TIDEHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL
EL MATON, TEXAS
1967

Foreword

During the past school year we of the Annual Staff and our sponsor, Mrs. Verna Marie King, have worked diligently to compile the 1967 edition of the Tiger.

I am certain that without the guidance and efforts of Mrs. King and without the financial aid from advertisers the '67 Tiger could not have been published. Special thanks is also extended to each subscriber to the Tiger, for it is their satisfaction that makes all the hard work worthwhile and enjoyable.

I hope that all who browse through the '67 Tiger in the years to come will remember the treasured and cherished memories that played such an important role in their high school career.

Dedication

MRS. VERNA MARIE KING

We, the Annual Staff of 1967, were fortunate to have such a devoted and hard-working sponsor as Mrs. King. We are indebted to her for all the assistance she has given us on the annual.

Her service does not, however, end with being sponsor of the annual staff. As librarian of the Tidehaven High School Library, she has updated the library facilities and is continuously striving to improve library efficiency.

We all appreciate the contributions she has made to the school and proudly dedicate the '67 Tiger to her.

A GOOD NAME

It is queer how names last for years and years. It seems that when one gets a name it is hard to get rid of it, especially if it is a bad name. There is an old saying that a leopard cannot change its spots. We might say that a person has a hard time getting rid of a name, once it is given to him or her.

A name carries a lot of weight and has much influence on a person's success in life. In school days when pupils are getting the foundation stones placed for their life work it is well to see that the foundation of their life preparation has a corner stone which bears all of the characteristics of a good name and a good reputation. A life built upon a good name and a solid reputation is a life that counts. A good name is much to be desired. It is an attribute to any successful endeavor.

WHAT ROLE IN LIFE'S DRAMA

Each student is playing a role in the drama of life. For one thing, each of you today is playing the role of a student. You also are fulfilling another role. Some of you play the part of a griper; some a clown; but most of you I hope - play the part of one who cares, who is interested in life and loves his fellow man.

Some of you play to galleries who are impressed by show and costume, not to the discerning and worthy who are impressed by worth, achievement, and service. From the part some choose to play, they obviously do not have a high opinion of themselves. If a person does not have a high opinion of himself, he cannot expect discriminating onlookers to have a high opinion of him.

In the drama of life, everyone can choose his or her part. But to be able to play this role, you must make preparation. Schools are preparing many of you for that future role but they cannot play the role for you. You must put yourself into this role. To play this role you have to try, to aspire, to perspire, to persist and resist.

Senior Class Will

I, Wayne Ackerman, leave my rude disposition and my insulting manner to Homer Phillips, and my 6th period study halls to anyone who can stand them.

I, Michael Baca, leave good ole THS to Robert Zielonka and my Tiger Spirits Awards to Joyce Gunter in hopes she will keep the spirits high.

I, Micheal Black, leave my dainty nose to Mike Jessup and my perfect attendance record to Jesse Shindler.

I, Willie Bohuslar, leave to Mike Tobola, Richard Tweedle, Edmund Hickl, and Francis Hickl my ability to do the least amount of work in the longest period of time and get the most out of it.

I, Idelle Bram and Betty Whitley, leave to Fay Junek, Gail Sanders, and Dianna Paul the ability to swipe food out of homemaking without getting caught.

I, Gayle Brooks, leave my 30 words a minute in shorthand to Patricia Kana.

I, Vinna Conlee, leave my promptness in turning in papers to Mary Ann Bartosh.

I, Jack Cornett, leave my aching shin splints to Coach Davis because nobody else wants them, and my ability to get along with horses to Mike Jessup.

I, Sara Curnutt, leave my ability to promptness to Pat Jessup, and my ole #42 and dill pickles to Terry Savage.

If anybody wants anything from Daniel Dabelgott and Larry Watkins, see Terry Savage and Donna Troutman, as they have everything that is ours.

I, Hope Davis, leave my good build to Sharon Tracy and my great luck with marines to Cheryl Rives.

I, Adela Flores, leave my petite figure to Sharon Collier.

I, Shirley Gunter, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Fariss and my success as a drum major to the next drum major.

I, Kathy Hadley, will gladly leave my natural blonde hair to Nancy Denbow.

I, Richard Hahn, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Rose to Jim Tobola, who needs it desperately.

I, Nina Harrison, leave my lonely Saturday nights to Brenda Rush.

I, Dwight Hicks, leave my toughness to David Silva, my ability to stay sober to Mike Nemeec, and my arms to Billy Smith.

I, Randall Hicks, leave nothing to no one because I need all I can get.

I, Janice Hebert, leave my history knowledge to Alex Sheppard, Jr. and Ural Sardinea.

I, Barbara Hickl, leave my pickle-eating times in homemaking to Rhonda White.

I, Delores Jalufka, leave my shorthand ability to Carolyn Baker.

I, Milton Kacer, leave my patriotic duty of putting up the flag to David Ussery and Leroy Fitzgerald.

I, Margaret Krenek, will to Patricia Bohuslar my ability to take dictation at 90 words a minute. Would you believe 20 words a minute?

I, Michael Kubala, leave my ability to enchant people with my soft spoken manner and witty conversation to Madelyn Fellers.

I, Irma Lehner, will my ability to be quiet in class to Shelley Simmons.

I, Joseph Lehner, leave to Vincent Nemecek my small size, but only after basketball season.

I, Belle Losoya, leave my perfect attendance record to Billy Hejtmanek.

I, LaVerne Lezak, leave my aches, pains, and mistakes in bookkeeping to Cathy LaBeff if she happens to take it over.

I, Randall Maroney, leave my charm with the ladies to the "Bola" boys, and my athletic records to Ira Gordon and Patrick Jessup to improve them.

I, Louis Poessel, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Fariss to Donald Kopnick.

I, Elaine Saha, leave to Candace Harrison my ability to get an engagement ring during my Senior Year!

I, Garry Saha, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Taska to Jerome Vacek and my Bohemian Pontiac to whoever wants it.

I, Leonard Salas, leave my ability of running the mile to Dwight Vavra or whoever else is crazy enough to put up with the workouts.

I, Norval Sells, leave my ability to get along with Mrs. King to Clifton Thomas and Edgar Beyer.

I, Johnnie Thompson, leave my parking place next to the flag pole to Frode Andersen.

I, William Wallace, leave my top priority standing in booth number two to the next group of "Vonderful Velders".

I, Tommy Williams, leave my so-called acting ability to Mike Alderson and my athletic ability to Vincent Nemecek, Billy Dannels, and Bobby Zemanek.

I, John Henry Zemanek, will my soul to the devil (Pat Jessup), my lungs to Mike Jessup, and my speed to Ira Gordon III.

Senior Class Prophecy

It is the year 1977 and last minute preparations are being made to accomodate the graduating class of 1967 from Tidehaven High School for their reunion at Lost Valley Dude Ranch. This scenic spot was chosen for many wanted to return after their enjoyable senior trip here and many have since returned for employment.

We are greeted by friendly Sara Curnutt who now owns the famous ranch and supports her mentally disturbed husband, John H. Zemanek, who, after many failures following graduation from THS, has gone insane. While enjoying our delicious meal prepared by the head dietician, Janice Hebert, lovely Barbara Hickl bursts into the room beaming with excitement, for she has been named "Miss Bay City Tribune".

After our meal we are informed that despite the tireless efforts of his unsuccessful lawyer, Milton Kacer, Norval Sells will not be able to attend because he is presently serving a prison term for his latest conviction as a firebug. Our disappointment is lessened when we spot LaVerne Lezak, who after many years of isolation caused by an inferiority complex developed soon after graduation, was finally persuaded to attend.

Touring around the ranch grounds, we see Hope Davis' private plane arrive from Paris. We are happy to hear that she now owns a string of beauty salons. Passing by the stables of the rodeo grounds, we see Jack Cornett preparing for tonight's rodeo in which he is the star performer. Who is that in the back of barn cleaning stables? Why, it's Daniel Dabelgott, who now works full time as a stable boy after his graduation from Harvard. Presently our walk takes us by the magnificent swimming pool where we arrive just in time to see Gary Saha, a dedicated lifeguard after his many heroic experiences at beach parties, save invalid Dwight Hicks after his wheelchair rolled into the pool.

Arriving back in the lobby, we are informed by Shirley Gunter that she barely made it because she was right in the middle of a divorce case with her fifth husband Richard Hahn. She jealously hints that the reason for the present divorce was his romantic involvement with playgirl Betty Sue Whitley. Our attention is drawn to the corner of the room where the tough, loud-mouthed Marine Sergeant, Joseph Lehner, is barking out orders for long-haired Leonard Salas, the world famous Rock'n Roll star, to get his famous Tequila Brass Band set up for the dance later tonight.

A telegram arrives, stating that Junior Bohuslar is unable to attend as he is presently defending his title at the U. S. Invitational Golf Tournament. We wish him luck!

We hear a loud CRASH and run outside to see Gayle Brooks trying to parallel-park her sixty-foot trailer house; although it doesn't resemble a shoe, Gayle has so many kids she doesn't know what to do.

Back in the building, all heads turn as the dignified Mr. Randall Keith Maroney appears in the room. After retiring from track, he is now the most respected quarter-miler coach in the nation. After inquiring about Louis Poessel's accomplishments, we are much surprised to hear that he is now owner of one of the most successful accounting firms in New York City, thanks to his hard work in bookkeeping back in T. H. S.

Over the loud speaker rings the familiar voice of the hotel secretary, Nina Harrison, as she announces that Wayne Ackerman has just been elected President of Alcoholics Anonymous. But our enthusiasm is dampened when we hear that the ex-partners, Bill Wallace and Larry Watkins, have had a break-up over the color of their latest model stock car.

It is now 7:30 and Johnnie Thompson has to tell everyone good-bye because his strict tennis training rules, which he follows precisely, requires him to be in bed at 8:00 p. m. In comes Mike Baca, owner of a famous playboy club in Las Vegas, with two of his most demanded bunnies, Irma Lehner and Delores Jalufka. Just before the dance starts, Belle Losoya reports that she has just completed her latest zoological expedition in Arizona where she captured many Gila monsters. For reasons unknown to her, her collection has grown smaller instead of larger, thanks to the human efforts of her soft-hearted assistant, Adela Flores, who had released the animals.

Arriving from Hollywood, our newly-weds Tommy Williams and Vinna Conlee Williams stop to say a quick "hello" before their departure for the premier of their latest movie, "Who's Afraid of Gammar Gurton?"

As the dance progresses, Margaret Krenek, now a prominent dance instructor, busies herself teaching everyone the latest dancing techniques. We spy Admiral Mike Black, who has replaced Admiral Nelson on the nuclear-powered submarine "Seaview", puffing on his pipe while gazing admirably at the shapely go-go girl, Elaine Saha, as she "swings" to the rhythm of the music in her glittering cage. Out on the balcony the millionaire Idelle Bram, famous for her formula to remove freckles, tries unsuccessfully to comfort Michael Kubala. He is inconsolable because his wife stole his Honda and ran off with the leader of "Hell's Angels". It's not his wife he seems to be worried about, but the fact that he'll never see his Honda again.

Waiting to take us to the airport at the close of the evening is that old reliable, safe-driving taxi driver, Randall Hicks. So now it is time to say farewell until the year 1987 when we will meet again to bring back old memories of the graduating class of '67.

This year has proved to be an outstanding winning year in Tiger athletic endeavors. The accomplishments include: District in Football, District in Girls' Basketball, a tie for District in Boys' Basketball, Runner-up in the Grils' State Volleyball Tourney, and last and by far the greatest accomplishment, State in Track, the first State Championship ever captured by the Tigers. Credit must be given to Coach Davis, the rest of the coaching staff, and the members of the track team who won the State Meet: Ira Gordon, Cliff Thomas, Stuart Johnson, Mike Jessup, Jack Cornett, John Henry Zemanek, Pat Jessup, and Jerome Vacek. The point parade included a first in the shot put and a second in the discus by Cliff Thomas, a tie for 4th in the pole vault by Stuart Johnson, a third in the 330 yd. hurdles by Mike Jessup, and a first in the 440 yard dash by Ira Gordon. The relay teams proved themselves best again by capturing first in both the 440 and mile relay events. The spring relay team, consisting of Jack Cornett, Jerome Vacek, Pat Jessup, and Ira Gordon, won with a time of 43.2. The "Big Four", Ira Gordon, Jack Cornett, Mike Jessup, and Pat Jessup, stepped ahead to a first and a new state mile relay record of 3:19.1. Through the efforts of these boys the athletic competition came to an end with the achievement all high school teams work for, a State Championship. Congratulations State Track Champs of '67.

JUNIOR HIGH ELEMENTARY

Principals

You are receiving your education at a very important period in history. There is unlimited opportunity for those willing to secure the education and training necessary in this highly technical age.

Take advantage of every opportunity to continue your education as you seek to find your place in society and the business world. You hold your future in your hands.

Earl R. Adams, Jr.

BLESSING ELEMENTARY

MR. EARL R. ADAMS, JR.

Greetings,

Each year a group of students move out of our Elementary School into the Intermediate school. We feel that these students are better prepared than those who have gone before, because of better prepared teachers, better teaching materials, and better equipment. We realize they are moving into a complex world and our aim is to give them the foundations they will need.

Sincerely,

W. G. King

W. G. King

Congratulations Seniors . . .

Now it's time to plan for the future. And whether your plans are settled, or not, remember this: your own South Texas is a land of promise.

Today, there are many opportunities for trained and ambitious young men and women. New industries are moving into South Texas . . . established industries are growing. Accept the challenge - move forward with South Texas.

Central Power and Light Company is proud of the hundreds of graduates of South Texas high schools and colleges who are on our electric service team . . . working and building for a greater South Texas.
