FOREWORD

It is the sincere desire of the Staff to present to you in this annual a fair and accurate picture of the 1952-53 school year in Van Vleck School. We have earnestly endeavored to do this. We know that this book is not perfect, but we hope that you will overlook its many faults, and that in the years to come it will bring back to you many happy memories of the year just ended.

Sincerely,

THE STAFF

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

I congratulate the students and their sponsor of the Van Vleck High School on the completion of this year's annual. The spirit of co-operation and loyalty which you have shown here is characteristic of the entire school. I commend you for it.

The same spirit of determination and work will win for you not only a place among your fellow students and teachers, but in later life as well. I am counting on each of you.

J. D. Wallace
Superintendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

A school annual is a very worthy activity. Through the co-operation of students, teachers, and business people, a record is made of the present that serves a useful purpose in the future. Congratulations!

ISLE OF GOLDEN DREAMS
(Senior Prophecy)

Oh, dear, am I exhausted! I've just gotten back from one of those fabulous parties given by Dr. Wilson's pretty socialite wife, the former Thelma Sirmon. If you follow the society columns, you already know the extent of her popularity and how fabulously she entertains. Let me tell you all about it. All the bigwigs were there. The first person that I saw there was none other than Rice's famous football coach, Clyde Ashcraft. You remember he was an "All American Quarterback" back in 1957. I can never get over those broad shoulders and that gray hair of his! Chatting with him was the famous chef of the Waldorf-Astoria, Esterlene Hilscher. Her specialty is combining odd combinations for salads. Why, you just haven't lived until you've eaten one of her concoctions!

Yes, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were there. You know, Margaret Thornton Stevens, the interior decorator. Her husband manufactures false teeth. I've heard it told that her mink is worth 2.5 million, and tonight I found out that it really is. See, Joel Garcia, owner and raiser of minks was also at the party, and I asked him whether or not it was of such value. Mr. Garcia produces the most sought after minks on the continent.

While I was sitting in the drawing room, I noticed this man very rapidly viewing one of Thelma's paintings. Of course, I walked over to see which picture had found his favor. It was an original by none other than Milton de Vinci Joice. Since Thelma is an old friend of the

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF GRADUATING CLASS OF 1952-'1953

We, the Senior Class, of the School of Van Vleck, County of Matagorda, State of Texas, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by us at any time heretofore made.

FIRST: I, Aleatha Burford, give and bequeath unto Delores Poole the ability to get married before becoming a Senior.

SECOND: I, Irma Joyce Patterson, give and bequeath unto Peggy Allen my ability to get an engagement ring before getting a diploma.

THIRD: I, Thelma Jean Sirmon, give and bequeath unto Raedona Landry my sprained fingers and bruises I always get at twirling school.

FOURTH: I, Charlie Miller, give and bequeath unto Kenneth Weldon my ability to learn MACBETH.

FIFTH: I, Richard Urban, give and bequeath to Philip Hargett my height and ability to play basketball.

SIXTH: I, Harry Mallard, give and bequeath to Philip Hargett, my way with the girls.

SEVENTH: I, Joel Garcia, give and bequeath to Gene Barnard my height.

EIGHTH: I, Esterlene Hilscher, give and bequeath my giggling to Florence Hanna.

NINTH: I, Milton Joice, give and bequeath my ability to drive slowly and carefully to Bobby Collins.

TENTH: I, Loraine Popek, give and bequeath my bookkeeping book and my ability to play volleyball to Martha Chambers.

ELEVENTH: I, Shirley Anne Bell, give and bequeath unto Billie Jo Fondon my shorthand book and my ability to go to West Columbia and stay all day and not get caught.

TWELFTH: I, Paul Weldon, give and bequeath my ability to get my lessons on time unto Albert Dodd.

THIRTEENTH: I, Margaret Thornton, give and bequeath my chatter and ability never to miss a day of school to Shirley Clements.

FOURTEENTH: I, Jesse Burford, give and bequeath my ability to get a marriage license before a diploma to Wesley Hanna.

FIFTEENTH: I, Clyde Ashcraft, give and bequeath to Peggy Allen the memory of Charlie Miller.

SIXTEENTH: We hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint our said principal, Mr. L. L. McDougald, to be executor of this, our Last Will and Testament, and we hereby direct that he shall not be required to furnish bond for the faithful performance of his duties as such executor in any jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and seal this second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

artist, she was given this eight billion dollar painting as a birthday gift. Mr. Joice would have been at the party had he not been in Italy painting Italian sunsets.

The gentleman admiring the painting was the eminent lawyer, Charles Miller. He always could out argue his teachers in high school.

My, I just wish you could have seen the gown Aleatha Burford wore. It was one of her own designs and was simply divine. But, naturally, someone with an international reputation for stunning dress designs would be dressed so. I met her husband for the first time, and he told me how he started from being a worker in a grocery store in Cedar Lane, that industrial metropolis of the South, and now owns the huge chain of P and Q Food Stores located in all of our seventy-two states. With Mr. and Mrs. Burford were Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Hanna. The Hannas have six of the cutest redheaded daughters. I listen to Irma Joyce's TV program entitled, "And Then I Said," every week. She has talked her way to fame and success.

And was I ever pleased to meet this year's Nobel Prize winner, Shirley Bell. Her last book, MY FIFTH HUSBAND, JOHN, was simply superb. I don't know how she does it, but that woman always manages to marry the cutest and youngest husbands.

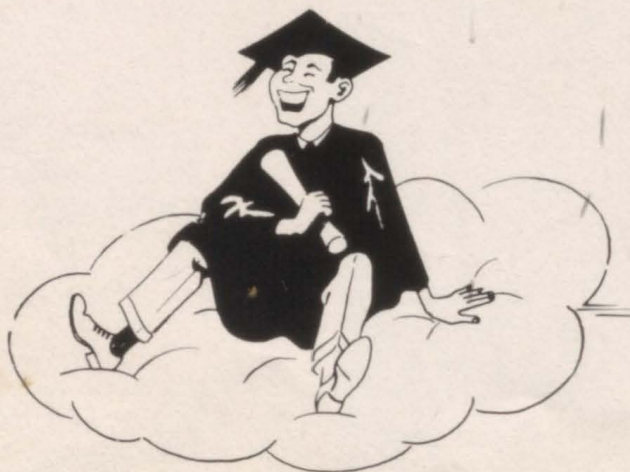

Speaking of important people, World War V's most decorated space cadet, Paul Weldon, was there. I was so disappointed because he had to leave early. Seems he has a luncheon date on the moon tomorrow.

Now check this! I actually danced with Richard Urban. Yes, THE Richard Urban, wealthy rancher and cattleman. Dick first caught the public's eye with his magnificent basketball playing at Leopard University. Dick also broke the National Olympic record in the discus throw while he was in college. I believe he majored in Campusology and in Physical Education.

Dr. Harry Mallard, founder of Leopard University, was unable to attend the party. His wife--Marilyn Monroe, the one time movie queen--had a cold, and he, being a loving husband, stayed home and entertained her with his brilliant piccolo playing. He certainly made a wise decision when he switched from French horn to piccolo. His piccolo recitals have made the music department one of the most outstanding in the nation.

Speaking of Marilyn reminds me--Lorraine and Fritz Neizer were there. Weren't they just wonderful in their last movie, "Everything I Have Is Yours", but it is too bad they pushed the champs out of business. I understand that they send Marge and Gower a pension each month.

Well, dears, you won't mind if I run, but such direct associations with these above mentioned celebrities has just worn me to a frazzle.
