Everyone pitches in to help celebrate Mr. Beck's birthday.

The Language Arts Club "sing" for their finale of the Christmas play.

Martha Guttenberger and Laura Maupin watch the Tigers win the Homecoming game.

Homecoming at T.H.S.

It was the perfect night. The Tigers played great and beat the Ganado Indians in the Homecoming game, the last game of the season. Amanda Galvez was crowned 1987 Homecoming Queen at halftime and the 1967 Tiger team was announced at pre-game in honor of their State Championship's 20th anniversary.

The night ended with a dance sponsored by the Junior class. The theme was "Rising Spirits at T.H.S." and balloons, streamers, and mums decorated the cafeteria-turned-dance room. Everyone seemed to have a good time.

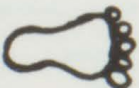

The Juniors raised spirit as well as money with a balloon release.

Kim Torres and Clara Rodriguez model the latest in Homecoming mums.

The candidates: Susan Villereal, Dawn Johnson, and Carrie Ryan congratulate Amanda Galvez on getting Homecoming Queen.

Carl Grice and Joe Rocha get ready for the kick off in their Homecoming victory over Ganado.

Carl Grice heads out to the dance floor at the dance.

Victory Dances

This year, the Junior Class brought back Victory dances to Tidehaven with much success. Everyone had fun dancing while the Juniors rolled in the profits, which were used later to finance the Prom.

The cafeteria was transformed as tables and chairs were pushed back and decorations were hung every Friday night after a home game. Students brought their favorite tapes from home and Clint Walker did a super job as the D. J.

These dances were a great idea that served the purposes and boosting school spirit. Hopefully, the Victory dances are here to stay.

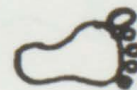

Pete Tobar and Jennifer Reyes dance the night away at one of the Victory dances.

Darrell Tomasek goes to ask someone to dance.

Juniors Kim Morris, Stephanie Clements, Tammy McGinnes and Kristi Jackson decorate the cafeteria for that night's dance.

Tidehaven's own, Clint Walker, is the D.J. for the night.

Melissa Martinez and Bucky Galvez have a good time dancing.

The Top Bananas

Just as in 1957, 1988 was the year of Tiger Basketball. The starting line-up consisted of Seniors Shayne Hamer and Mike Magee, Juniors Chris Grice, Carl Grice and Shawn Kacer, with Senior Mark Lister, Junior Joe Rocha and Sophomores Blaine Beck and Larry Sanford filling in.

The team won District with a 21-5 record and started the play-offs with the Bi-District game in Edna against the Weimar Wildcats. The Tigers beat Weimar with a score of 74 to 53. Then, it was on to Area in Gonzales to play the Florence Buffaloes. The Tigers played a great game and beat Florence 53 to 46.

Regionals were next and the tournament was played at Victoria High School. The Tigers went up against the San Antonio Cole Cougars. On game day, the Tiger fans came out in full force to support their team. The Tigers played one of their best games but it just wasn't enough to pull one over on the Cougars, who won the game, 63 to 55. The Tigers never gave up and the fans supported them 100% through the entire game.

Congratulations to the Tiger 1988 Area Champs on a great season.

The Tigers get ready for the Regionals game in Victoria against San Antonio Cole.

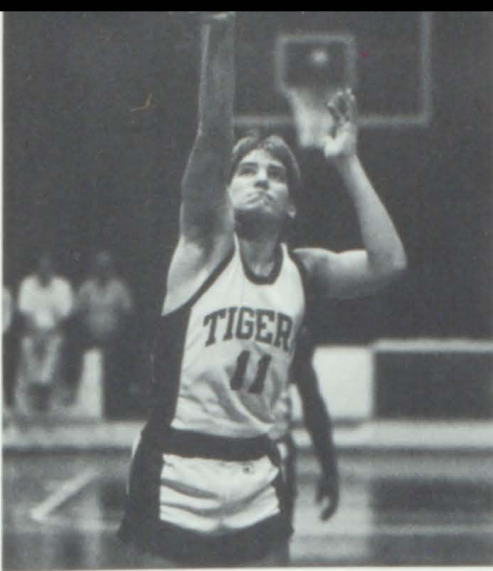

The Varsity Cheerleaders build a pyramid as well as spirit.

Coach Haines paces the floor in anticipation.

Carl Grice shoots a free throw at the Bi-District game in Edna.

Shayne Hamer helps rack up the points with a free throw shot. Parents and teachers show they have spirit, too. Mike Magee lines up his shot. Students know their Tigers are Number One. Larry Sanford, Blaine Beck, Joe Rocha and Mark Lister, known as the "Other Guys", cheer on their teammates. Chris Grice out-jumps his opponent and gets the game off to a great start.

Strange Inhabitants

During Halloween and Homecoming week, a visitor to Tidehaven would have seen some strange things. Minnie Mouse, a mummy, Raggedy Ann and Death itself were some of the characters found on Halloween Day. F.T.A. held their annual costume contest and many students participated.

The cheerleaders sponsored Nerd Day, Catch the Wave Day, Military Day and Spirit Day to get students involved in raising spirit for the Homecoming Game. Everyone enjoyed themselves and it was definitely a welcome change.

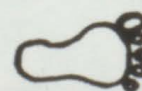

Chris Lenting, Veronica Mulkey, Andrea Savage, Melissa Kaczmarek, Lucy Landa, Carrie Ryan, and Jennifer Landers surf it up on "Catch the Wave" Day.

Michelle Vacek, Jodie Pierce, Melvina Williams and Lori McMillan do "Surf City."

Shannon Gray is dressed as Death on Halloween.

Veronica Mulkey greets everyone as the next Tammy Faye.

A group of Freshmen — Lisa Day, Cathy Biskup, Michelle Tobola and Robbie Greer — smile for the camera in their Halloween costumes.

Barbara Fisher and Laura "Bum" Maupin walk in the Halloween parade.

Christmas at Tidehaven

On December 17, the Language Arts Club and the Tidehaven Concert Band got together to put on a Christmas program. The Band got everyone in the holiday spirit by playing such songs as "Winter Wonderland" and "Jingle Bells." Then, the Language Arts Club performed "A Christmas Corral," a western version of Charles Dicken's "A Christmas Carol."

There was a very good turnout, and everyone who attended left in a festive mood.

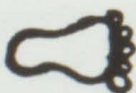

Ghost Stephanie Clements tells Eric "Scrooge" Kowalewski about his Christmas Past.

The Tidehaven Concert Band gets the crowd in the Christmas spirit with some carols.

Martha Gutfenberger, Dawn Polasek, and Rachael Tomlinson play the gossiping Saloon Girls.

"Mr. and Mrs. Cratchett" are played by Steve Rutledge and Tammy McGinnes.

Eric Kowalewski hears about the Christmas present from Ghost Donna Burmeister.

Georgia Zambrano is the "Ghost of Christmas Future."

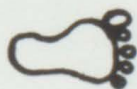

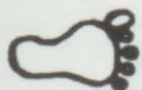

Shayne Hamer comes back from the Dead as "Marley's Ghost."

Jennifer Reyes and the saxophone section perform with the band in the song "Winter Wonderland."

Terry Morris as "Tiny Tim" says "God bless us, everyone" to Eric Kowalewski.

Tim Miller, as "Young Scrooge", explains to "Girlfriend" Carrie Ryan that he is not selfish and greedy.

Senioritis — The Jungle Disease

With being a Senior comes good times as well as hard times. We are all too familiar with the term "Senioritis" — when Seniors are itching one minute to hurry up and graduate and are then heard reminiscing about their elementary days the next minute. Some grades may start to slip just a little, while attendance is just not what it used to be.

But, in the end, Seniors are forgiven because, yes, they have Senioritis. Other students and faculty either learn to ignore them or just listen patiently while a Senior worries about getting into the college of his choice or just getting out of high school.

Here are some opinions of what it means to be a Senior:
Shayne Hamer - It proves that the hard work was worth it and now you're on top.

Melissa Hopper - Starting a new life.

Lisa Glenewinkel - Responsibility

Patti Wallen - Graduating!

Terry Morris - Being a grain of sand on a beach; a tiny wave in an ocean . . . . .

Seniors . . .

will they ever change?!

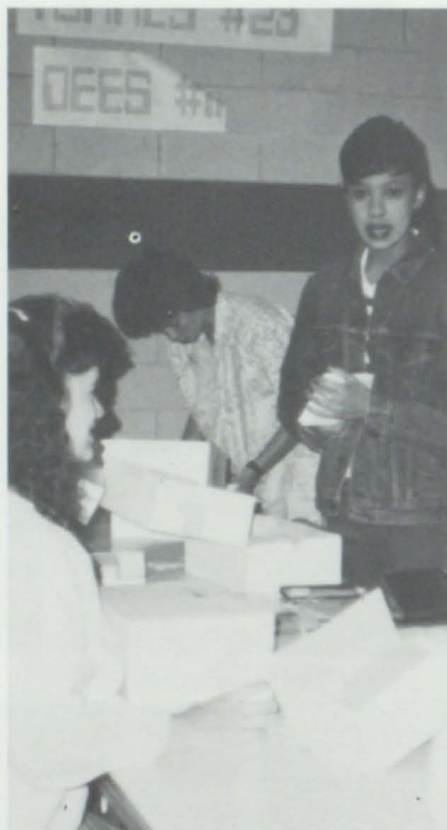

Bruce Parks gets ready to march out onto the field at half-time.

Lisa Glenewinkel, Teresa Armstrong and Cynthia Pena look over their graduation invitations.

Robert Garcia and Michell Torresgossa cheer on the Tigers at a football game.

LaTonya George and Dawn Johnson show they are typical happy Seniors.

Seniors are . . . . .

. . . Accurate! Theresa Hill aims her water gun at John Marks's nose to wash off the shaving cream at a pep-rally and captures a victory for the Seniors.

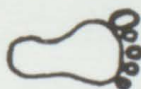

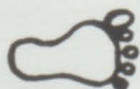

. . . Creative! Steve Rutledge shows off his Medieval castle used for extra points in his English book report.

. . . Supportive! Senior Girls help Chris Lenting win "Most Irrestible" in a spirit contest.

. . . Fun-loving! Shayne Hamer hams it up at a Victory Dance.

. . . Unique! Dawn Johnson struts her stuff at the Halloween pep-rally.

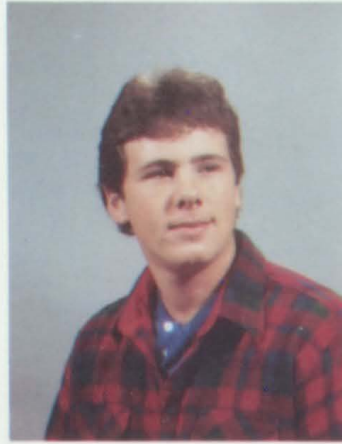

. . . Organized! A group of Seniors try to get fellow classmates on the field to sing the school song at their last game, Homecoming.

Home Economics

Home Economics is a helpful class. In H.E. I, clothing and textiles are discussed and the students make some clothes of their own. The students prepare such foods as muffins, omelets, several types of cookies, and learn how to properly set the table. In H.E. II, more cooking is done, including complete meals featuring foreign foods. This year, all homemaking classes painted t-shirts. The students enjoyed designing and painting their own shirts.

Home and Family Living is another class which is very helpful. This class deals with money, marriage and children and the problems that come with these things. In Consumer Education, the class furnished a home while on a budget, found out where to get information about buying new or used cars and read about all types of insurance. Therefore, it is obvious that any of these classes could be very helpful in our lives.

Paulette Collins and Carrisa Westmoreland are intensely painting t-shirts in H.E. II class.

Angie Partida is trying to follow a recipe while not making a mess.

Kristi Jackson, Anita Johnson, Tammy McGinnes and Carrie Ryan show off their IALAC dolls in Home and Family class.

Theresa Hill explains the correct way to cut out a pattern to Corena and Marina Olguin.

Maria Adame shows us the resemblance between herself and her egg in Home and Family class.

Angie Partida and Monica Luttrell are hard at work with their sewing projects.

Art

Art is the class to take to develop artistic talents you may never have discovered. The students enjoy making self-portraits. After having a picture taken, the student enlarges the face onto paper and paints in the features using white, grey and black as the main colors.

During a certain time of the year, art students can be seen laying in the hallways during class. There is a reason . . . the students are perspective drawing (drawing the hallway according to the shape, size and distance of everything that is in the hallway).

In another part of the year, students do block printing. They carve a design, put printing ink on the design and then print the design on paper.

Just because you think you aren't an artist, don't worry . . . Ms. Cook will help you discover your artistic talents.

Shayne Hamer concentrates on drawing the U. of H. Cougar in Art class.

Melissa Kaczmarek, Mike Magee, Michell Torregrossa, and Brian Michalik are working hard to finish their art projects.

Ms. Cook helps Michell Torregrossa with her block printing.

Health

Health class with Coach Haines is a very open class. Many things are discussed that are very helpful to the students. Good nutrition is one of the topics learned about. Students come to realize they cannot survive on candy bars. Social problems such as drugs, alcohol, teen suicide, and pregnancy are also discussed. Coach Haines points out ways teens can get help with these serious problems and he answers all questions in order to help the students understand why they may need help. At the end of the year, students learn CPR (Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation) by practicing on a dummy and also learn the Heimlich maneuver, which is very helpful because it could save someone's life.

All of these subjects are covered well by Coach Haines in the hope that students will leave his class having all their questions answered.

Ms. Huffman explains, to a student, the purpose of the dummy with CPR.

Cathy Biskup shows the correct procedure for performing mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

Cathy Biskup tries another approach to saving the dummy.

Teresa Armstrong and Dawn Johnson work together and Dawn Johnson saves the dummy while the nurse looks on.

Edward Martinez demonstrates the Heimlich maneuver on a shocked Ronald Andrews.

Mari Adams works hard to save the dummy.

Biology

By looking at these pictures of pigs being dissected and bugs stuck on cardboard, one might think, "yuck, what class is this?" This is Biology but it is not as bad as it looks. In fact, it can be a very interesting class.

The students learn about life (which is what bio means). This includes plant, animal and human life. Heredity and chromosomes are two interesting things you learn concerning human life. Dissecting the animals is probably the best way to learn about animals and the way their bodies are made. The bug collections teach about the different types of bugs and which ones to stay away from!!

Coach Jasek makes this class a very interesting and worthwhile one and her students come out at the end of the year knowing a lot more than when they walked in at the beginning of the year.

Kellee Saha and Michelle Vacek try to identify their bugs in Biology.

This is one little pig that is getting dissected whether he likes it or not!! Jason Black plays with his bugs while Coach Jasek explains a bug to Elizabeth Patina.

Stephanie Daniels checks out her bug under the microscope.

Jason Black and Yolanda Benavidez dissect their pig as Coach Jasek tells them what to do.

Agriculture

Ag is not just a class to take to learn about animals. Many important things are taught such as welding, plants, and, of course, animals. Many students have welded barbecue pits and built picnic tables. Thanks to Ag, students now have benches and picnic tables for their use during lunchtime. Another project in Ag was a merry-go-round made for Blessing Elementary. Several trailers were repaired and painted as part of classwork.

Besides all of this, Ag classes found time to plant and maintain shrubs and flowers by the Ag building. They also planted grass around the Administration building.

Ag class at Tidehaven is very popular. Mr. Clontz and Mr. Webernick are two teachers that take a special interest in their students and put forth much effort to see that the students learn all they are capable of.

If this is Jodie Pierce trying to weld, we better watch out!!

Kristi Jackson and Jodie Pierce cut out a horse for Ag class.

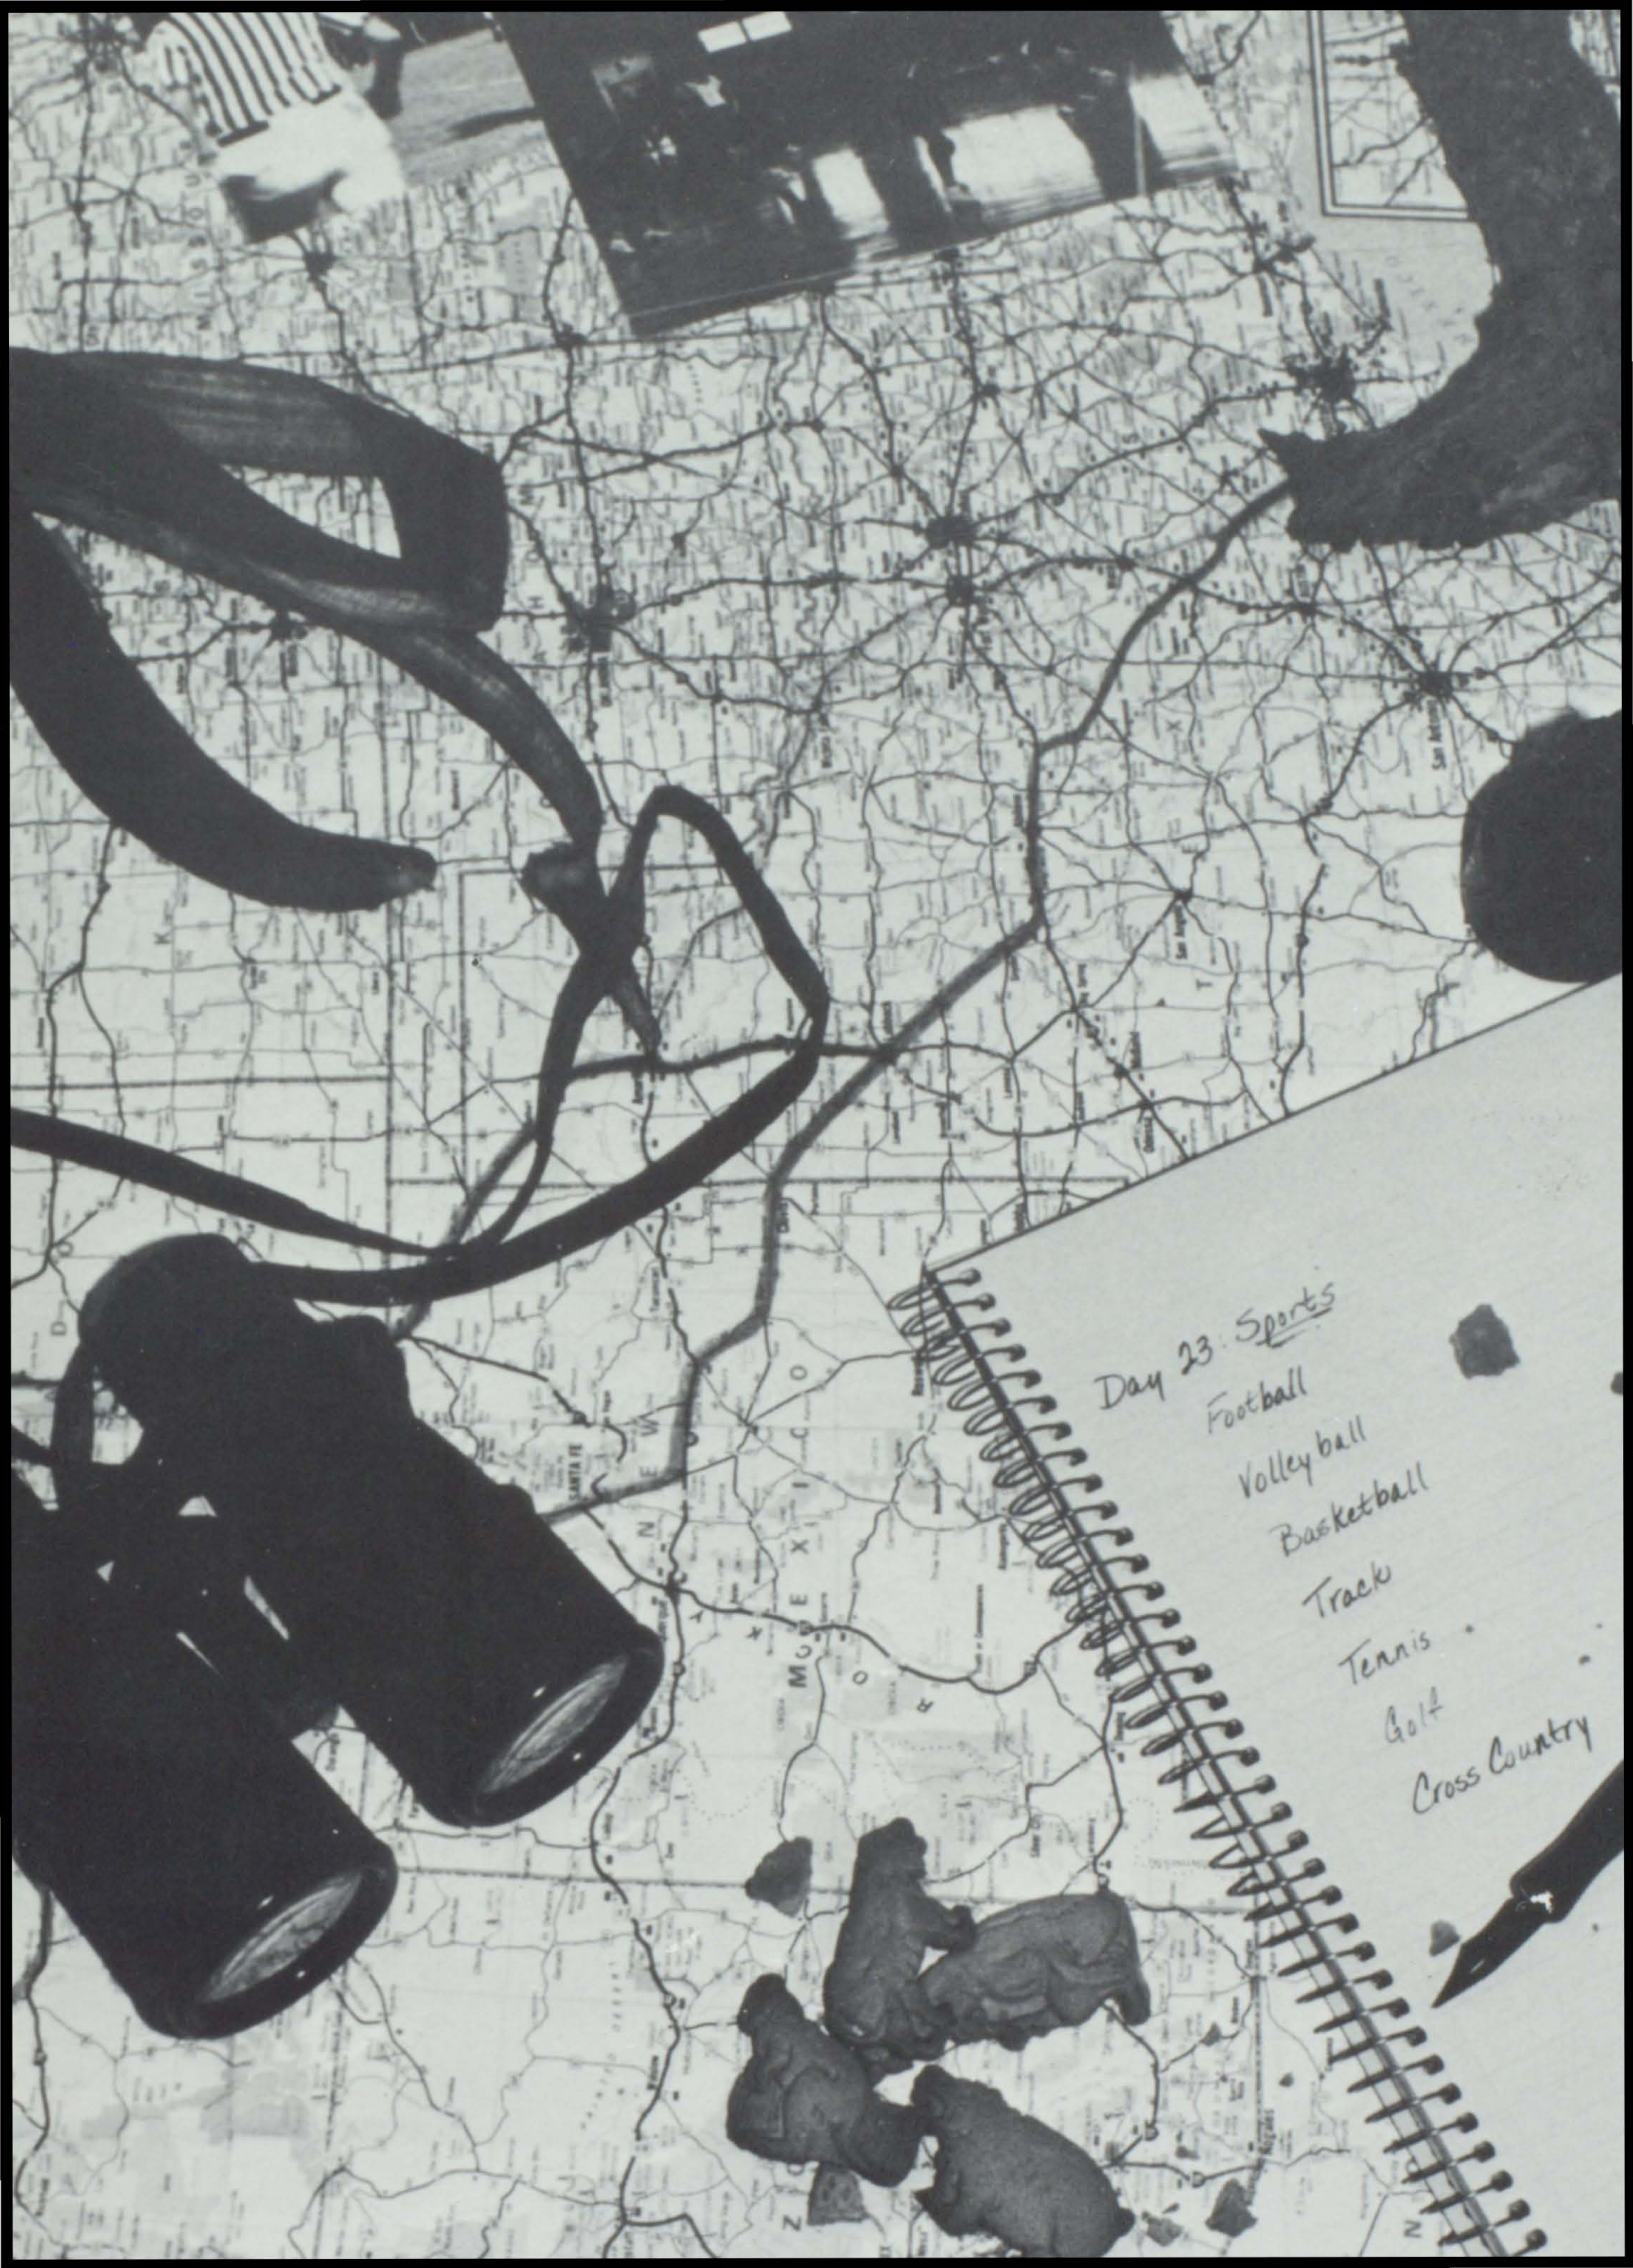

Anita Johnson and Carl Grice show off the great B-B-Q pit made during Ag class.

Tammy Wilson and Kenneth Parks weld in Ag class.

Who is this masked welder? Could it be Tammy Wilson?!

Jose Gomez works on finishing his wooden horse.

A Winning Journey

Despite being picked in the cellar again, the Tigers finished third in the district for the third consecutive season. After a slow start in Palacios, the Tigers took their next two opponents. The first two district games found the Tigers facing their toughest opposition of the year. The Tigers lost to Boling and East Bernard, but then waltzed through the next three games to capture third place in district competition. Tiger Pride showed through as the team fielded only four Seniors and accomplished what it did. A host of Juniors will return to lead the fearless Tigers to the playoffs next year.

A Raging Season

Despite the fact that the girls did not have a very successful season, they worked very hard to win. Together they practiced, won, and lost; but they never let their team spirit cease. The Tigerettes played with ambition to win, always, no matter how bad things looked. The Tigerettes had a very young team this year, with little experience but, a lot of enthusiasm. They plan on being back next year, learning, and playing twice as hard. Watch Out!

Swinging With a Winning Season

In 1957, Coach Akins was the last coach who saw a district Basketball championship for Tidehaven. Thirty-one years later, history repeats itself with Jerry Haines as the coach. With a record of 23 wins and 6 losses, the year 1988 proved to be a very successful one for "Jerry's Kids." After defeating the Weimer Wildcats and the Florence Buffaloes; the Tigers made it to the Regional Tournament, only to be defeated by the San Antonio Cole Cougars. The Tigers and their fans both know they did the best they could and a little better. Next year the "Mighty Tigers" will be the "The Ones!"

Captains: Mike Magee and Shawn Hamer, Seniors.

Roaring Through the Jungle

The Tigerettes had a slow season this year for them and their new coach. Being a young team, they were met with some very tough opponents. There was a bright spot in their season which gave them the sweet taste of victory; by bringing home a first place trophy from the Austwell-Tivola Tournament. Even though the Tigerettes' season was not a very bright one, they showed a lot of potential by working very hard and never giving up. Their continued hard work and dedication brought them a victory on their last district game, making both the team and the fans very proud. The Tigerettes will be back next year. There will be no stopping them then.

J.V. Football

It has been two years since Tidehaven has had a Junior Varsity football team, due to the "no pass, no play" ruling. This year proved to be different, with new faces on the team and the coaching staff. Not only did the entire team come out on top as far as grades were concerned but, they also brought home first place in Junior Varsity, District 28-2AA competition, with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses. Good Luck!

J.V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity boys had a little trouble starting out the season, but as things progressed, they improved a great deal and things got better. For most of the boys, it was their first year to play high school basketball. Not knowing just how tough the competition was, they were not ready for what was ahead. They learned from their mistakes, and practiced to get better. They succeeded, leaving a record of 10 wins and 4 losses.

#32, Chris Grice, tips off our last game at the Regional Tournament against San Antonio Cole.

J.V. Volleyball

There were two separate teams this year in volleyball with the freshman as one team and the junior varsity as the other team. They were later combined after three girls were moved up to varsity. They were Stephanie Clements, Kristi Jackson, and Kellee Saha. The 1987-88 season ended with junior varsity's record as 4 wins and 9 losses, and freshman record as 3 wins and 4 losses. Good Luck next year.

After losing all but one of their games before district competition, the Junior Varsity girls came out and placed second in District 28-2AA competition. When the Tigerettes defeated their hardest opponent, East Bernard, making this East Bernard's only loss of the season, there was no holding the team back. Good Luck Next Year!

Annual Staff

This year, the Tidehaven Annual was completed at school. A course in journalism that included work on the annual and a monthly newspaper was very productive. For this class, the students received credit. We all worked hard and found this to be an interesting class to take. The completion of this annual, which is a result of our efforts under the direction of our teacher, Miss Huff, has been a most rewarding experience. The staff hopes that all who read it will enjoy the outcome of our endeavors.

Tiger's Tale

This year, the Tiger's Tale paper was written and printed during Journalism class. Journalism class also included work on the school yearbook and the students received a credit for the course. Some of the new things which the paper had for this year were student profiles and birthdays for each month. Also, the paper reported club news, sporting events and had a section for happy ads instead of a gossip column. The Tiger's Tale staff hopes that everyone enjoyed the monthly editions.

Future Homemakers of America

The FHA has been very active this year. Representatives attending the Region IV meeting at the Houston Hyatt Regency in January were Kim Hurta, Charlotte Kemp, and Melissa Kaczmarek.

The fundraiser for the year was selling and baking heart-shaped Valentine cookies. The members worked hard and sold over 500 cookies. They worked even harder when it came to having to bake all of those cookies!!

Dedication: Frances Rose

Mrs. Frances Rose was born in Bay City, Texas and attended public school there. She graduated from Bay City High School in 1958. After graduation, Mrs. Frances Rose attended Wharton Junior College for two years and received an associate of arts degree from that school. She finished college at Sam Houston State University. Her degree was in Business Administration with minors in English and Social Studies.

Mrs. Rose's teaching career began at Palacios High School. But, after getting married in 1965, Mrs. Rose continued her teaching at Tidehaven High School. She has enjoyed teaching the students here and has many wonderful memories. The Yearbook Staff would like to dedicate this Tiger Yearbook to Mrs. Rose. We would like to thank her for her guidance through teaching and for being able to put up with us through the years.

Our Journey's End

Our journey through the 1987-88 school year at Tidehaven has come to an end. We met some new friends, learned a lot of new things and had fun along the way.

Several highlights of the trip were Homecoming, Victory dances, and, of course, graduation. Another important event that we will always remember is when our varsity boys' basketball team went to Regionals. They were a great team supported all the way by a wonderful group of fans.

This particular journey also brought us the First Annual Jr.-Sr. Olympiad. The Juniors and Seniors fought a long, hard battle with the Juniors coming out on top; even though the Seniors did win the most important event of all - The Tug-of-War!!

The members of the Annual Staff hope that this year's "The Tiger" serves you as an adequate journal of friendships, memories, and great times, and, in the future, might take you on a journey of your own!!
