FOREWORD

One day in the distant future when you are rummaging about among old books and papers, The 1942 Black Cat will appear before you. After brushing away the dust that has accumulated, you will glance once more over its pages, we hope, to smile over the whimsical gaiety that has made this year different from all others. . . a gaiety which you have managed to maintain in a world where laughter is no longer the order of things . . . a gaiety which we have attempted to record faithfully by word and by picture.

At struttin' she's best,
 At twirling' she tops all the rest.
 So hats off to Joan
 As she leads our grand band!

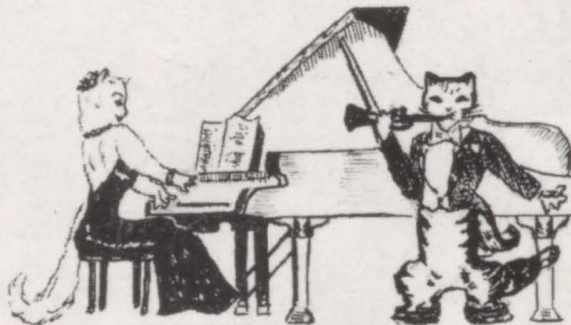

Pint's quite a guy,
 And so is Mac—
 That they're really strong
 Is an outstanding fact.

She renders a racket,
 The piano—she whacks it.
 Her name is Betty Jean;
 The way she plays is keen

Hadden's the brains of the notorious gang
 That keeps Mr. Mac in a stew;
 For lessons and girls he doesn't give a hang,
 But he's fond of Matagorda brew!

Ann's queen of beauty;
 Buddy's king of our class.
 So let's have a duet
 From this swell laddie and lass.

Dorothy brings us fame
 As she cheers the game;
 With Joe after the ball,
 She puts her heart into the call.

Frank is a guy with a subtle wit,
 And the girls don't bother him much.
 He laughs all day 'til his sides
 would split,
 And likes to bother Mr. Hutch.

Yea, Back Cats!
 Fight fight fight

This slap-happy gal
 Whose name is Gaynelle—
 Is sunny, clever, and loud,
 And brings cheer to any old crowd.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of the Bay City High School of the county of Matagorda and State of Texas, being in good health, and of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by us at any time heretofore made.

- First. I, Edward Reynal, do hereby bequeath my mathematical ability to Joe Alford
- Second. We, Mary Elizabeth Rice and Annie Dora Nolan, do direct that our dignity as seniors be somehow absorbed by Donald Reddoch and Randolph Cox.
- Third. We, Hazel Richardson and Gloria Mae Schmerber, give our ability to know where to be and what to say at the right times to Orville Cooper and Carter Jones.
- Fourth. I, Hannah Shearer, leave my "Long Shots" to Yvonne Holbrook.
- Fifth. We, the Svetlik Brothers, leave our Freshmen interests to Norman Barkley and Brooks Doughtie.
- Sixth. I, Betty Jean Thompson, desire and direct that my position as Editor of the Black Cat be given to Elleen Hite.
- Seventh. I, Dorothy Thompson, appoint Dorothy Cartwright to succeed me in writing clever and original chapel programs.
- Eighth. I, Lorance Tolbert Jr., do willingly give my "grease-monkey" ability to Dickey Carter.
- Ninth. I, Allan Tyler Jr., do here openly suggest that my methods of proper ushering in the theatre be followed by Jimmy Humphries.
- Tenth. I, Edna Harry, offer my advice on neat and appropriate hair styling to George Anna Barnett.
- Eleventh. I, Louise Wise, leave my daily letters to Bernadette Haines.
- Twelfth. I, Clyde Ryman, bestow upon Otto Richers my "popcorn" industry.
- Thirteenth. We, E. C. Krauskopf and Lawrence Tippin, leave our store of interest and knowledge in Solid Geometry and Trigonometry to Milton Jarrell and Jack Huebner.
- Fourteenth. We, Rose Marie Plant and Mary Wood, bequeath our pleasant dispositions to Royce Deutsch and Bill Doughtie.
- Fifteenth. I, Easter Acosta, leave my "Ever presence" at school to Mavis Williams.
- Sixteenth. We, Dorothy Anderson and Geneva Elkenberg, do direct that our ability to keep quiet and like it be administered to Alice Weeks.
- Seventeenth. I, Bobby Baker, offer my free advice on how to have "Well-Kept Hair" to Vance Porter.
- Eighteenth. We, November Banyansco and Ellanora Bell, suggest that our technique in catching the Matagorda bus be taught to Doris Ainsworth and Flo Ray Anderson.
- Nineteenth. We, Norene Batten and Betty Lou O'Neal, will our acting ability as exemplified in the Senior Play to Hazel Summers and Katherine Tarkington.
- Twentieth. I, Wilma Jean Mixon, Crash !!! Give my ability to drive safely to Billie Marie Gordon.
- Twenty-first. I, Donald Bickham, appoint Melvin Epstein as director of my "Soda Jerking."
- Twenty-second. We, Eugene Brown and Fulton Dye, bequeath our knowledge of how to stay out of trouble to Sidney Denn and Jean Taylor.
- Twenty-third. I, Albert Brown, pass on to Frank Swinford my ever-ready answers in English IV.
- Twenty-fourth. I, Kathleen Burke, leave all my A & M admirers to —————HEY!! Wait a minute. I'm going to keep them myself.
- Twenty-fifth. I, Vernice Burkett, bestow upon (Censored) my virtue of sincerity.
- Twenty-sixth. We, Aileen Bussell, Nina Merle Byars, Vera Helen Clements, and Ola Ann Dierlam, desire that our four years of fun, friendship, and fine grades be given to Cleo Bond, Martha Dickey, Anna Lee Verser, and Cleo Blaylock.
- Twenty-seventh. I, John Byrd, leave my "Bonds" to R. J. Nini.
- Twenty-eighth. I, Nelson Carroll, leave my honor as "Best all Around Boy" to Garland Wise.
- Twenty-ninth. We, Alyne Clements, Jean Ratliff, Verna Lee Estill, and Christine Weldon, will our popularity in Bay City High School to our Cedar Lane followers.
- Thirtieth. I, Ann Cobb, nominate Betty Gene Smith as the "Queen of Beauty" her senior year.
- Thirty-first. I, Buddy Crow, bequeath my first cornet chair in the Band to Floyd Franz.
- Thirty-second. I, Bobby Curtis, will my position as manager of the football squad to Earl Johnson.
- Thirty-third. I, Haden Dietrich, leave my envious personality to Bill Montague.
- Thirty-fourth. I, Dorothy Davis, give my Second Clarinet chair to Betty Lane.
- Thirty-fifth. We, Mickey Engle and Glenn Hallett, leave our constant patronage to the Gables to Otha and Otis Birkner.
- Thirty-sixth. I, Jack Fields, bequeath my hep & jive on the saxophone to Wayman Bussell.
- Thirty-seventh. We, Sammie Finch and Mary Neal Keener, leave our efficiency and poise to the Solis Sisters.
- Thirty-eighth. I, Gaynelle Greene, offer suggestions on "How I Held My Man For Four Years" to Jessie Lee Walker.
- Thirty-ninth. We, Richard Grisham and Kenneth Hite, leave our scholastic standings to Robert Culver and Marion Gentry.
- Fortieth. I, Joan Horn, Nominate Joanne Greene as Drum Major in my place.
- Forty-first. We, Mac Johnson and Joe Birkner, leave our "Head-Up" football and true love of the game to the squad of '42.
- Forty-second. We, Gladys Joice and Lillie Ann Skuca, bequeath our humorous current events in History to Manuel Denn and Mickey Le Compte.
- Forty-third. We, Annie Mae Kain and Catherine Rice, will our artistic ability to Della Horton and Joyce Bunk
- Forty-fourth. We, Hattie Lee and Ida Mae LeTulle, do so desire that our four years of fun be repeated by the "Little LeTulles", Juanita and Louie.
- Forty-fifth. We, Marie Lowe and Mary Lukefahr, give our attention in the pep squad to Lore Ray Marquer.
- Forty-sixth. We, Lois Miller and Edna Nelle Rude, leave our stellar "setup" technique in Volleyball to Gloria and Jayne Smith.
- Forty-seventh. I, Hazel Mangum, will my ability to "Beat it out" on the Timpani Drums to Doris Gest.
- Forty-eighth. I, Alice Milner, give my Baritone Solo in the Band to Doris Hill.
- Forty-ninth. I, Jimmy Morrow, bestow upon Leo Magoldi a set of well-kept books in Bookkeeping.
- Fiftieth. I, Gordon Lee Shaffer, leave my many girl friends to the highest bidder, Harry Norris.
- Fifty-first. I, Jewel Wright, make myself a business like example for Virginia Mosley.
- Fifty-second. We, Kitty Lou Henderson and Bessie Lou Wooley will our ability to spell simple words to Jack (need it most) White and Gardner (Can't spell cat) Serrill.
- Fifty-third. We, Pete Hale and Frank Harrison, leave our determination to do this year what we should have done two years ago to any in the Sophomore Class who need it.
- Fifty-fourth. We, Charles Jolley and William Sifford, set an example of friendship, loyalty, and diligence for the undergraduates of B. C. H. S.
- Fifty-fifth. We, A. J. Ehlert, Frank Osborne, and Herbert Griswood, wish to share our love of our country with all patriotic students in B. C. H. S.
- The foregoing instrument, wholly written by our selves, we make and publish, hereunto subscribing our names this 1st day of May, A. D. 1942.
