Foreword

We, the members of the Staff, are grateful for the opportunity given us to serve in producing the twelfth edition of the Tidehaven High School Annual; the 1962 edition of "The Tiger."

In the future, after we have entered upon life's noble work, may we take an occasional peek into this volume and have the pleasant memories of our High School Days at Tidehaven brought anew to our minds.

It is our wish that each page of this book will serve to stimulate a happy thought in your memory in the years to come.

The Annual Staff

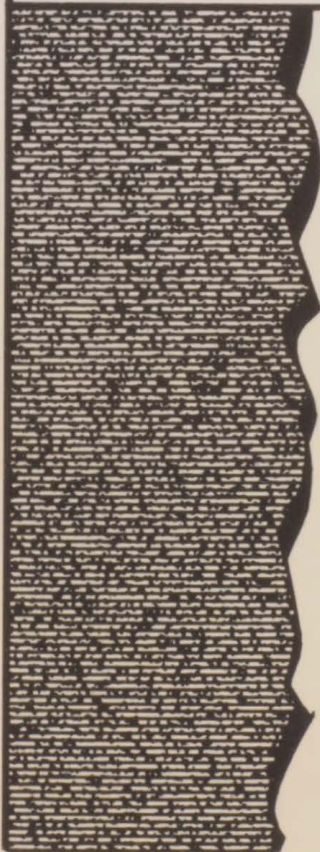

Dedication

To one who has served us faithfully as a teacher, counselor, and friend, we wish to honor with this book.

To one who had done more than is expected of a teacher, we the Annual Staff of 1962, proudly dedicate this edition of the Tiger to -

Mr. Alton Nelsen

Superintendent's Message

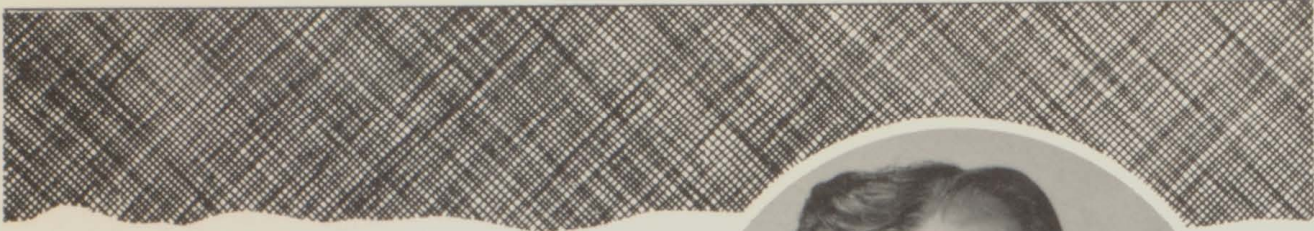

KEEP AMERICA STRONG

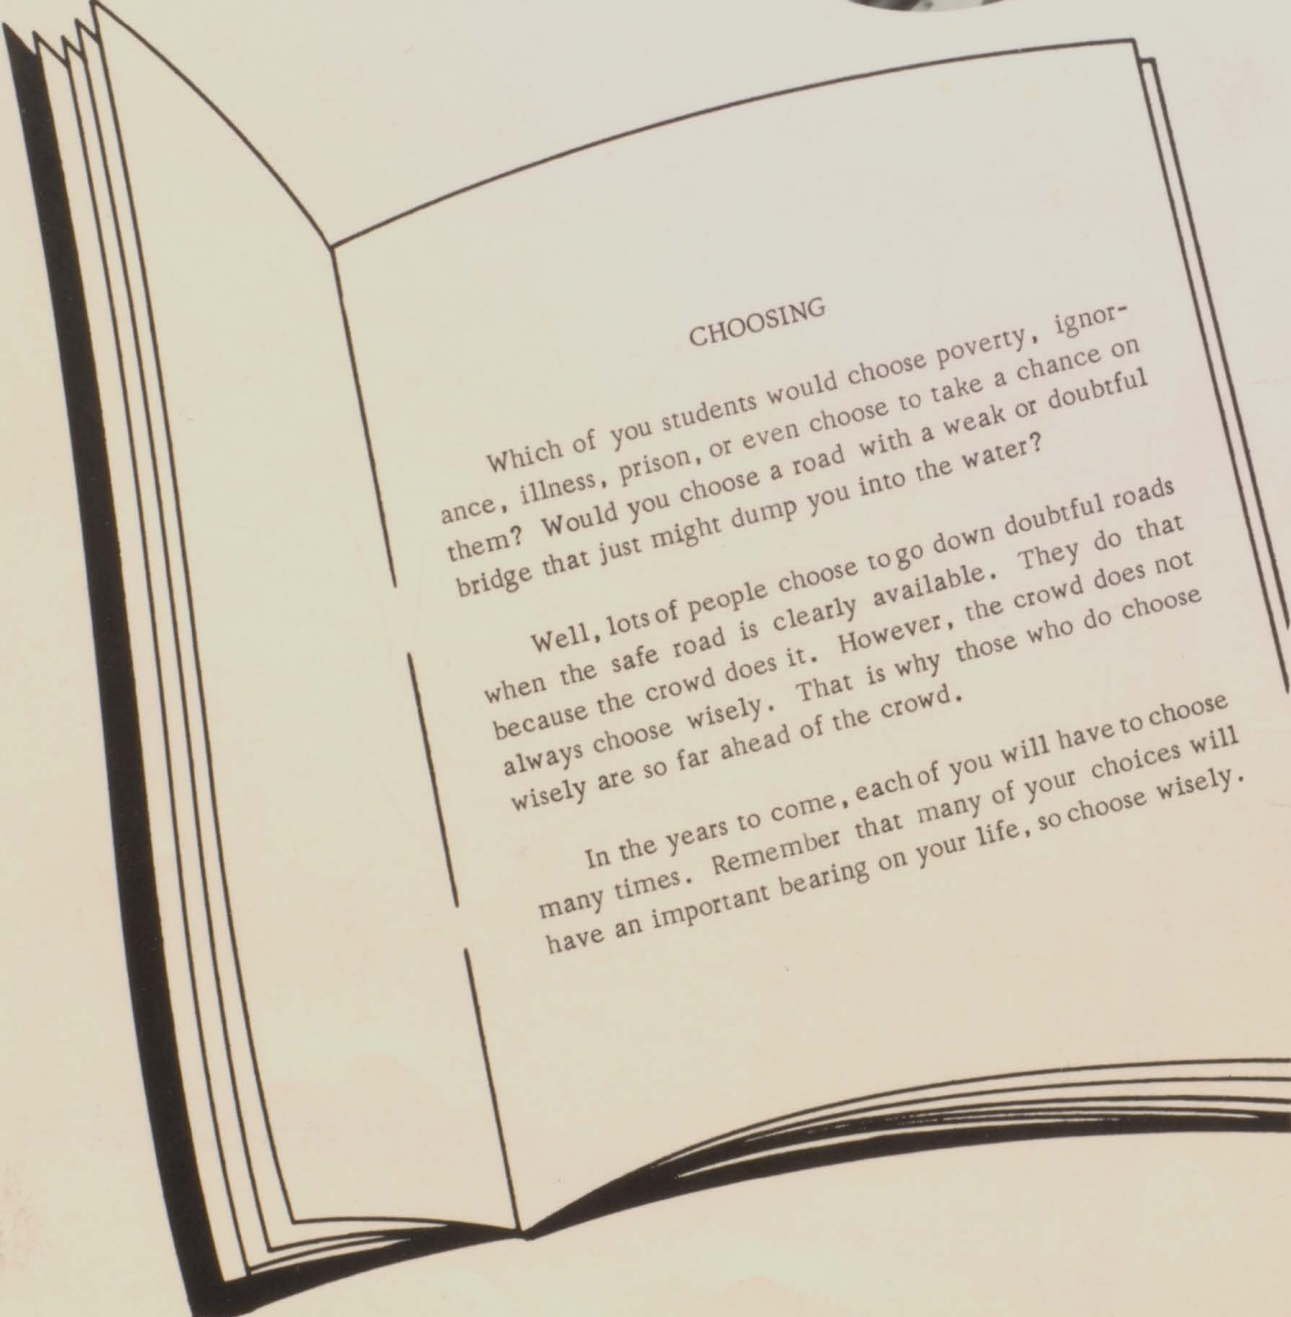

Heavy demands are being made today upon the resources of this nation. Not only are the resources of material supplies being tested; but the morale of our people is also on the testing scale. America sends the young people made our country great - those principles which have made possible your heritage of citizenship in this democracy of ours.

Surely, there can be no doubt, that the American Way of Life is the best way of life for the people who love freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assemblage, freedom of worship. Surely there can be no doubt that government of the people, for the people, and by the people, is the greatest form of government the world has ever known. Surely there can be no doubt about what it means to live in America among Americans with American Institutions, American Homes, American Customs, and American ways of thinking.

That America may live, all of us must make sacrifices, must fight with all the will which is ours, with all the strength which is ours, with all the hope that is ours, to make secure our Great American Heritage.

Principal's Message

CHOOSING

Which of you students would choose poverty, ignorance, illness, prison, or even choose to take a chance on them? Would you choose a road with a weak or doubtful bridge that just might dump you into the water?

Well, lots of people choose to go down doubtful roads when the safe road is clearly available. They do that because the crowd does it. However, the crowd does not always choose wisely. That is why those who do choose wisely are so far ahead of the crowd.

In the years to come, each of you will have to choose many times. Remember that many of your choices will have an important bearing on your life, so choose wisely.

 - I, Frankie Joe Hurta, leave my ability to throw the shot to Frank Fabrygel.
 - I, Sunshine Fondon, leave with great regret my ability to quickly do away with my drum sticks to Mary Hickey.
 - I, Santos Carrillo, leave all the mirrors in Tidehaven to the future senior boys who like to comb their hair.
 - I, Jean McMahan, leave my position as typist on the Tiger's Tale to Mary Jean Whitley.
 - I, Ginger Ackerman, leave all my sprained fingers from volleyball and my good times at Girls' State to Lynda Denbow.
 - I, Julia Castillo, leave to Nat and Elodia anything I might have that they would need.
 - I, Richard Harrison, leave my ability to get to class late every day to Benny Fondon.
 - I, Dorothy Kopnick, leave my cornet playing ability to Henry Heller.
 - I, Ginger Epperson, leave my athletic ability to Nancy Keith.
 - I, Betty Midgett, leave my ability to pass English without cheating to Gay Akins.
- "Good Luck!"

Senior Class Prophecy

As we gaze into the year of 1972, we find the Seniors of 1962 very busy.

Ginger (Ackerman) Adams is operating a cheerleading school, where her twelve children, her star pupils, are making all A's as their mother once did.

Lois Quinney is busy at home ironing all her little Britcheses' britches.

The Fred Astaire Dance Studio has a wonderful new dance instructor, Barbara Dabelgott.

Some of the more adventuresome members of the class have journeyed to the moon. Jean (McMahan) Triplett is selling shoes in Joe Thornblom's shoe store that Edwin Junek, the great architect designed. Next door is Barbara Orsak (now Mrs. Manna) in her dress shop, where she designs and sews doll clothes.

Back on earth, Henrietta, editor of the "New York Times," is advertising Richard's new electric car.

Frankie Joe is in the hospital after breaking a toe while pole vaulting over the Empire State Building.

Darvin, a former member of the Mickey Mouse Club, has just been accepted into the Harlem Globe Trotters.

Other famous athletes from the class are James Kosarek, a famous strong man in the circus, and the wrestler "Tornado Tommy," known to us as Tommy Neuman.

Donald Elliot and A. J. Foyt are the new co-owners of the Indianapolis Speedway.

The Omelet House, specializing in the eggiest omelets on earth, is owned by Priscilla (Fitzgerald) Hurta.

Two of the girls have come to the aid of their country. Dawn is refueling jets for the Air Force, and Sunshine is head drummer in the Navy Band.

Dorothy (Kopnick) Arnold is a receptionist at her husband's 7-up Plant.

We find several musicians entertaining Betty (Krenek) Dorotik's alligators at her farm in Florida. They are as follows: Bobby Lezak playing his baritone, Robert Riley singing, and Betty Midgett playing her flute.

Several members of the class have been lured to the enchanting islands of Hawaii. Brenda Canant, a Merle Norman Cosmetics representative is selling her products to Hawaiian beach girls. Julia Castillo has gained a little weight while eating candy in Hawaii. Joe's Cool Combo, now entertaining at the world-renowned Carrillo's Pan Cake Hut.

Donald and Dennis are spending their vacation chasing a Hawaiian girl who has lost her grass skirt.

Ginger Epperson is teaching a new swivel walk to Hawaiian girls in Victor's new studio.

Thus, we leave the 1962 Seniors, as we shall always remember them.

Chapter 3 THE BEGINNINGS OF THE UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. Our system of government did not suddenly spring into being as if the waves of some mystical magician's wand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

The Colonial Period

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest number. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1,500 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

These early pioneers who suffered the wilderness and fought off the Indians are laid to back and their own descendants are laid to the New World. How they came here in search of greater freedom and they brought much of their political culture with them. They brought with them the English idea of a government in which the people have a say. They brought with them the English idea of limited government. They brought with them the English idea of liberty. They brought with them, too, the idea of a limited government and still more important, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the same Founding Fathers at Philadelphia in the summer of 1787. Rather, it has developed through long centuries of experience. Tradition through the ages. We shall now review the high points of these beginnings.

SETTLERS AT WORK

Early Americans had to live together in harmony, or they would not survive. This was called "government" in order to live. The beginning of our government today.

of which are to be found today: county, township, city, sheriff, coroner, and justice of the peace, for example. And all of these were well known in England long before the first Englishman ever landed in America.

1.1 The First Concept of Limited Government and Liberty. They brought with them, too, the idea of a limited government and still more important, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the same that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

1.2 The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

THANK GOODNESS WE ARE THROUGH WITH THE ANNUAL!!!

It is the pleasure of the Tiger Annual Staff to express appreciation to those of you who have made this annual a success. This is your book. It is what you have made it.

As the Senior Class of '62 leave to journey down the Road of Life, we hope these pages will be a treasured reminder of their school days in the TIDEHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL.
