hair for crazy hair day.

Before the football players enter the gym, cheerleaders and some of the student body form two lines to cheer the guys on as they make their way in to participate during the pep-rally.

Louis Bodie, excited that he is finally a Senior, flaunts his senior wear the afternoon he gets it.

Daniel Perez seems to be having a great time at one of the pep-rallies of his senior year, while cheering on the drill team as they dance for the crowd.

On Friday before school ended and the last pep rally of the year was over, the Seniors share one last time together traditionally making a circle in the middle of the gym floor and singing the Alma Mater.

*Work as one,
Win as one.....*

After working hard together the varsity cheerleaders and drill team get ready to do their dance to a "Nelly Mix".

During the homecoming pep rally some of the football players' moms surprised everyone with a dance to motivate the football players to play a good game that night.

Miss Boswell looks like she's concentrating hard on getting the ball away from Terrell Lee during a teacher-student basketball game. The game was held in the gym for Drug Free Week.

Congratulations to the 2001-2002 Sharkette basketball players! These girls show their excitement as they receive last years banner for a successful year.

The varsity football players look amused as they watch their mothers do a dance for the homecoming pep rally. Although they did not win later that night, they are still #1 to all their fans.

The drill team does a kick routine in the gym at a school pep rally. They practiced hard and the audience really enjoyed their performance.

SHARKETTE TRACK

Leading the Pack

As the young Palacios Sharkettes laced up their spikes and hit the track this season, they knew that the journey they would embark on would not be an easily traveled one. Because the inexperience on the team was overwhelming, Coach Luz Arredondo knew that in order to shape this group of raw talent into a successful team, she would have to have a person step up and be a leader. Senior Camilla Davis did more than just step up.

Over the course of her season, Camilla shattered numerous school and personal records. She remained ahead of her competition, only placing below first (2nd) one time before she competed at state. Camilla achieved something that no other Palacios High School athlete had ever done, she competed in not 1, not 2, but 4 individual events at state, or "The Big House" as she calls it.

As Camilla leaves high school to run as a Bobcat at Southwest Texas State University, it is undeniable that the Sharkettes will miss her in the coming years.

Camilla Davis
Senior

What was the most memorable moment you experienced as a Palacios Sharkette through out your entire career?
"When I was at state... and especially competing in four events!"

What type of goals did you set for yourself at the beginning of the year that enabled you to stay focused on going to state?

"Mainly, I was focused on getting past regionals, running as many 24's in the 200 as possible. and I was determined to sign with a Division I college."

How do you feel that you best contributed to the team?

"I feel as if I set a standard or example for my team mates and encouraged them. I showed them that I was going through the same things that they were. I think that I proved to them that, if I could do it, they could too."

Red Ribbon Week

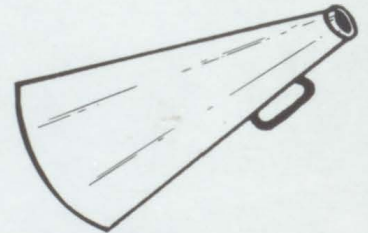

The Students and Faculty of P.H.S come together to play a game of basketball. During Red Ribbon Week Mrs. Segovia had many activities planned for the student body, but due to the weather, the annual Drug Free Relays had to be canceled in favor of a game of basketball. Students and faculty were reminded of the dangerous effects of illegal drugs. Another activity included the "Grim Reaper" painting the faces of a student to signify death because a life is lost to drugs every 22 minutes.

Powder Puff Football player input

"It was a lot harder than I expected; it took team work, and I had a lot of fun. I can't wait to play again next year."

Sophomore Leandra Rubio

Shark Stadium was the scene of the annual Powder Puff football game. Powder puff football is an annual outing for the ladies of Palacios High School. Normally the ladies are on the sidelines as cheerleaders, drill team members, or fans cheering on the men of PHS. However, on this night roles are reversed as the ladies take center stage to demonstrate their skill as football players, while the guys are on the sidelines as coaches and cheering section for the ladies.

The game pits the seniors and freshmen against the juniors and sophomores. The teams battle it out to see who will be Powder Puff champions for the year. This year's game was an exciting affair in which the Junior/Sophomore team was victorious over the Senior/Freshmen team by a score of 7-0.

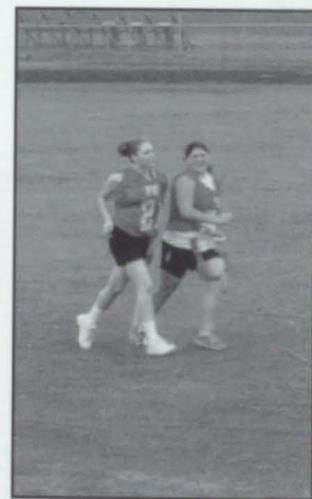

Katie Schulze tries to keep up with the freshmen during practice. But it looks like she is having a hard time doing that.

The Freshmen-Senior team are getting ready to hear their plan for the game.

Coaches Matthew Garcia, Junior Johnson, Seth Perez, Lance Brune, and PJ Manning are ready to get their teams on the field for the game.

Lauren Hunter and Melissa Navarro are warming up for the powder puff game by running laps around the field.

row: JR Navarro (Co-recipient of Football Spirit and Baseball Fighting Heart Award), Marcus Aparicio (Football MVP Defense), Andrew Mahoney (Booster Club Spirit Award).

1st row: Amanda Perez (Girls Spirit Award), Rachel Hecht (Girls Fighting Heart Award, Volleyball MVP Award, Girls Cross Country MVP), Samantha Svatek (Girls Softball MVP). 2nd row: Camilla Davis (Girls Track MVP), Brittany Fletcher (Girls Basketball MVP).

On May 16 parents, coaches, PHS athletes, and friends gathered to honor this year's athletes for their accomplishments during the year. Many awards and recognitions were given those who competed during the year. A new award honoring a student who tried to boost the spirit of PHS students during the year was given to Andrew Mahoney who presided at pep rallies during football season for providing entertainment and prizes to participants of skits and games during the rallies.

The Athletic Booster

Club awarded scholarships in the amount of $400 each to Lady Sharks Camilla Davis, Amanda Garcia and Bridget Puentes. Male athletes receiving scholarships in the same amount were Jay Hamlin, Tyler Thompson and PJ Manning.

Students participated in skits highlighting some of the memorable moments of the past year. And as traditionally done, the athletes participated in the candlelight ceremony where the seniors light candles then pass the light to the juniors who will carry on for another year.

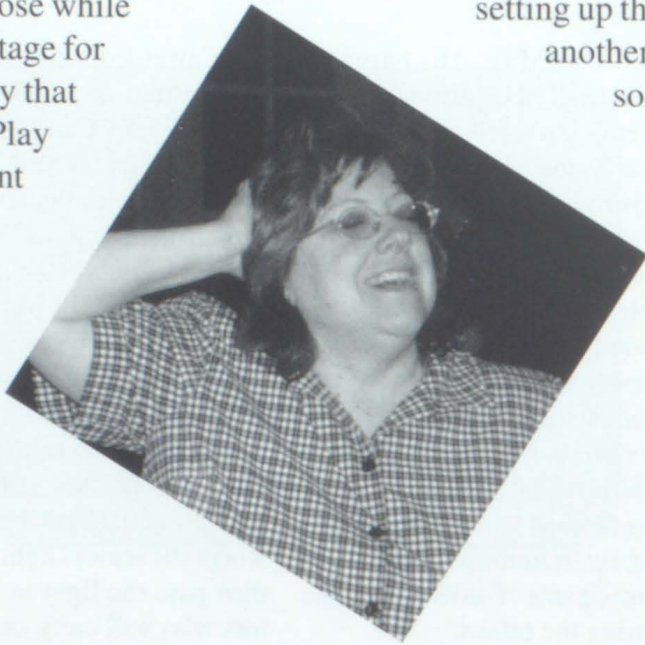

Tyler Thompson won several awards at the banquet. He was Most Valuable Player for basketball, football and baseball. He was also the recipient of a $400 scholarship from the booster club.

Andrew Mahoney received the Outstanding Student Leader Award. This was a new award given by the booster club.

Stephen Smylie goofs around with a fake alligator head after one of the team's competitions.

The team takes one more picture before they leave the restaurant and go home.

“Memorable Mo

During thier 7th period math class in Mrs. Phillips room, James Garza and Clarissa Aparicio tend to be working while Andrew Mahony, Nora Cerda, and Ana Antunez listen to Mrs. Phillip's lecture.

Lam Tran holds up an Easter cake made by Mrs. Tyler so we can get a good picture of the cake before it's all gone.

Christina Nguyen works hard on her test for English, while the other two students sleep during their test.

Several of the Sharkette rest under the tent while they wait anxiously for their turn to compete in the relays at their home track meet.

Mr. Ortiz's Building Trades 7th period class helped build the playground that was set up along South bay in front of the pavilion. Mr.

Ortiz said, "I am very proud of these students; they have worked very hard to build this playground."

Tired from practicing every afternoon Brandi Bickham puts all of her effort to throw the softball to her other teammate.

Don't eat in class. Michael McKissick breaks one of Mr. Miller's classroom rules. But we all know Michael is just trying to digest those numbers in his FFA record book.

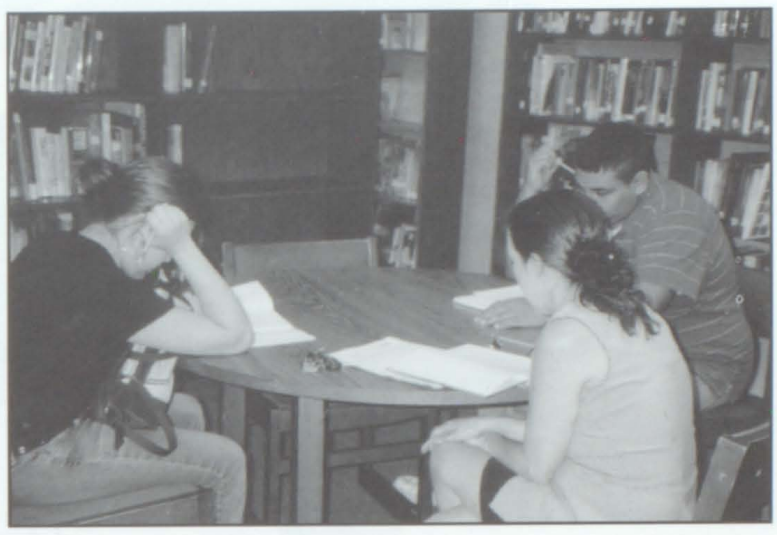

Yesenia Saldierna and Beoleta Juarez receive help from Mrs. Boswell in taking out the cookies from the oven so they wouldn't burn.

Juan Ayala, Nehemiah Juarez, Alex Nieto, and Justin Barefield work hard and fast building a roof on the dugouts at the baseball field.

Mrs. Kirby helps read The Scarlet Letter to Elyana Baez and Manuel Guevera in the library.

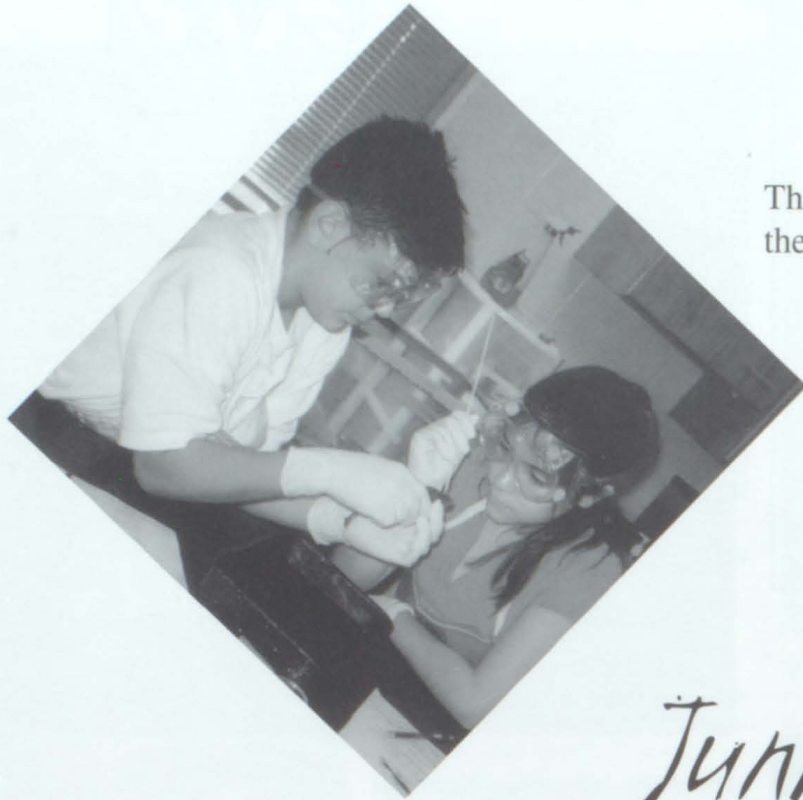

Nicole Oliver, Cody Perez, Sonia Antunez, An Nguyen, and Elyana Baez take one last picture together in Mr. Young's class before school ends. Elyana said to them "I'm sure gonna miss all of you."

Sara Kubecka, Randy Holdgraf, Brittani Quinn, Josh Saylor, and Kritstina Hansen hurry to finish their projects for Coach Fort before the bell rings.

These students look like they're concentrating hard on dissecting a fish for science class.

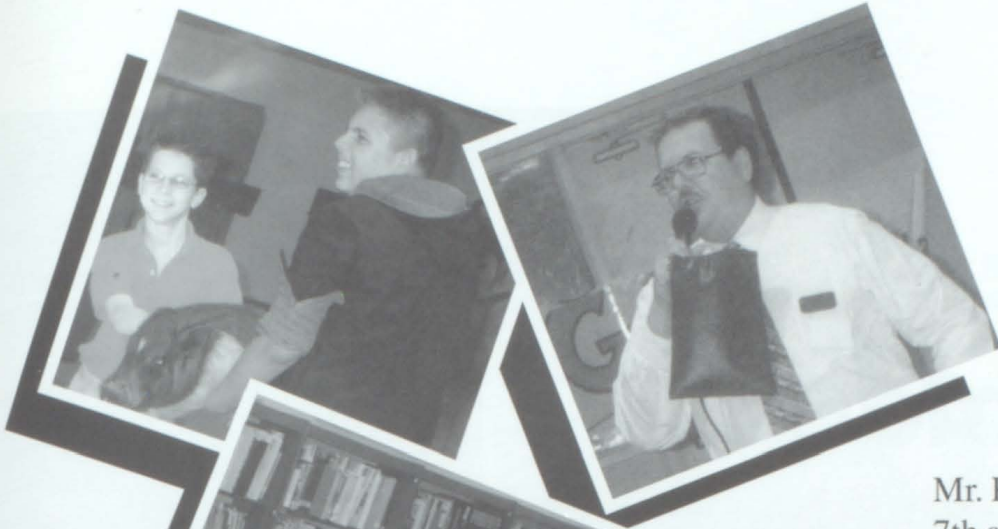

Junior High

"To succeed we must first believe that we can!"

Some of the Junior High cheerleaders prepare to cheer "2 bits" for the spirit competition.

Some Junior High students wait patiently in the field house for the Thursday afternoon pep-rally to start.

Eighth graders Adrian Garcia and Patrick Kubin hold the pig while Mrs. Vu prepares to kiss it.

Mr. Purvis gives a pep talk to the 7th and 8th grade students before the pep-rally starts.

Some students in the Junior High LRC read their books before going to their next class.

The Junior High cheerleaders do a cheer for the rest of the student body, hoping to motivate the football team to win later that evening.
