DEDICATION

With a feeling of deep appreciation for a worthwhile contribution to our school, we dedicate this Annual to the BLACK CAT BAND and its able director,
JAMES I. BARRON

F O R E W O R D

It has been the sincere purpose of the Annual Staff to present as accurately as possible the activities and interests of the student body of Bay City High School of 1947.

We are convinced that as our school differs from that of yesterday, so tomorrow will bring new interests and activities; but some values are enduring. It is with this conviction that we present this composition of familiar notes of high school days. Someday, as you finger through the dusty pages of this annual, may you again catch the spirit of 1947 as pleasant memories keep returning to your thoughts like the strains of some long forgotten song.

Sentimental Swingsters

The Sentimental Swingsters is a new organization. It is further evidence of an increased musical interest in our school. As the larger school orchestra is aware of the appreciation for classical music, so is this small group alert to the demand for popular music.

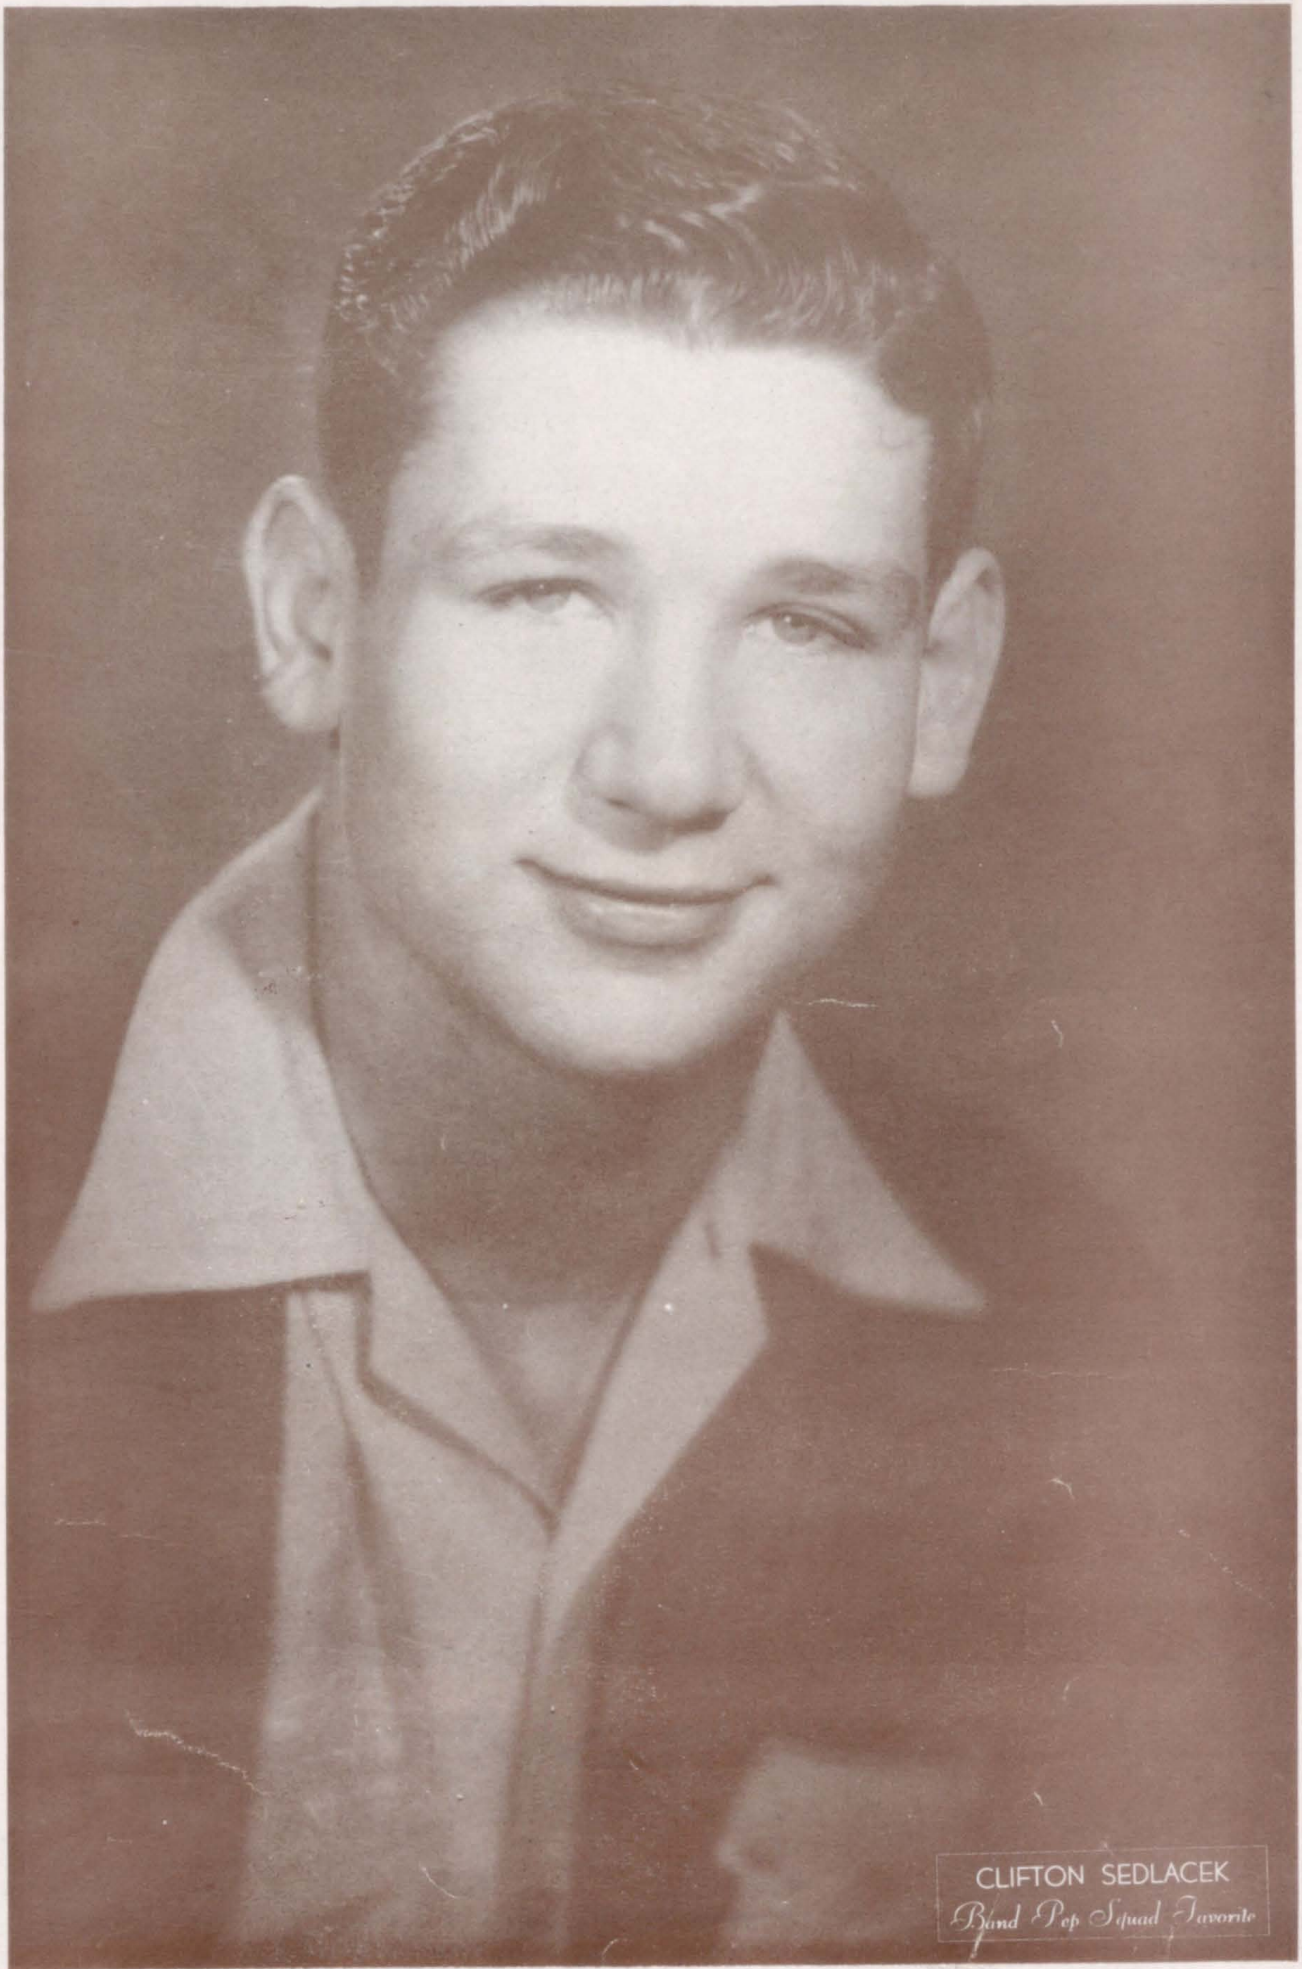

The sustained effort put forth by those who compose this group, and the enthusiastic reception given them on their several appearances, is evidence that this organization will grow in future years.

Class Will

AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1947, being of questionable body and more questionable mind, do hereby designate the wishes of the following seniors to these recipients:

To the faculty we hereby bequeath our utmost thanks for their noble attempts to mold our lives to a higher scholastic level, a remarkable attempt, considering the material with which they had to work.

- I, Anna Sue Chapman, will my childish giggles to Mary Ragsdale.
I, Bob Morris, will to Jimmie Marshall my vitamin pills that I neglected to take.
I, Dick Harris, will my ardent, everlasting, amorous affection for "Coach" to J. B. Hamilton.
I, Frank White, will the ipana of my smile to the 6 inch grin of Travis Harrison.
Sorrowfully I, Billie Jo Clark, leave Je Coffe.
We, Raymond Glenn, Lawrence Walker, Wayne Quinn, Garland Wise, C. C. Musch, and Siddie Orsak just want to leave.
I, Charlene Bennett, will my curls to Charlsie Horton.
We, Jean Bickham, Pete Bridges, and Margaret Cook, leave our gift of gab since we didn't have any to begin with.
I, Vivian Eastman, leave my poetic tongue to Ruthie Glenn.
I, Marion Harrison, leave my right to ride around with J. B. Hamilton and Leland Williams at noon to any one sucker enough to risk his life.
We, Romona and Coloma Lafferty and La Verne Uher, will our lasting friendship to all friends.
We, Pete Morales and Daniel Mendez, will our good natures to the Good Neighbor Policy.
I, Vaden Smith, a trusting ole' soul, leave it to Frank Moffet who needs a soul.
I, Donald Ready, will my flowered towel to Gene Rising.
We, Gertrude Sliva, Jane Socka, Dorcus Wilkinson, Juanita Reed, Eloise Nolan, Mary Louise Ryman, Joyce McDonal, and Mary Mooney will our quiet ways to all who need them.
I, Marianne Serrill, give James Lee to Birdie Lou.
We, Louise Cooper, Patricia Culbertson, and Lillian Culver leave our boy friends to those who don't have any.
I, Goulding Hayes, leave my bow ties, loafing attitude, and my fond affection for my instructors to Norman McGlothlin.
Bertram Chambless needs everything he has except the extra inches on his feet.
I, Henry Carrington, offer my free advice on how to have "Well-Kept Hair" to anyone that needs it.
I, Jack Birkner, will to Fritz Matthews my right to loaf on the football field without being caught.
I, Billie Brown, will my smooth dancing to Fred Gaedche.
I, Bobby Hadegee, will my many girl friends to the highest bidder———Al Blaylock.
I, Carroll Harrison, leave my mullet mouth to Donald Morgan.
I, Olin Head, leave my authority to enter upon the runway of other people's conversation to Paul Mayberry.
I, Wanda Trembly, will my love for the boys to Pat Grove.
I, Bonnie Blaylock, will my crush on Vernon Montgomery to Mary Ann Owens.
I, Jeanette Hite, will my height to Joan Trlicik.
I, Lee Reddock, will my southern drawl to Jennie Bob Hayes.
I, Peggy Reel, will my right to park with all the boys to Patsy White.
I, Betty Deen, will my catty remarks to Janie DeRoch.
I, Loren Henderson, will my art of back-talking to Mrs. Wynne to Billy Morris.
I, Lester Henderson, do will my vodoo drums to Sally Vaughn.
We, La Verne Bettes and Ruth Conroy, will our right to disturb everyone at seven in the morning playing the piano to Jessie Mae Baker.
I, Jeff Clark, will my graceful figure to Robert McClain.
I, Rudy Kidder, will my muscular mouth to Frank Morales.
We, Donald Morris and Billy Wiginton, will to our postecessors Donald Poillard and Poochy Cox, what our predecessors willed to us: our steady aim with rubber bands to be used as they see fit.
I, Eutabelle Holloway, do hereby leave my love for hill-billy music to my dear sister.
I, Robert Morgan, will my art of captivating the hearts of the women to Harley Savage.
I, Marshall Yancey, leave my love for A & M to Glendale Oliver.
I, Sally Witmer, will my careful driving to Marcy Jean Dietusch.
I, Gloria Kershaw, will my dignified nature to Jane Kirby.
I, Meredith Keller, will the vacuum between my ears to Jackie Keller.
I, Bobbie Ottis, leave my horse laugh to Hollie Lee Briscoe.
I, Katy Acosta, will my right to carve my name on all the desks to anyone who has an artistic streak.
I, Jo Ann Moore, will my high temper to Betty Ann Craft.
I, Alfred Naiser, leave my nasal twang.
I, J. B. Sherrill, leave my circular motion legs for my bicycle to Mrs. Early.
I, Ervin Valigura, leave my "Junkyard Blues" to Don Frankie.
I, Buddy Hill, will my sick calf grin to Lucille Trout.
I, Carman Holzaepfel, leave my bowed gams to Katy Sue Swanzy.
We, Thomas Lukefurh and Andrew Litzler, leave our plowboy hands to Corky Anderson.
I, J. M. McDonal, will my dainty feet to A. C. Davis.
I, Cecile Stewart, leave my flirting eyes to Betty Jean Gordon.
I, Fred Buchanek, will my name to Norwood Dablegott. It's much easier to spell.
