VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The varsity cheerleading squad worked really hard to pump up spirit in the student body this year. They started out their year by going to camp at Texas Lutheran College this summer.

Mrs. Ona Lea Pierce, the cheerleader's sponsor, made sure that they kept the halls decorated with lots of great posters during football season. They spent their time after school and during lunch making the posters and run-throughs.

Denise, our senior mascot made the pep rallies a lot more fun with her skits. She pumped up spirit with her bike pump, and tried to kill bugs with confetti spray. She made the spectators go crazy when she threw candy into the stands.

All of the other cheerleaders did good jobs with cheers and jumps. They added a lot of football and basketball games.

J.V. CHEERLEADERS

Although the junior varsity cheerleaders may not get as much recognition as the varsity squad, they definitely do their part to keep spirit alive at T.H.S. They are responsible for cheering at all of the J.V. boys' football and basketball games as well as the varsity girls' basketball games. They also have to do their share of the posters, and make run-throughs for their games. They also joined in with the varsity squad for the football playoff games.

Danger: Cheering causes crazy hair! Sarena, Becky, and Alia have a serious conversation. Becky and Cindy are enthusiastic. Reach for the sky!

The Junior Varsity boys need to be congratulated on a season well played. The boys practiced with the Varsity players; therefore they had tough competition long before the season started. The Junior Varsity season began with a 24 - 8 win over Palacios and ended the season by beating Van Vleck 19-6. They played seven outstanding games in between Palacios and Van Vleck. Offensively the young Tigers showed signs of big plays on a moments notice. Big plays were performed on numerous occasions one being going 80 yards in two plays in 8 seconds. The offensive end was led by Lance Feldhousen, Jason Glenwinkle, Jason Anderson and Jason Vacek. The future Tigers on the defensive end played superbly in keeping the other team out of the endzone this was led by Chad Hurta, Jeff Stewart, Eli King and Bart Young. Part of the future Tigers gained valuable experience during the bi-district, area and regional games.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

VOLLEYBALL 1990

Although the Tigerettes' 1990 volleyball season was very disappointing, it had its highlights. The Tigerettes worked hard and had fun this season. The Varsity was led by seniors Denise Lozano, Kelly Dees, Emma Reyes, Angie Partida, and Lisa Ramsey. Along with the seniors, the team had help from some underclassmen. All-district honors went to four members of the team: Lisa Ramsey, Theresa Reyes, Denise Lozano, and Kelly Dees.

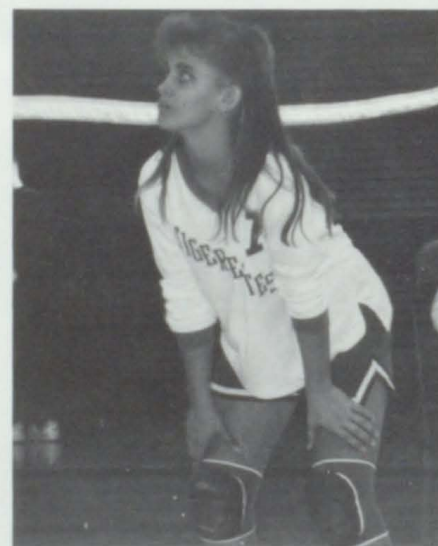

The Tigerettes can expect a good start next year with many returning players and young talent. The J.V. team did not finish much better than the Varsity, but they played just as hard. This team was led by many sophomores including Sarena Pierce, Lisa Warn, and Donica Shindler. The Tigerettes will continue their tracks to success just as determined next year. Good luck to all of you!

BASKETBALL - VARSITY

This year the Tiger's hooped to their fourth consecutive district championship. Included in the strong, sharp team were three seniors, seven juniors, and one sophomore; and of course we can't forget their great coaching done by Coach Jerry Haines. The Tigers were stopped at the bi-district game against Sommerville by a three-point shot at the buzzer. However, the Tigers proved that with hard work, determination, and team work, accomplishments can bring pride to the team and school they represent. Good Luck next year. Let's go for the Tiger's fifth district championship!

INTERMEDIATE FACULTY

Out of 6400 intermediate school campuses in Texas, our intermediate school was one of fewer than four hundred to be honored for exemplary performance. This honor was earned by having a percentage of our students master all of the objectives on the TEAMS test for the last three years and on October 17, Mr. Dusek, Mr. Dwight and Mr. Maupin traveled to Austin to receive a flag honoring the school's performance. The seventh and eighth grade students have had vocational courses added to the curriculum during the year. The students are bused to the high school each day for vocational classes in agriculture, industrial arts, and home ex. These classes are taught by Mr. Clontz, Mr. Webernick, Mr. McMillian and Miss Huff.

made of?"*

Are all of those people going to be watching us?

*"Okay kids, now touch your toes."
I don't understand any of this.*

SENIOR TRIP

Johnny Fortenberry becomes the travel guide after having lunch at Families Restaurant in Dallas. Rain soaked Cody, Beverly and Laura pose for the camera. Charlie Rodriguez asking Mrs. Griffith "Are we having fun yet?"

Look at the smiles . . . look at the bus . . . we're going to Dallas. Knights of the Round Table "pig out" at Luby's. John Garcia says "look guys a real bus with air." Beverly sleeps, Johnny shakes Cathy and David dreams . . . we went to Dallas.

GRADUATION

David says, "Lisa, what did you lose?" Angie is helping Kelly get dressed. Look out world! Daniel and David are about to graduate! How sweet! Scotty gets a kiss from her mother. Salutatorian (Beverly), Third in the class (Cody), and Valedictorian (Laura) line up to be assisted with their gowns by Mrs. Maupin. I is a high school "graduate!"

AND IN CONCLUSION . . .

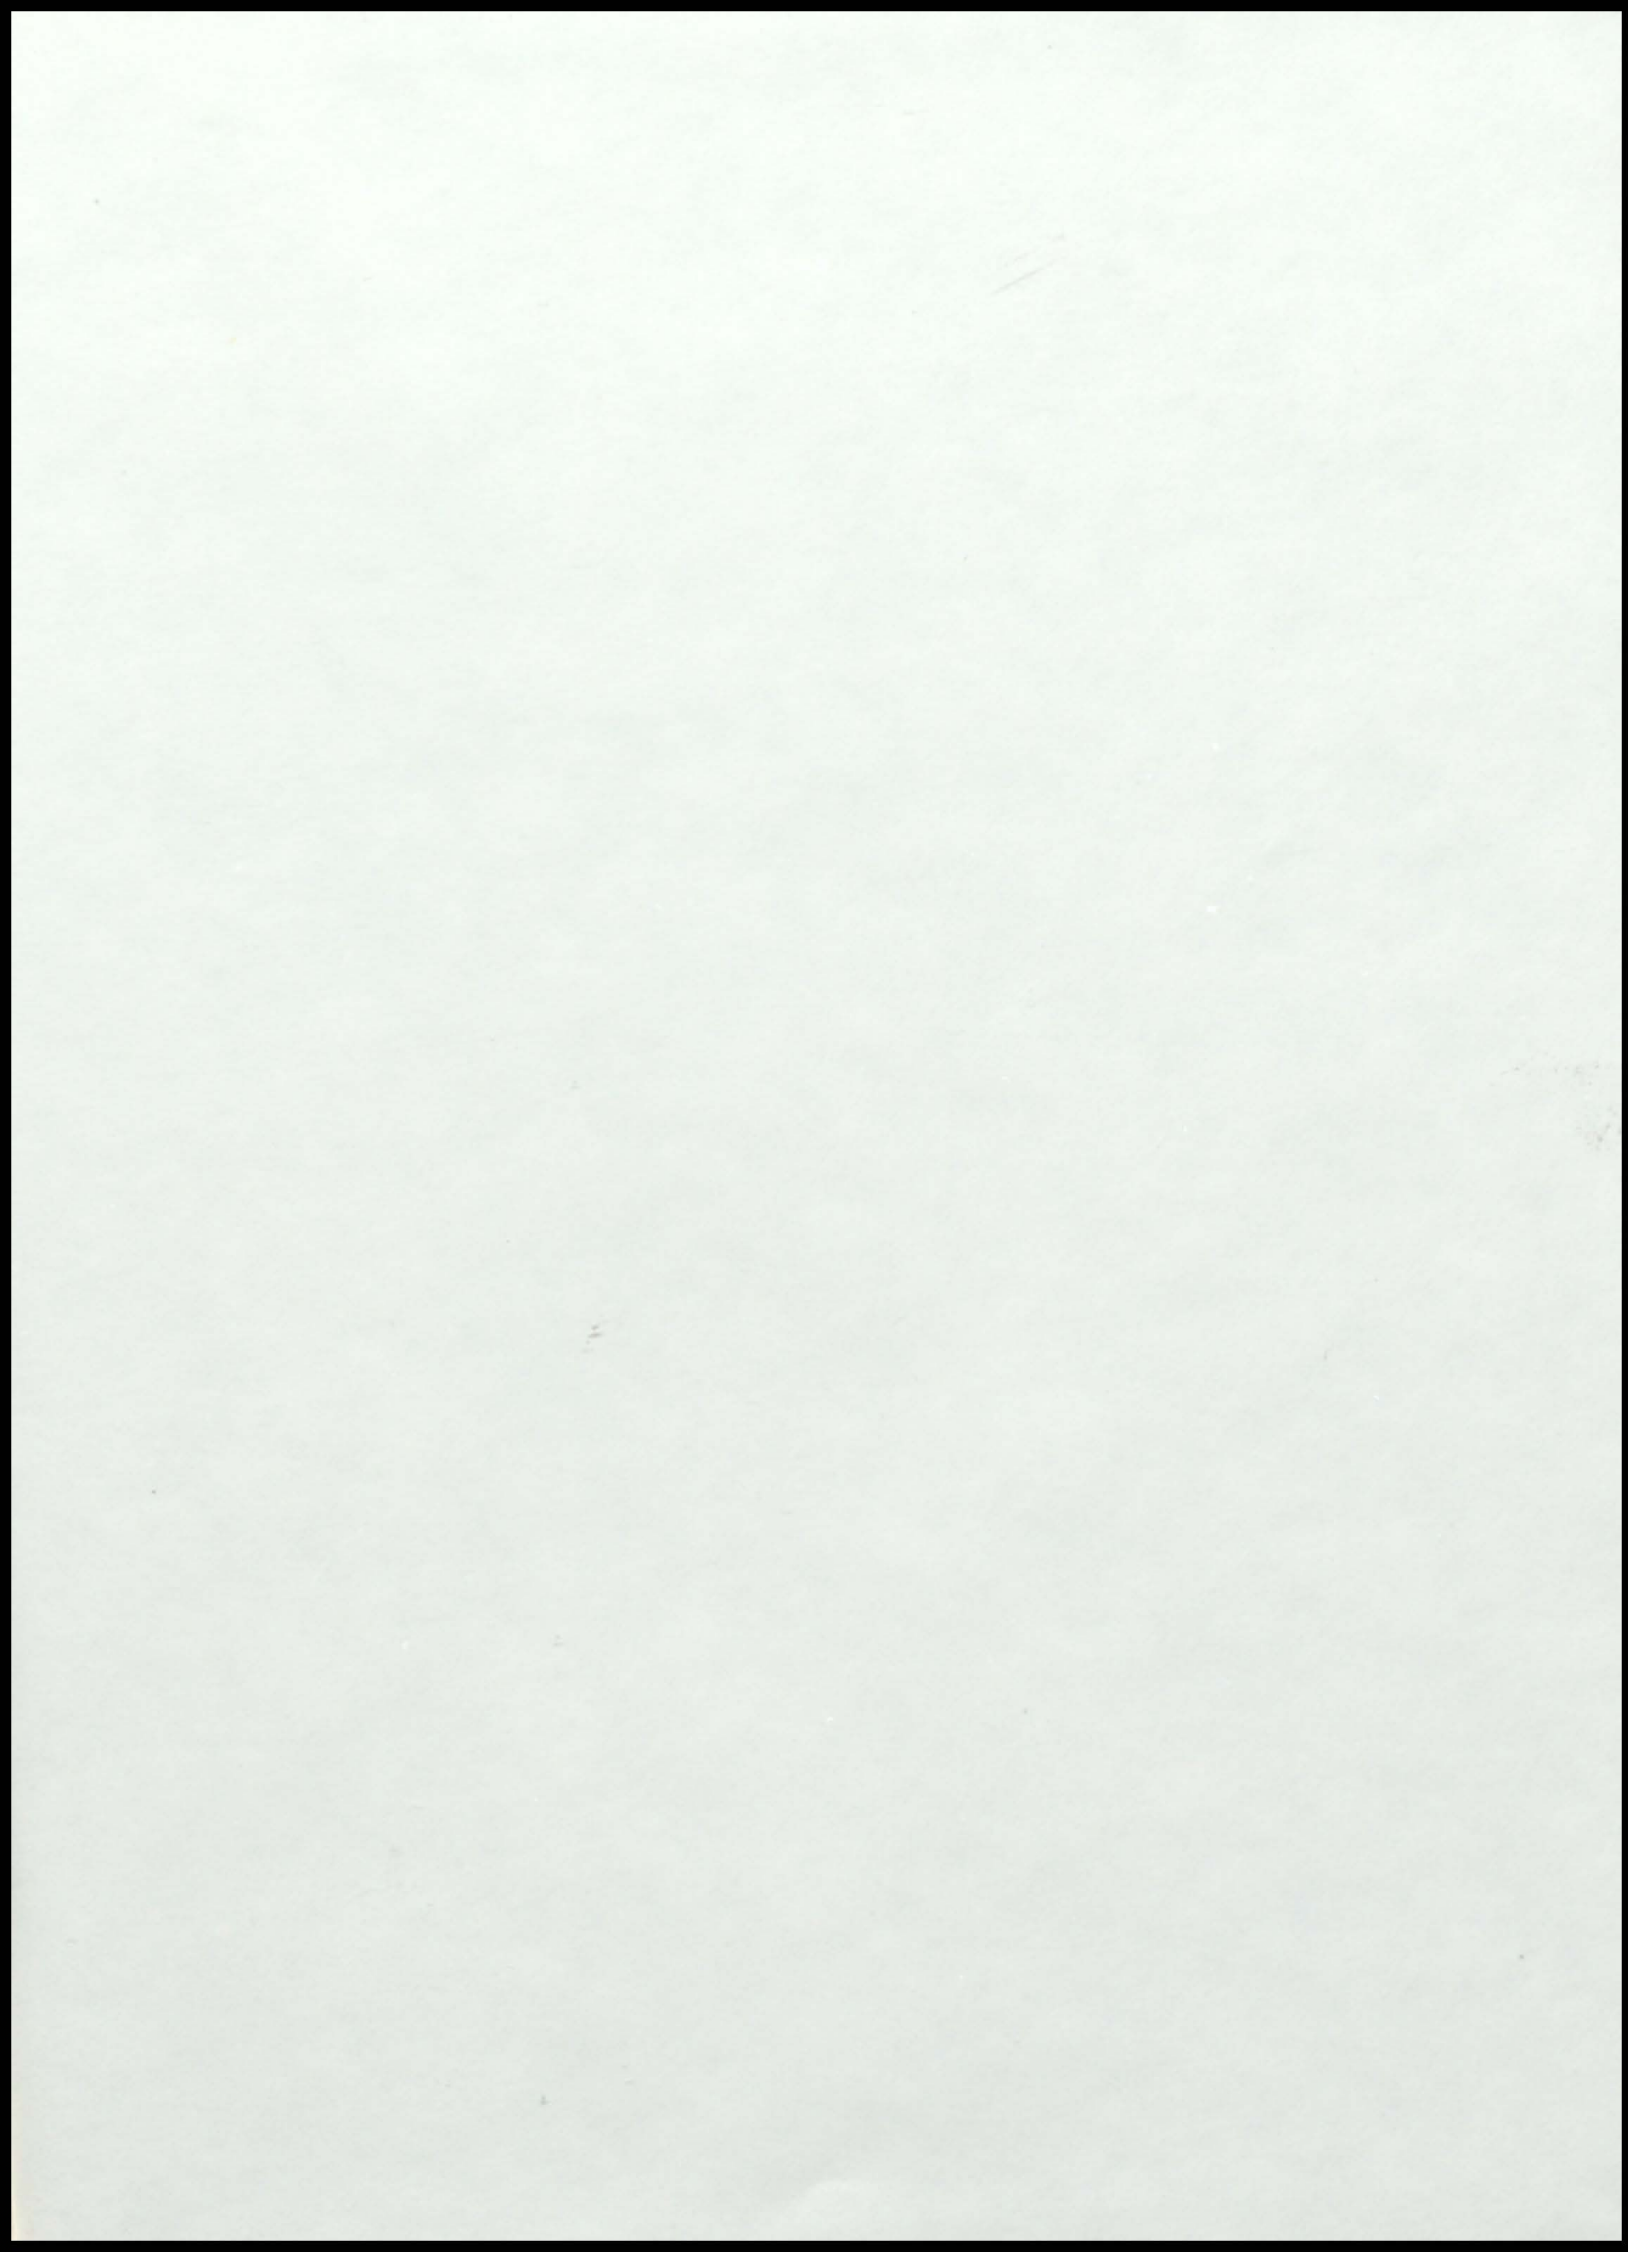

When we started working on this yearbook at the end of summer last year, we all wanted to come up with a theme that clearly expressed the way that we felt about the upcoming year. The result of our search was "On Sentiments Exactly." We felt that this theme would allow us to express our thoughts and ideas pretty much any way we wanted to. The previous 143 pages are the result of this effort.

Hopefully, we did not offend anyone with our clever captions, but if we did, please do not take it personally. We were only kidding. We would like to thank all of the photogenic people who participated in our project. We hope you enjoyed reading it.

AND IN CONCLUSION . . .

When we started working on this yearbook at the end of summer last year, we all wanted to come up with a theme that clearly expressed the way that we felt about the upcoming year. The result of our search was "Sentiments Exposed." We felt that this theme would allow us to express our thoughts and ideas pretty much any way we wanted to. The previous 111 pages are the result of this effort.

Hopefully, we did not offend anyone with our views or opinions, but if we did, please do not take it personally. We were only kidding. We would like to thank all of the anonymous people who participated in our yearbook. We hope you enjoyed reading it.
