Foreword

Any way you turn, it's doors, doors, doors! Life is full of them! Some you will open - - and others you must close. TIDEHAVEN DOORS, however, are always open; open to you who will go from one class to the next and to you who will graduate from TIDEHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL and take your place of service in life.

Senior Class Prophecy

April 10, 1962

Dear Mr. Nelson,

On my return to the district of Tidehaven, I first decided to go to the big town of Clemville, which was now the largest town in the district. The first sight that attracted my attention was a large skyscraper. On it were these words, "Toe Main Inn." I decided to enter the building and who do you think was standing in the lobby--Kay McShan in person. He told me that he was now the owner of this structure and asked me to come in and see the late performance.

To my greatest surprise the DeReese twins were singing "Sentimental Me." Kay said they had a contract to sing in Hollywood as soon as they finished their performance here.

After leaving Clemville I entered the Metropolis of Markham. Having a toothache from the food I had eaten at the "Toe Main Inn," I started looking for a dentist. I stopped at the nearest gas station and who do you think was the owner. You'd never guess. Leo Valigura was sitting behind a desk and he told the attendant to ask me to come inside. So I went in and he asked me if I had seen Floyd, who to my greatest surprise was the only dentist in the big town of Markham. I didn't know whether I wanted my tooth pulled but I knew I had to go see him anyway. When I entered, Floyd said, "Next one please." That's when I said, "I don't want my tooth pulled I only want to see the great dentist." (My tooth stopped hurting when I saw Floyd with all those instruments he knew nothing about, I'm sure.)

Leaving Markham without my toothache and also without a tooth, I next stopped at a large sign near El Maton which read, "Picle Eachee Plantation." Curiosity got the best of me so I followed the road. At the end of the road was a huge colonial mansion and there sitting on the veranda was a slightly familiar figure. To my astonishment, I saw J.D. Tomasek sipping a cool lemonade. He asked me to come in and join him.

I asked J. D. about Leo Orsak. He hung his head and answered in a low tone of voice, "Leo is no longer in this part of the country. He left several years ago to a far away place known as Bagdad, where the town is full of beautiful girls."

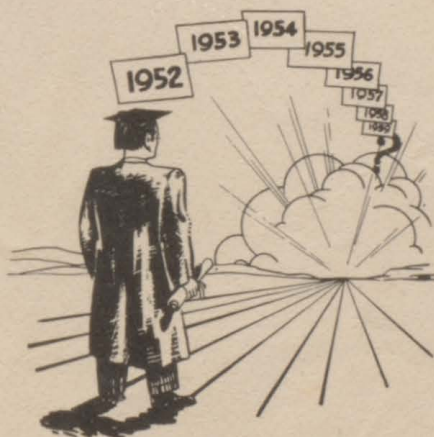

Saying good-bye to J.D. I drove out to the main road and here my car threw a rod. I walked to the nearest house to use the telephone. The only wrecker service listed was "Hurta's Pull You in Service." So I called him and he said he'd be out in a few minutes. I sat in my car for an hour. When Howard finally got there he pulled the car into a huge garage. To my amazement, Simeon Bauer was the owner and chief mechanic. Simeon decided that we needed a drink so he called Budger, who was in the bootlegging business. Simeon told me that Budger built up this business and that he was very prosperous at it.

I asked Simeon about our dear old friend Walter "Hoss" Hale. Simeon said that Walter was now the president of the "Hale University" which is located in Midfield. This is the only university in existence that doesn't teach English or Physics.

Having seen all the seniors of 1952 from dear ol' Tidehaven High School, I decided to stay in my own little igloo--never to bother them again.

Sincerely yours,

A Traveling Senior

Last Will And Testament

We the Seniors of Tidehaven High School, being of sound mind??? and body, thanks to our wonderful coach, bequeath the following to our underclassmen:

First, we give our right to be Seniors to the Juniors. We hope they will set a good example for the Freshmen of next year as we have for the Freshmen of this year.

WALTER "HOSS" HALE leaves his ability to go to town anytime to CHARLES DRISCOLL.

LEO ORSAK says, "I hate to leave anything as stingy as I am, but maybe I could leave poor E. R. VACEK some of my ways with the women."

FLOYD WRIGHT, after much study of underclassmen, wills his muscles to RAYMOND BALUSEK.

J. D. TOMASEK leaves his quiet ways to FRANK RICKAWAY. Frank really doesn't need them.

Since SIMEON BAUER will not be back next year, he wills his time with MARILYN to EVERETT SALLEY.

LEO VALAGURA leaves his ability to stay in school to WILMER KEE.

KAY McSHAN leaves his "morning after the night before" first - aid bed to ELLIS MEDINA.

BUDGER CORNETT leaves his ability to get on his knees to get a date with DOROTHY J. to CHARLIE BLACK. (He says for Charlie to come around and he will tell him which knee to get on first.)

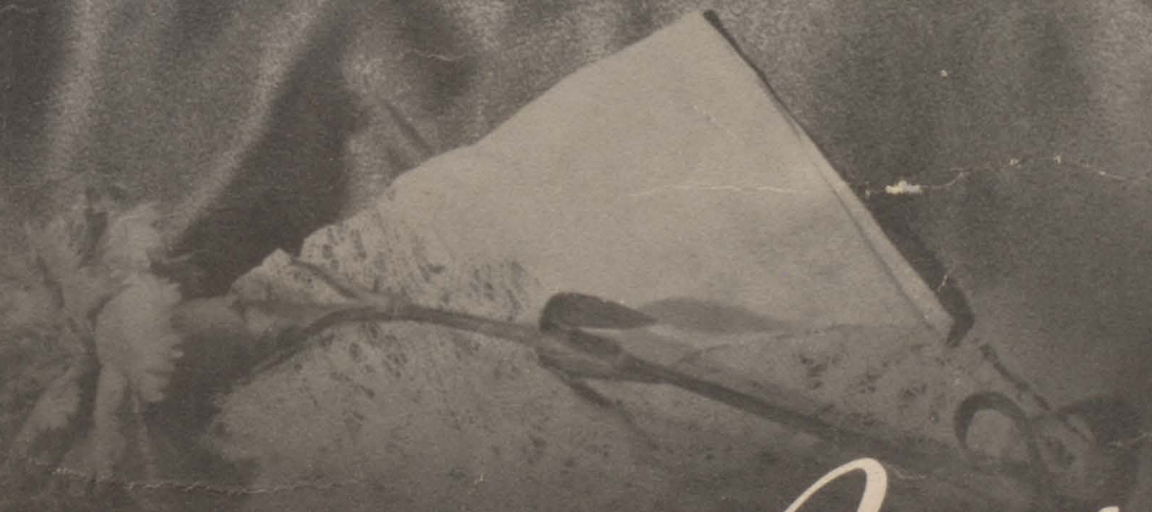

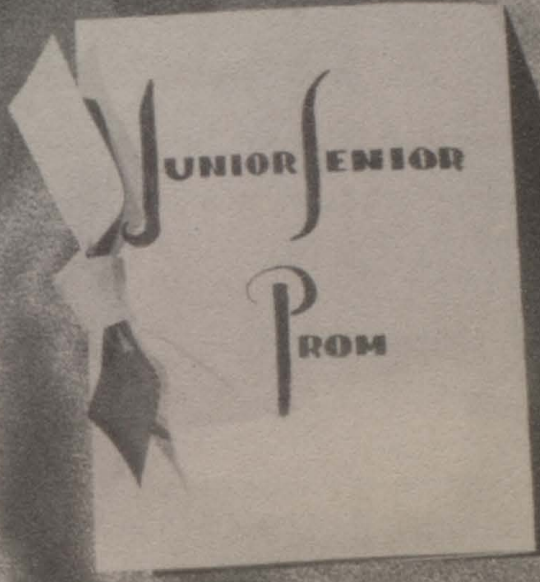

MABEL DeREESE wills her ability to be able to wait until she finishes high school before getting married to ANN VACLAVICK.

MYRTLE DeREESE leaves her sports "statistics" typing to HELEN FABRYGALL.

HOWARD HURTA leaves his shrimping ability at Palacios to MR. TASKA. (So that's what they call it now.)

The Seniors are leaving all of their English IV books to the Juniors. They also said while they were at it, they might as well throw in Mr. Black for good measure. This way we feel all those books will not go to waste.

We also will our sponsors to the Juniors, or should we say Seniors of '53? We hope these sponsors will take good care of these Junior intellectuals, especially on the Senior Trip.
