

TIGER

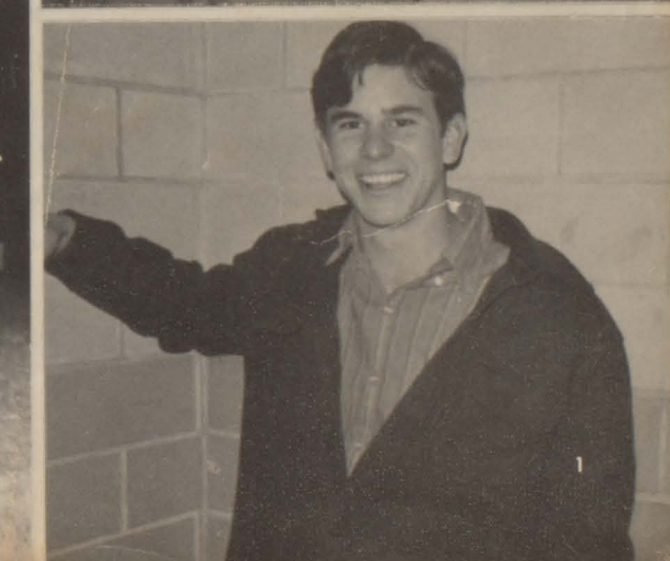

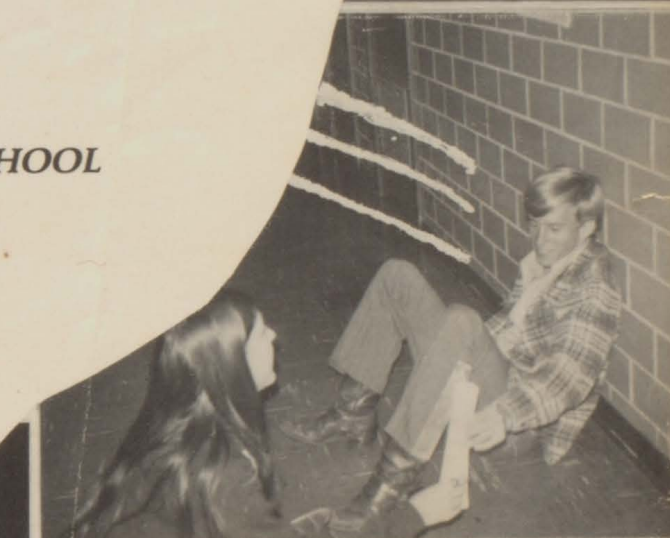

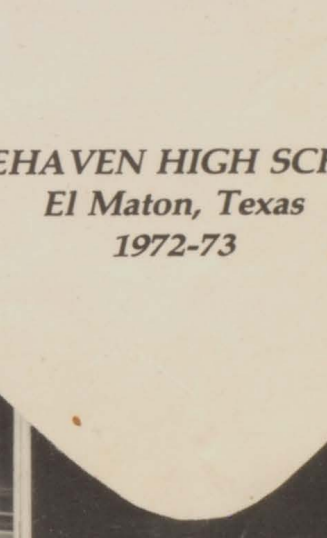

The
TIGER

TIDEHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL
 El Maton, Texas
 1972-73

A good life is determined by the quality of its memories. If we have lived reasonably well, the recollection of our high school memories should not hurt us too much but give us pleasures, as does a refreshing fountain. One of the nicer things about memories is that sharing them with our classmates does not diminish them either in number or vividness. And through the '73 TIGER, I sincerely hope that your memories of THS will only be restored and enhanced.

I would like to sincerely thank the TIGER staff and sponsor, Mrs. King, who deserve much recognition for the splendid work they have put into this edition. They are truly a fine staff and I have greatly enjoyed working with them. No annual could possibly be published without the dedicated help and valuable advice from Mrs. King, and I am very grateful to her for her patience and understanding.

My staff and I only hope that we have put "our heads together" in the right way so that you will always be able to relive those cherished moments at Tidehaven High.

DEDICATION

Because both have dedicated their lives to THS in their ideals of education, leadership, and counsel, we would like to dedicate the '73 TIGER to them, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Nelson.

Because of his own ideals and high values, Mr. Nelson has encouraged students and teachers both to excel in leadership, education, and spirit at THS. An outstanding and energetic sponsor of the FHA program, Mrs. Nelson has given endless time and energy to educate and prepare the girls at THS for their roles in life as successful homemakers. As a result, both have been a vital part of the progress of THS for the past 37 years and we would like to extend our deepest gratitude.

1972-1973 SENIOR PROPHECY

The graduating class of 1973 had the chance to gather together in the year 1988. The occasion was the joining of MARY ORR to FRITZ CORNELIUS in holy matrimony. After 15 years of courtship, Mary is gliding down to the altar to "My Woman, My Woman, My Wife." Awaiting at the altar we see the members of the wedding party. LILLIAN ZEMANEK, expecting her sixth child, acts as matron of honor opposite her husband, GREG WILLIAMS, best man. JUDY BANKHEAD, the famous prosecuting attorney, and SUSAN DROZD, twirling her bouquet from years of habit, are opposite MARK LEZAK and MIKE CLAXTON, joint owners of a local distributing co. We turn our attentions to RHONDA DENBOW, who is still singing after years of practice in small churches, accompanied by ERMA CHAVEZ, on the organ. Her husband, TONY MARTINEZ, performs the ceremony. We see beautiful flowers provided by STANLEY GENZER and GLENN HAYES, who own the local florist shop. After the ceremony, we go to the El Maton International Hall, a great ball room, owned by TERRY ROBERTSON and DEBBIE DABELGOTT, for the dance. Upon entering, we find KATHY JANAK registering guests and MARK RICKAWAY snapping pictures. DONNA HARTER is running around getting a scoop for her column, Harter's Heart Throbs. We sit down to a fabulous supper, prepared by Ron's Fish Palace owned by RONNIE ORSAK and GENEVA DABELGOTT. The supper is served by 3 efficient waiters, EMIL VACULIN, RICHARD RAY, and JULIAN GARCIA. Afterwards we have the pleasure of dancing to the music of the Olguin brothers, DAVID and JOE, backed by ALICE BOONE, JANICE BROWN, and ERNEST EDWARDS. Hearing a commotion, we turn to find TERRY SMITH, chief of police in Markham, arguing with MARY FIKES, ambassador to Clemville, over a boundary dispute running through the now densely populated El Dorado. As we weave among some of our old friends, we ask the whereabouts of FREDRICK PIERCE and DARRELL PIWONKA. Last heard, we are told, they were playing tennis in China. PAUL HICKL, who after graduation from the University of Texas, went on to play with the New York Giants, making a good career for himself by keeping MICHAEL McKISSICK as his personal manager. We talk to some who found success staying in the area of their old alma mater, among them DENNIS WARN, who finally became owner of LeTulle Ranch. SANDY NEDBALEK is now running Mid-LaCroix Market in Midfield. We see an old familiar face, ODIE MILNER, who kept in his business of high school and opened his own business, Milner's Morgue. We find GAIL GOTH, who loved Tidehaven so much that she returned after graduation from Southwest to teach history. Just as the reception is breaking up, we talk to ANDY PENNINGTON, who has made fame for himself in the practice of veterinary medicine, specializing in poultry. Following the beloved couple, we arrive at Fabrygel's Resort Hotel in Markham, owned by EMIL FABRYGEL. Upon entering, we see JOHNNY PARR and DAVID WAKEFIELD rush to take our luggage. After finally getting an elevator, we find the cause of our delay being LARRY MARTINEZ. It seems he gets his fun from riding up and down the elevator without picking up any people. Next we find the beauty shop run by DOROTHY PESAK, specializing in manicures, MARY PARR styling hair, and CECILIA NEMEC giving facial massages. Going into the hotel bar, we see DANNY NEMEC and DANIEL WILLIAMS, bartenders. Hearing cheers from a group, we see WALTER WOODS on the barroom T.V. On the side of the ring is SAMPSON GARDNER, his personal manager, watching "Tiny" compete in the featherweight competition in Canada. We hear SHERRY HERBERT asking "Copenhagen, Happy Days, Scoal, anyone?" Tonight being western night we are entertained by Carlton and the Nitt Kickers, headed by CARLTON LABEFF and backed by KAY ROADES, YVONNE VAVRA, and GWEN BRAM. As we say goodnight, we all promise to gather together in the near future.

Go Power

... CPL electricity ... the power behind the good things in life. Like your music loud? Turn on power that gives you real volume at a low cost. Want a break from dishwashing? Load them in an electric dishwasher and away you go. Want convenience? Get a load of little things ... like an electric toothbrush, coffeemaker, hair curlers, power saw. Then cool it ... with electric air conditioning. The hidden asset behind them all is low cost, dependable electricity ... Go Power.
