THE BLACK CAT

1939

FOREWORD

Our high school years are slipping past,
As school days always do;
So we seniors, in leaving, present our torch,
Dear underclassmen, to you.

We haven't been model students;
We can't boast a prodigy;
But we've liked it here and hate to leave,
And we dread our last school day.

But just as long as this annual endures,
Our pictures are here to remember;
It's all you'll have to remind you of us,
For we won't be back next September.

These are the only last words we'll say,
Phrased in a dignified style:
"Your life is a haphazard game of chance;
Play it straight and make it worthwhile."
M.C.

SANSING

Coach Driscoll's Black Cats placed five men on the All-District Selection this year and undoubtedly would have placed a sixth, Keith Curtis, had he not been injured in an early season game. Herbert McDonald made the All-District Selection for the third consecutive year and also received the Crofoot Award as the most valuable player on the team.

COACH MYERS

The others selected for All-District were Sidney Creech, Virgal Sansing, James Hite, and Lawrence Shaffer.

The Black Cats had a very successful season, winning nine out of eleven games. The success of the year is largely attributed to the excellent coaching of Tom Driscoll and his assistant, Mr. Myers.

BASKETBALL

The Bay City Black Cats completed a fairly good basketball season; and, although their victories did not rank them first, they are certainly to be commended on clean sportsmanship, and loyalty. The season's lettermen included William Ryman, Kenneth Etie, Jr. Goodall, Lawrence Shaffer, Virgal Sansing, Harry Fowle, and Gene Lawhon.

MISS RICHESON

The Bay City Volleyball team began practice early in the season with unusual interest and enthusiasm and had a fairly successful season. Thirty girls reported for the first practice and fourteen finished the season. Out of the season's playing, seven games were won and nine lost. The girls are to be commended on their sportsmanship, their loyalty, and their cooperation as a team.

KAG-PX!!!

Pete Harrison—Oscar dances like a Chinese opium den.
 Mabel Chapman—How's that?
 Pete Harrison—Full of hops.

First sea—Been on a hike?
 Second sea—No, on a tramp.

J. D. (suggestively)—That roast duck in the window makes my mouth water.
 Jr.—Then spit.

George Y.—You shouldn't laugh over a man's misfortune.
 Charles Z.—Is that why so many people cry at weddings?

Mildred W.—Did you have a good time last night?
 Anna Merle D.—Rather! When I went out I had 26 hairpins, and when I got back—I didn't have one left.

Mrs. Wynne received the following excuse from Buddy Crow's mother: "Please excuse Buddy's absence for the last two days; he caught a skunk!"

Gayanell Green (pessimistically)—I wish God had made me a man.
 Ann Cobb (optimistically)—Maybe he has, but you haven't found him yet.

IF I HAD:

Nose—Vadalyne Robbins.
 Eyebrows—Fay Smith.
 Eyes—Lashes—Mary Alice Osborne.
 Hair—Sarah Kogutt.
 Mouth—Mabel Chapman.
 Teeth—Nora White.
 Smile—Marge Mae Brown.
 Complexion—Ann Valak.
 Then I'd be the "Belle of the Ball."

BUT IF I HAD:

Nose—Joe Lawhon.
 Mouth—Billy Norton.
 Hair—Stacey Harrison.
 Physique—Billy Arlitt.
 Feet—Buster McDonald.
 Eyes—E. C. Dudley.
 Voice—George Ratliff.
 Walk—Charles Zeigenbals.
 Ears—Gene Lawhon.
 Then I'd leave town!

IMAGINE—

Miss Cooke not talking "baby talk."
 Noriene Davis with a big mouth.
 Louise Baker not being able to "write."
 Vic Driscoll with a smile!
 Helen Glenn not "rolling her hair."
 Fay Smith going "steady" with James Hite.
 Louise Amos without her "frohorn."
 Dena Cates with a figure like Mary Louise Huebner.
 Nora White—Out of gum!

Mrs. Early (moralizing)—This is the age of specialties. Is there anything you can do better than anyone else in the world?

Herman Denn—Yes, mam, I can read my own writing.

Mr. Balusek—Is there anything worse than to be old and bent?

Frank Osborne—Yes, to be young and broke!

"Red"—You're not afraid of snakes, are you?
 Mabel—No, dear, I feel perfectly safe with you.

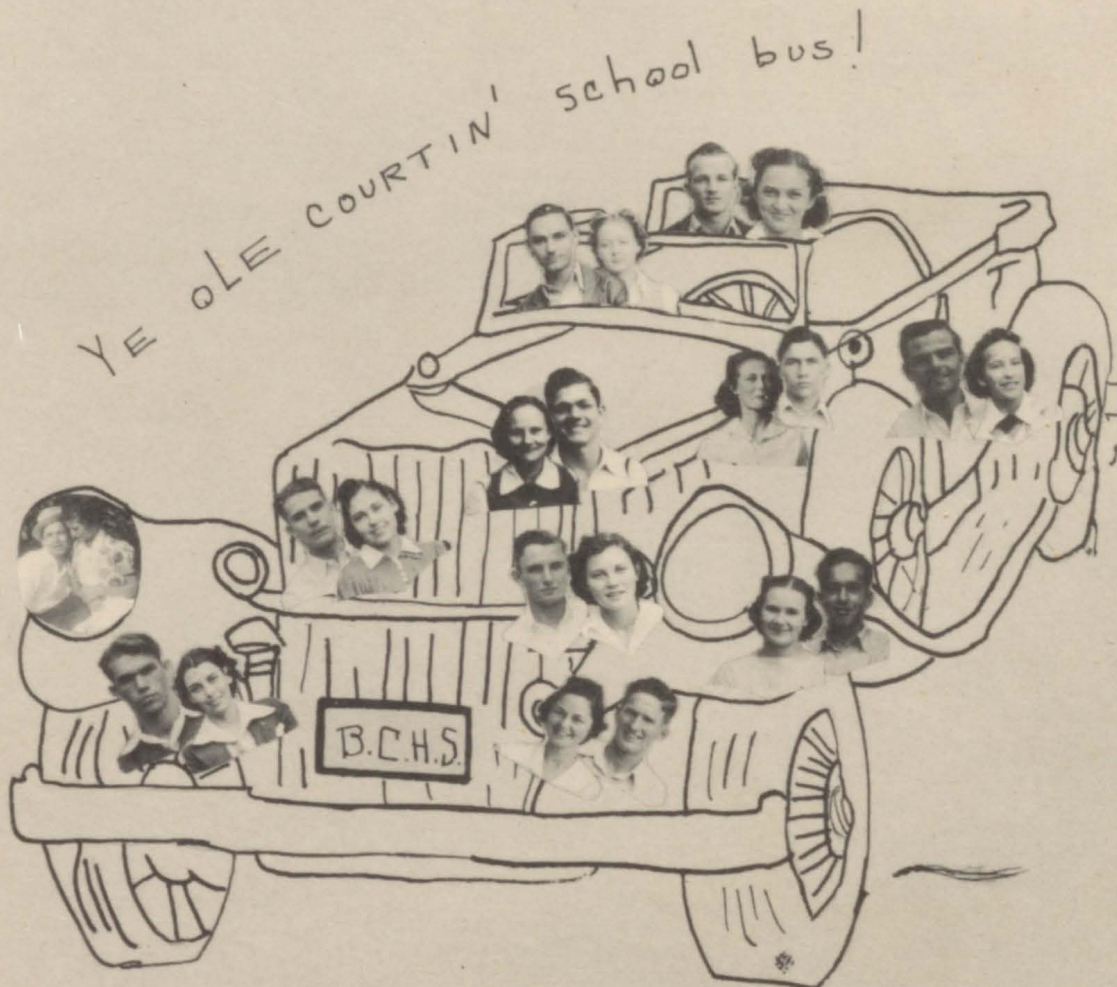

Helen Marie—What are you thinking about?
 Buster—How did you know I was thinking?

Helen Marie—I saw an unusual expression on your face.

John Dickerson—Why the dickens do you assign such long lessons?

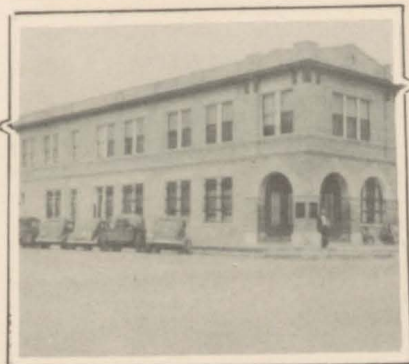

Mr. Brandon—Well, aren't you here for a liberal education?

"This isn't what it's cracked up to be," said the very dumb waiter as he put the ice cream salt in the salt shaker.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

- JACK DUFFY and JR. GOODALL—their dramatic roles to Robert Taylor.
- IDA EASTMAN—her reducing exercises to Neriene Garner.
- JAMES HITE—private lessons on "How to Remain a Bachelor" to Charles Kling.
- EDWARD HUDSON—his study hall "funny papers" to Lawrence Tippen and Pete Hale.
- BILLY NORTON—laughs, grins, and giggles of all sorts to Jimmie Morrow.
- MARION PARKS—her baton with compliments to Vann Shaw Taylor.
- VIVIAN HARRISON—her mop of red hair to Mr. Balusek; he may need it some day.
- VIVIAN READY—her pleasant disposition to Shirley McPeak before it is too late.
- GEORGE YEAGER—his keys to "alma mater" to Joe Allford.
- BELVA MINTON—to Joan Horn—her mastered individuality in originating new coiffures.
- ZADIE LOU DICKEY—her dignity and quiet reserve to be divided equally between Nancy Duffy and Bobby Porter.
- ALVIN JOHNSON—free lessons in newest technique of love making to Charles Schaedel that he may conquer the hand of "the fair Shelly."
- PAUL ENGLE—all his extra "A's" to Waylon Rice.
- AUDREY DIETRICH—her spirit of bubbling enthusiasm to Kathleen Burke that she may keep her school girl appearance.
- WOODY BOND—to the world's newest lover, Charles Dickey, he offers his good looks and soothing voice.
- SID CREECH—to Lawrence Shaffer his bouncing stride to help him play a better game of tennis.
- BUSTER McDONALD—his reputation of being the mightiest man on the campus to John Byrd, hoping that he, too, will rate the All District Team.
- MORTON CURTIS and EVERETT BRANDSTETTER—their loquacious manner of arguing to Milton Greenberg, that he may manage to talk some teacher out of an "A" during his Senior year.
- WINONA, VADALYNN, and JULIA MARIE—their four successful years of high school friendship and "kiddish" fun to Ann Cobb, Dorothy Davis, and Dorothy Thompson.
- RED HARRISON—his pleasing personality to "kid brother Frankie."
- FAY SMITH—her Virgal to the highest bidder for a football Captain.
- CHARLES ZIEGENHALS—his freshmen Class interests to William Ryman and Joe Lawhon.
- KEITH CURTISS—to Kenneth Etie his assumption that he can kick goals thru girl's hearts as well as he can on the football field.
- MILDRED WALKER—her New Gulf boy friends to Louise Deerman.
- OSCAR ROTH—his Harrison interests to Robert Byrd so that his efforts may not have been entirely in vain.
- SARAH KOGUTT, MARGARET DENN, and FRANCIS CARROLL—their skill in shorthand to Lawrence and Mary Nell in order that their notes will not be readable to teachers.
- HELEN GLENN—her medal as an excellent speaker to her well deserving successor, Allie Joy Adams.
- CONSUELO BANADA, GENIEVE OLVERA, and FELIPA OLVERA—their gift of "golden silence" to a certain group of five girls whose tongues never cease.
- MABEL CHAPMAN—her beauty, brawn, and brains to "kid brother Frankie's" secret girl friend.
- ROSALIA HARKIN—her inexplicable ability to make high grades to Herman Denn.
- JIMMIE HORN—his aptitude at being a good manager to Tony Carr.
- MARGY BROWN—an ever-ready smile to Hazel Brumley.
- STACY HARRISON—his technique in somehow obtaining a passing grade to Albert Cecil in order that he may make the football team next year.
- LOIS CALLOWAY—exhibitions in graceful skating to Hannah Shearer.
- MARY FRANK CARR—her ability to lead in all of her activities to Susie Winston, Billy Jean Boney, and Marion Bruce.
- WINKIE CROW—her artistic talents to next year's art editor for the Black Cat.
- MONTE DACKE—Boling interests to Louise Baker.
- BERNICE DAGNER—her "cackle" over a joke to Cleo Garner.
- NORINE DAVIS—her domestic abilities to Sophie, the Little Sis.
- CLARA DOSS—her blonde curls to Joe Harris—he needs a contrast.
- DOROTHY DOSS—her sincerity to next year's Senior class.
- JOHN DICKERSON—his carefree attitude of "getting along" to someone who needs a bit of sunshine in his soul.
- E. C. DUDLEY—his energy, pep, and muscle with good grades thrown in to George Ratliff.
- VERNA PICKEL—her cultured dignity to Gaynelle Green.
- ALICE RODGERS—her popularity among students and teachers to Aubin Cox.
- CLEATIS RYMAN and ALEX LYLE—their living examples of success without "gab" to Gerald Moore.
- GERTRUDE RYMAN—A very submissive disposition to Louise Amos.
- DONALD SAILOR—his position as "photographer" for next year's annual to anybody who will take it.
- J. D. SUTHERLAND—his ability to take a joke to Bobby Baker.
- VALLIE SWINFORD—her everlasting flow of jokes to Francis Davis.
- HARVEY WHEELER—the her right hand to Bay City High School's most adept scientist for laboratory use.
- ALICE WHITE—his ability to get by with as much sleep as possible in Joe Harris' Physics class to Buddy Crow.
- HELEN MARIE SWEENEY—her adhesive power to hold to Sally Penny.
- MILDRED THOMPSON—her monopoly on a seat near the window to Dena Cates.
- MARY ALICE OSBORNE—eyes that give a "liquid languid look from under long lashes" to Sammie Finch.
